Trinity Assembly Members At Groundbreaking Ceremony.

Assembly Breaks Ground

The Groundbreaking for the new Trinity Assembly of God church was accomplished on Sunday, Jan. 9. The location of the new church is on Highway 190 west of Woodville. The ceremony was officiated by Pastor A.A. Calloway and Rev. E.C. Drake, Presbyter of the Neches Valley Section of the Assembly of God. Rev. Calloway was elected pastor of the new congregation on Nov. 16, 1976. The trustees are Harold Read, Charles Riley and R.Q. Rieder. The new church formed in Sept. 1976 with approximately 60 members. Rev. Calloway says that the plans for the new church building are now being developed and the physical plant should be started soon. Rev. and Mrs. Calloway have one son, Ken, 13 years old daughter, Fran Houghton and son-in-law, Rev. Daniel C. Houghton. Dan and Fran are serving as youth minister of the church. Rev. Calloway is an ordained minister with 27 years experience as pastor, evangelist, camp meeting speaker in District Youth capacities and Christian Education. He attended Southwestern As-semblies of God, Theological Seminary, Waxahatchie, Texas. He is now serving as a Sectional Committeeman of the Neches Valley Section. Pastor Calloway and his congregation are worshipping currently on Sunday with Sunday School at 9:45 a.m. and morning worship at 11 a.m. at present time at 315 Holly St. until their new Sanctuary is completed.

School Air-Conditioning Possible By Next Fall

WOODVILLE—Woodville Independent School District Superintendent Tom Lynam told members of the School Service League Monday night that he hoped the buildings to be used after the construction of the new high school could be air-conditioned during the summer. Lynam said that architect Jack Stansbury had been working with the high school teachers, seeking their suggestions as to what should be included in the new building. At the same time, Stansbury has been working with mechanical engineers on the plans for air-conditioning the old buildings and bids will be advertised for both as soon as the plans are completed, according to the superintendent.

While he expressed optimism that the air-conditioning of the old buildings and the construction of the new high school would proceed on schedule, Lynam reminded the school league members that "sometimes there's a slip between the cup and the lip," referring to unexpected delays which might occur.

The money from the sale of the $3.1 million bonds was received on Jan. 3 and invested in banks in Bryan, Tyler and Houston on the same day, said Lynam. He added that the interest rates on the certificates of deposit ranged from 4.5 percent to 5.74 percent, with the longest more than 18 months. Approximately 20 banks in East Texas bid for the deposits, and Lynam said that Citizens State Bank of Woodville had been helpful in bringing in the bids.

Lynam also explained the district's stand on a recent re-evaluation of the market value of property in all districts throughout the state.

Using a standard of $290 per acre, the appraisers set the value for the WISD at $123 million. Lynam called the figure fair. "If you sell every piece of land, the houses and everything inside them," he added, however, that "you've got to stay within the bounds of what a man can produce," explaining that the total value of a man's property may not be in accordance with his salary.

Along with the Bridge City, Hemphill, Lumberton and Buns school districts, the WISD protested the appraisal, attended a hearing in Austin on the case, and was able to get the evaluation lowered to $113 million. The cut will be worth approximately $25,000 to $50,000 per year to the district's taxpayers according to Lynam. The state uses the evaluation to determine what amount in taxes each district will have to provide.

Beard Growing Contest this year will be best all around, scrappiest, longest and neatest. Judging will be conducted at the Western Week-End Rodeo on the Saturday afternoon, March 26, at 4:00 o'clock p.m.

Volunteers Needed

WOODVILLE—Mark your calendar now for Dogwood Time in Tyler County from March 25 to April 2, reminds Publicity Chairman Judy Watts.

As in the past, much volunteer help is needed to insure that the 34th annual Tyler County Dogwood Festival will be the best ever, says Mrs. Watts.

Directors and committees have been making plans for the biggest attraction in Tyler County and are now issuing a call for help, said the publicity chairman. "If you have a service you can offer or some time to donate, please contact Executive Director George Jarrott at 283-2003." She added that Jarrott will be happy to put interested persons in touch with the director of the area that they would like to work in.

The process of making the flowers for the festival is already underway, said Mrs. Watts, and help is also needed to make the 200,000 paper flowers necessary for the April event. Persons interested in working on the flowers should call Mrs. Sue Brackett at 283-2408 for more details.

Commissioners Hear Reports And Requests

WOODVILLE—The Tyler County commissioners met for two and a half hours in a cold courtroom Monday as they sought to gain a better insight into what problems face them in 1977.

Due to the breakdown of the courthouse boiler several weeks ago, the entire courthouse was still without heat Monday pending the completion of installation of a new boiler.

The meeting began with a report on the Allan Silvers Library by Peggy Burton, a member of the library's administrative board. She told the commissioners that the county provided approximately one-half of the support for the library and that approximately 62 percent of the library users were from outside Woodville. B.M. Minter, another member of the board, also addressed the commissioners.

Next, insurance agents Morris Clemmons, Johnny Harris and Jimmy Freeman explained to the commissioners the details of insurance coverage on the courthouse. Clemmons told those present that the coverage included three different rates on seven different parts of the courthouse. The commissioners tabled discussion on the insurance until a future meeting, but did act to acquire fire extinguishers for the courthouse after the agents noted that this would help reduce the insurance somewhat.

"Slim" England, representing Louisiana Land and Exploration, requested permission to secure a right of way to lay a four-inch pipeline across the county airport property. County Judge Allen Sturrock told England that they would have to check with aviation officials about the proximity of the line to the airport.

A report on the mini bus program was given by Director Rev. Jesse Adams, who pointed out that use of the bus had grown over the last year from 2,080 riders with incomes below the poverty level in 1975 to 3,368 in 1976. He added that the cost had been limited primarily to gasoline and the driver's salary, and that the bus should last for another two years if it continues to operate under the same conditions. At the recommendation of Judge Sturrock, the commissioners voted unanimously to commend Rev. Adams for a job well done.

The commissioners also unanimously approved the only bid they had received for gasoline, oil and diesel fuel for 1977. It was submitted by J.E. Gardner, Conoco Distributor of Woodville.

Fred Ellender of Ellender's Ambulance Service approached the commissioners on the possibility of using one of the county's old two-way radios in his ambulances to provide communication with the sheriff's dispatcher in emergencies. The commissioners said they would look into the matter.

In further action, the commissioners set the county's legal holidays as follows: Feb. 21, May 30, July 4, Sept. 5, Nov. 11, Nov. 24-25, Dec. 23 and 26, and Dec. 30.

Precinct 4 Commissioner Bo Jordan then called for a policy committee meeting for this Thursday at 9 a.m. to work on setting the county's sick leave, vacation time, hiring, and road acceptance policies. Also at the meeting, the commissioners voted to:

advertise for bids for the official deposits of the county funds, county school funds, and county hospital funds.

Davis told the BOOSTER Tuesday that Woodville had been put on a daily alert because of a gas shortage. "We can't have a little gas, we need it the hour we need it," he said. Davis said that the city had purchased 50 million cubic feet of natural gas from the Texas Eastern Gas Company and that the city had a contract to purchase 100 million cubic feet of natural gas from the same company. It's "cuties" such as the "Great Packaging Case" that so often make our elected representatives look so silly in their deliberations on Capitol Hill.

Some packaging, such as razor blades and lipsticks, do seem outdated since Mr. Birdseye perfected the quick-freeze process in the 1930's.

Now, fresh frozen peas are as common in January as their garden-harvested cousins are in July.

Processing and packaging plants are located where the crops are raised, rather than harvested and trucked to metropolitan areas where tons of produce are lost to spoilage.

Well, the old packaging bugaboos has reared its ugly head again. These are the people who want to bring back pickles and cracker barrels, sell sugar and flour by the hundred pound sack, and mild in glass bottles.

A flood of bills hit the Congress during the last session to restrict your ability to buy commodities and food in sanitized paperboard containers, and Texas' Congressman Eckhardt has another bill ready for the hopper this year.

Intigated by a group of law students at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., their recommendations to receptive Congressmen argue that packaging is deceptive, adds considerably to the cost of what we buy, and defrauds the consumer.

These same Georgetown zealots also did not consider the tons of "wet garbage" that would descend on cities if their ban on paperboard packaging was somehow inexplicably approved by Congress.

Los Angeles would be covered up with 10,000 tons of pea pods. All this, to eliminate the use of 3,500 tons of paperboard in both cities.

SETS&L Adds Computer

SETS&L Employee Mrs. Robert Abbott Chats With Technical Representative

Officers of the Southeast Texas Savings and Loan Association have announced this week the installation of a sophisticated all new on-line computer system to better serve the SETS&L customer.

According to Vice President Dick Davis, "The system will enable us to provide better and more customer services by allowing our employees to perform more functions in other service-type areas that will not require the use of the computer."

"Savers will benefit directly," he said, "because the NCR 770 terminal, which is linked to a computer at the First Security Financial System, a division of First Security National Corp., of Beaumont, will total compounded interest earned 'in a hurry' at the push of a button. According to Davis, the unit takes only eight seconds to receive an interest rate on the information desired by the SETS&L customer."

Davis said the utilization of the new computer system was one of the first steps toward a full electronic transfer system.

Davis also reported this week that the Kountze Branch of the Southeast Texas Savings and Loan Association has been approved and that the new facility to Kountze will be located directly across from the Peoples State Bank. Davis said the property was already purchased and improvements have begun on the land which is on the east side of Hwy. 69. Design of the building will be accomplished by Architect Don Cole of Woodville.

Davis said also that the Woodville office of SETS&L has started observing new hours which became effective on Monday, Jan. 17. The office hours are 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday. The offices will be open 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. on Friday and closed all day Saturday.

Now, fresh frozen peas are as common in January as your garden-harvested tomatoes are in July. And, as with most families who rely on packaged peas, you probably have forgotten that two thirds of the weight of fresh peas from the garden is water, not freshly considered a table delicacy.

And fresh frozen orange juice in its container form, by weight, is half that of the fresh picked fruit.

Packaging, that we take for granted today has increased the efficiency of delivering the food to your table, as well.

The metal building was financed by a time-warrant some six years ago. The original building was destroyed by fire each year. Mr. Charles Jenkins and the Vocational classes have installed paneling, restrooms, insulation ceilings and other improvements until it now is one of the most modern and well equipped vocational buildings in East Texas, say the trustees.

Before Christmas the platform for the new President's swearing-in ceremony was built. And for a month it has occupied a large space in the parking lot on the East Front of the Capitol building.

Now, the crash is in. The shoulder to shoulder on the lawn. But with people from all over the country and Texas wanting tickets. For a thing. Only 300,000 invitations to the Carter inauguration were mailed. A few were supposed to be a "people's inauguration" has turned into whoever is lucky enough to find an extra ticket. Eagle's Season Is 'Disappointing'

WOODVILLE—What began as a hopeful season for the Kirby boys' basketball team has turned somewhat sour as the Eagles have finished the first half of district action with a 2-2 record good for second place behind Kirbyville (4-0).

Last Friday, the Eagles fell to Kirbyville 51-65 on the Wildcats' court in a game decided by physical strength. Joe Barlow puffed in 19 points in the losing effort, followed by Archie Dill with 14 for the Eagles, but both were not near enough as the Wildcats' Glenn Barlow hit 34 points. In addition, the Wildcats outrebounded the Eagles two-45-one to take a defensive edge, too.

Kirby Coach James Rogers commented that his team was "flat" earlier in the week, as they narrowly defeated Warren 53-51. Tuesday, Robert Blackmon led the Eagles with 18 points and 14 rebounds.

The game was close all the way as the five periods ended in a 11-11 tie. Kirby beat the Hemphill Hornets 70-67, behind a 25-point performance by Joe Barlow. Archie Dill Added 21 points while Robert Blackmon contributed 12 in the winning effort. Blackmon also led the Eagles with 17 rebounds.

Kirby trailed the Hornets 26-31 at halftime, but evened the score at 54-54 by the fourth period and then pulled ahead to stay. A hot night at the free-throw line was a key in the victory as the Eagles hit the 20 of 21 charity shots.

Coach Rogers cited the main reason for the team's mediocre performance so far as "inconsistency," adding that they performed better at home than on the road.

The Eagles surprised many observers in the early season by placing fourth in the Beaumont YMCA Tournament, but have had their ups

Rainbow Trout At Boykin Springs

BEAUMONT—The rainbows are back in East Texas, not the kind associated with the weather, but the kind associated with action on a rod and reel and fine eating.

Recently, 300 rainbow trout were placed in Boykin Lake at the Boykin Springs Recreation Area in the Angelina National Forest off Hwy. 63 near Jasper and Zavalla.

The catchable size rainbow trout were purchased from Arkansas by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and placed in Boykin Lake for the enjoyment of East Texas anglers.

The recent stocking is the second year rainbow trout have been placed in East Texas waters. The trout fishery is strictly a put-and-take fishery since the rainbows are not expected to survive in our waters through the summer months.

Unlike last year when both Boykin Lake and Boykin Creek received rainbows, the department currently has no plans to stock Boykin Creek although Boykin Lake may receive additional fish in a few weeks.

Fishermen are reminded the daily creel limit of rainbows is five fish.

Rainbows are easily caught by anglers using tiny spinner baits or by using whole kernel corn or worms baited on small hooks and fished under a cork.

INSUR-MATION David Horn
Farm, life, auto, insurance—Livingston

Is there a Federal Bureau which regulates insurance companies?
No insurance company is required through state control. Each state exercises control by interpreting the law and this ruling becomes a form of regulation. Because the insurance companies have such an effect on the welfare of the public, state legislatures often enact laws which direct the insurance business along certain channels. The insurance commissioner has the most immediate control since it is his duty to see that laws and regulations are carried out and to see that the insured companies are licensed to do business in that state according to laws and regulations that protect the consumer.

GI Bill Training Declined

HOUSTON—GI Bill training will decline slightly during fiscal year 1977, the Veterans Administration forecasts, but enrollment is expected to remain above the two million mark for the fourth consecutive year.

During October 1.2 million students were using their GI Bill entitlement, down slightly from the last year at the same time, but cumulative enrollment for the year is expected to again exceed two million.

The decline in October is attributed, primarily, to the expiration of entitlement for those veterans who were discharged from service more than 10 years ago. Another factor, VA officials explain, is that millions of veterans have used their full educational entitlement under the law, or they have completed their educational objective.

More than 6.7 million persons have trained under the current GI Bill since it became available in 1966. Enrollment peaked last year with record 2.8 million trainees, up 4.8 percent from the 2.7 million in fiscal year 1975.

Still eligible for educational assistance are ex-servicemen with other than dishonorable discharges who have been separated less than 10 years and those who remain on active duty.

Legislation enacted last month denies entitlement under the current law to those who enter military service after December 31, 1976, and sets December 31, 1989, as the date by which all GI Bill training will terminate.

For thousands of GI Bill students, many of whom have already earned college degrees, the new law provides an additional nine-month training entitlement.

For those veterans who have not passed the 10-year delimiting date, the law extends entitlement from 36 to 45 months.

Those entering service after December 31, 1976, will be encouraged to enroll in a voluntary contributory educational assistance program, administered jointly by the Department of Defense and the Veterans Administration.

The program offers 36 months educational assistance entitlement with a 10-year delimiting date. Participants are allocated $500 monthly from their salaries in 12-month segments, up to a maximum of $7,700.

When the participant leaves service the contributions will be matched by the VA at the rate of $2 for every $1 he has allocated. Payments will be limited to the number of months the member contributed, or 36 months, whichever is less.

Seedling Sales Up

The early frost in East Texas this fall allowed the Texas Forest Service to begin routine shipment of pine tree seedlings on Nov. 29, two weeks earlier than usual. The heavy rainfall this fall has not hampered seedling production at the Indian Mound Nursery near Alto in Cherokee County.

Of the eleven varieties of pine seedlings offered this year, three are already sold out, regular slash, improved form and growth loblolly, and Virginia pines. Prices for remaining species range from $10 to $15 per thousand FOB the nursery; the minimum order of 500 seedlings is adequate to plant about one acre. A check or money order must accompany each application. Seedlings may be picked up at the nursery, or they can be shipped collect by motor freight. Orders may be grouped or combined to reduce transportation costs.

Applications are available from most agriculture-related government offices. Customers who order every year or who have already sent in their orders are receiving their shipment now. Tree planters are cautioned to plant their seedlings immediately upon receipt to insure their successful growth. Shipments will continue until March or until stock is exhausted. Questions regarding tree seedlings should be directed to Texas Forest Service, Alto 75925 (713) 658-4202.

Four Named To Task Force

BEAUMONT—Four Southeast Texans have been named to a study group that will evaluate the state's Medicaid program.

The task force, which is chaired by W. Marvin Watson, chairman of the Texas Department of Insurance, will study the program and make recommendations to the Welfare Board as to whether Medicaid can continue to operate at present elevated cost levels—and also remain within the constraints of recently lowered federal financial participation and apparent legislative intent to hold the lion's share of expenses.

According to DPW spokesman, there are 680,000 Texans eligible for Medicaid which is administered by the State Department of Public Welfare. The program provides health care for low-income Texans, most of them aged, blind and disabled, or dependent children deprived of parental support.

DPW has budgeted $24 million for medical services for the current fiscal year. The first meeting of the task force for evaluation of Medicaid in Texas was Jan. 13-14 in the state capital in Austin. Members of the study group later will visit sites where Medicaid services are provided. The report of the task force will be the largest health care study ever conducted in Texas.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, whose wife, Nancy, will address the opening session of the group on Jan. 12. The task force is composed of representatives from the Legislature, the State Department of Public Welfare, the State Department of Health, and the State Department of Insurance.

White Appointed To Election Board

AUSTIN—Secretary of State Mark White has been appointed to the Federal Election Commission's Advisory Panel on Voter Registration. It was announced today.

The appointment follows a meeting of state and federal election officials in Washington in December. White was in the nation's capital to discuss Texas voter registration efforts which added some 1.4 million citizens to the voter rolls during a nine-month period.

The State's Chief Elections Officer said the panel will allow Texas—already a recognized leader in voter registration programs—to have more input at the federal level.

White said he will push for one-way mailer applications which can be picked up at grocery and other stores, completed and returned, postage free, to registrars.

The one-way mailer program, administered by the state, will be more realistic than the federal proposal which called for the mailing of applications to every household in the nation, regardless of whether a person is registered or not. The federal bill would cover federal elections only and applications were to be available in post offices, White said.

White does not agree with these approaches as they would be wasteful of taxpayers' money.

In Texas, an estimated 8.5 million citizens were eligible to register on November 2. The Texas registration effort signed up a record number 1.4 million Texans, increasing the number of registered voters from 4.9 million in January to 6.3 million in November 1976.

White said the federal approach would create a dual registration system, one for federal elections and one for state and local elections. This would lead to voter confusion and disfranchise many citizens who would be unaware of the dual system.

Under White's approach each state would attempt to locate its unregistered citizens through personal contact by various organizations and with the cooperation of the media.

White said the ultimate victor would be the voter, whom the federal legislation is trying to accommodate.

Rural Garbage Service Planned

If enough participants can be lined up, W. B. Bailey would like to start a rural trash and garbage pickup service. He is seeking area residents who would be interested in such a project.

Mr. Bailey states that he is a permanent resident of the county and would like to stay here. He said further that the service would save the people time and money. He plans a weekly pickup 'at your door'.

He also plans to allow those on Social Security special rates.

Those interested may contact Mr. Bailey by calling 283-2048 or writing him at Rural Route 1, Box 92A, Woodville. If and when enough patrons of the service are lined up, a route would be established.

Region 10 Welfare Chairman Named

Beaumont attorney Frank M. Adams was named temporary chairman of the new Region 10 Child Welfare Board Council at its recent organizational meeting in Woodville.

Adams also serves as chairman of the Jefferson County Child Welfare Board.

Purpose of the new council, according to DPW officials, is to interpret the needs of children on a regional level and to create a new forum for setting priorities for funding various projects.

Present at the meeting were representatives from nine of the 15 counties served by Region 10 of the State Department of Public Welfare. The region extends from the Golden Triangle area northward to Nacogdoches and Shelby Counties.

Also present were Mrs. June Klein, DPW Region 10 administrator, Mrs. Margaret Maxwell, regional director of social services, and other DPW officials.

Jack King, regional director for Social Services in the DPW Region 97 (Paris), and Terry Temple, assistant regional administrator, told the groups about the procedures used to set up a similar council in their region.

Bobby Matthews, director of Children's Services in DPW state office, Austin, told about the legislative issues concerning children that will be facing lawmakers at the state capitol this year.

A representative from the new Child Welfare Board Regional Council will attend a meeting in Austin this week to discuss establishment of a statewide council composed of membership from all 12 DPW regions.

Drake Interview Continues Inside

The Star's interview with Mrs. W.A. (Emma) Drake is continued on pages 4 and 5. This is a footnote to today's discussion on political involvement.

I have been told that Mrs. Giffchrist's resolutions would not be constitutional. In my opinion, the reason would be the restrictions. In lieu of those restrictions, is it constitutional for one school district in the county to become so involved?

Bill says no insurance, no tags

AUSTIN — Sen. Walter Mengden of Houston Thursday pre-filed legislation to provide that license plates for a motor vehicle cannot be obtained without proof the owner has liability insurance in force. The bill (SB 80) also provides that no driver's license will be issued to an individual who does not carry insurance on his auto.

Many people have been involved in automobile acidents in which the other party did not have insurance. Situations like this can be prevented by making sure that no one can get either license plates or a driver's license if he does not have the proper insurance to take care of his liability in case of an accident.

Very simply, individuals who do not have the proper insurance or financial responsibility should not be driving," Mengden said.

The bill also contains provisions requiring insurance companies to notify the Department of Public Safety within 30 days if a policy is terminated by cancellation or refusal to renew. If a person does not maintain his liability insurance or some other proof of financial responsibility, he would be required to surrender license plates.

Mengden introduced a similar bill in the last session of the legislature, but it was killed in the Senate Economic Development Committee.

AREA ROTARY CLUB MEETING SET JAN. 29TH

An area wide meeting of Rotarians is scheduled to be held in Woodville on January 29th. All Rotary Club members in this region are invited to be in attendance when the meeting convenes.

The meet has been termed an Information Institute by local Rotarians. Special guest speaker for the event will be C. H. "Hank" Brumfield.

Mr. Brumfield was born and raised in Amite, Louisiana where he attended public schools. He later attended and graduated from Louisiana State University, 1954-1958. He returned to Amite and worked for the Ford dealership in which he was a partner with his father and brother till 1961. He went to Kentwood, La., and took over the management of another family owned dealership. He became active in that town's Rotary Club and served in different offices within.

In 1967, after a long hospital stay resulting from a serious automobile accident, he came back to work for the agency in Amite where he resumed his automobile career.

His past activities and accomplishments include: past president of the Amite Rotary Club; past president of the LSU Alumni Association; past president of Oak Forest Academy; secretary of the Tangipahoa Parish division of the Capitol Resource Conservation and Development Project; choir member of his church; past district governor for District 684; and elected to central committee of Democratic Party of his Parish.

CARTER SETS STAGE FOR LIBERAL ADMINISTRATION

Jimmy Carter may turn out to be a closet conservative after all, as some folks are now suggesting, but we wouldn't make book on it. His appointments have seemed, on the whole, far more reasonable than one might expect, say, if Bella Abzug were to run the country come January 20. But the Carter picks are not nearly so moderate as the press is pretending, either.

Indeed, we think the Carter team—judging by their past statements and records—will try to push this country a good deal more to the left than many now believe. On the domestic front, for instance, what is there to be so reassured about?

W. Michael Blumenthal, for instance, is probably the most left-wing treasury secretary-designate since Henry Morgenthau. He's a big supporter of federal spending. Effective programs to rebuild the slums and improve health, education and welfare, he says, are worth it, "despite the attendant enormous price tag. . . Blumenthal, moreover, is a major supporter of government planning, and is a founding member of the aggressively socialist Initiative Committee for National Economic Planning (see page 3 for details).

For chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, Carter has chosen Charles Schultz, a key figure at the liberal Brookings Institution. While Schultz is no radical, he is still a liberal who believes in government spending programs and is suspected by the AFL-CIO of favoring wage and price controls as well. It is not exactly soothing, either, to know that he was budget director while LBJ was on his Great Society binge.

To head up the $140-billion Health, Education and Welfare department, Carter, according to the best-informed opinion as we went to press, had decided on another Great Society buff, Joseph Califano. During the Johnson years, Califano was serving as LBJ's domestic legislative adviser and was considered a "captive" of the welfare lobby.

For secretary of labor, Carter has picked a strong friend of the unions in Texas Prof. Freddie Ray Marshall, who promised to do his best to persuade the President-elect to launch a drive to repeal Section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Act, the law that permits states to outlaw compulsory unionism.

Rep. Robert Bergland (D.-Minn.), who will become the secretary of agriculture under the next Administration, has been a sharp critic of the free market approach to agriculture taken by Earl Butz.

Bergland is a strong supporter of the multi-billion-dollar food stamp program—which now accounts for over half the Department of Agriculture's budget—favors a sharp increase in federal price supports for grains and milk and has advocated establishing a federal grain reserve. Don Paarlberg, the department's chief economist, says that ending the existing "market-oriented policy" will result in "artificially high prices, crop surpluses and production controls."

As transportation secretary, Carter has tapped Rep. Brock Adams (D.-Wash.), who is clearly hostile toward those who believe that deregulation should be the wave of the future for the transportation industry. He seems to favor increased federal subsidies for all modes of transportation, enthusiastically supports mass transit programs and thinks government should stand by to bail out industry.

Patricia Roberts Harris, a Washington, D.C., lawyer, has been chosen to head the department of Housing and Urban Development, and nothing in her background would suggest she is disenchanted with federal spending and exotic government programs. Juanita M. Kreps, his secretary of commerce, is also a liberal and a "libber" as well.

While the civil rights groups were up in arms over the selection of Griffin Bell as attorney general—partly because he had backed Harold Carswell for the U.S. Supreme Court—Bell's position on such issues as busing and quotas is far from Wallaceite and there is little indication that he will reverse the most outrageous interpretations of civil rights laws by judges and bureaucrats (see page 5).

The Administration's foreign and defense policies are also likely to be even softer than those followed by Ford and Kissinger. Carter's choice as defense secretary, Harold Brown, is considered several degrees to the left of either of his two immediate predecessors, James Schlesinger and Donald Rumsfeld (see page 4). Brown, according to those who have heard him, is an ardent arms controller, who has been sharply critical of the development of the cruise missile, a program many consider essential in giving the U.S. a credible deterrent posture.

Carter's secretary of state pick, Cyrus Vance, was an early Vietnam dove, is a strong supporter of "unconditional amnesty" for draft-dodgers and deserters (a position to the left of Carter's), and apparently looks with equanimity upon coalition governments in Western Europe which include the Communists.

Phenylketonuria — PKU isn't exactly a household word, unless you're associated with someone whose child has the condition. In fact, there are at this time only 163 known cases of PKU in Texas. Yet it is the target of one of the Texas Department of Health Resources' most sustained preventive programs.

The reason is simple: undetected and untreated PKU can eventually turn an otherwise healthy infant into a hopelessly retarded child who, in most cases, will be institutionalized for the rest of his life.

Strictly speaking, PKU isn't a disease. It is an inherited metabolic trait, first discovered some forty years ago by a Norwegian biochemist-physician. The problem shows up about once in every 15 to 20,000 births. Fortunately, it is fairly easy to detect and, once detected, it can be controlled without disrupting the child's or the family's life.

PKU is a condition in which the body is unable to metabolize one of the basic amino acids, phenylalanine. Excessive amounts of the acid, which is present in many different foods, quickly build up in the child's body. Over a period of time, the acid buildup leads to brain damage and progressively severe mental retardation. Untreated PKU children can become irritable, hyperactive, and eventually convulsive. Skin rashes and severe eczema also may occur.

Every child born in a hospital, or under the supervision of a doctor, is tested for PKU—usually before the mother and child leave the hospital. The test is given after the infant has received a protein-containing food for at least 48 hours, enough time for traces of phenylalanine to show up in the bloodstream if they aren't being metabolized. If the initial test is positive, a second test usually is conducted about three to six weeks after birth. The test can be performed at many hospitals and local health departments, or at the state Department of Health Resources laboratories in Austin, where 181,000 of the tests were performed last year.

When PKU is detected, treatment can begin at once. The treatment consists of a carefully-regulated diet, to reduce the child's intake of

The Pines Theatre in Woodville has installed a completely new sound system for the benefit of patrons. Difficulties were experienced during the showing last week of "In Search of Noah's Ark" so the management got on the ball and ordered a new sound system to be installed pronto.

Pat O'Bryan, owner, called the Star this week and informed us the system had arrived and would be completed Wednesday, January 19. So, looks like a good sound will be enjoyed by all at the special showing Friday and Saturday of "Adventures of the Wilderness Family."

Spurger girls get sportsmanship award

The Spurger girls basketball team was awarded the sportsmanship trophy at the recent Colmesneil tournament after two narrow losses to opposing teams.

They lost to Corrigan in the first round by a score of 50-44. The Pirates were ahead in the fourth quarter but a last second shot by the opposing team sent the game into overtime. Even Callaway led the team in rebounds with nine, while Kathy Stanley and Sharlene Crosby combined for a total of 13 steals. Tina Fredieu and Gwen Grissom led the Pirates offense with 18 and 17 points respectively.

In the Friday encounter the Spurger girls put on another fine defensive effort before falling to Broadus 40 to 32. They held a narrow lead midway thru the final period but were unable to score during the last four minutes of play.

The Pirates were selected for the James "Tubby" McDonald Memorial Sportsmanship Trophy over the other fifteen teams in the tournament by the game officials. It was the second trophy in sportsmanship captured this season by the Pirates as they had earlier won the honors at the Evadale tournament.

Pictures to be shown Friday, Saturday

He will be showing proofs at the Community Center in Colmesneil on Friday, January 21 from 1 p.m. until 4:30 p.m.

No notification was sent regarding showing of pictures in the Warren community. We also did not get any confirmation on when photos would be submitted for publication. The firm promised us these pictures in four or five weeks after taking them. It has now been over two months. We regret this and apologise to the participants.

TREE SCENES

By Bill Terry

Even when water is plentiful, a tree cannot live by water alone. Therefore, feeding is a must for your lawn trees in East Texas. The high rainfall of East Texas washes or leaches out of the nutrients away. Young trees can especially have a problem in this humid area.

The time to fertilize is in the late months of fall and early winter. Use a fertilizer high in nitrogen such as 12-7-8, 12-6-6, 10-8-6 or 10-6-4, but be careful not to over fertilize.

To determine the amount of fertilizer measure the circumference of the trunk about four feet from the ground and multiply by two. This gives the number of pounds to be applied.

The fertilizer can be spread around the tree or placed in holes 12 to 24 inches deep in the soil under the tree's branches. Be sure your holes are 18 to 24 inches apart.

Finally, water the area thoroughly. Let the water from the hose seep slowly. A little help for Mother Nature can mean larger, healthier trees in less time.

Super-hood

As if his career as TV's best-loved super-hood hadn't soared high enough already, Henry (The Fonz) Winkler now aspires to get up on his toes. Winkler says "one of my greatest ambitions is to dance with the Moiseyev Ballet." Other secrets uncovered: The Fonz prefers sedentary pleasures such as tending plants and writing poetry to the Hollywood night life, and would rather be doing movies with his boyhood idol Katharine Hepburn than gathering his own fans on the night-time sensation "Happy Days."

Sign up for Medicare Medical Insurance through March 31

People who didn't sign up for Medicare medical insurance when they first became eligible or who have cancelled the protection once can enroll now through March 31 at any social security office.

Medicare medical insurance is offered automatically to people who reach 65 and are eligible for social security benefits—and to disabled people under 65 who have been entitled to monthly social security disability benefits for 24 consecutive months or more. Nine out of 10 people eligible are enrolled in the program, according to a social security spokesman.

"But some people decline the protection when they're first eligible," he said. "And some sign up once and cancel later. They can enroll in the first 3 months of any year."

Medical insurance helps pay doctor bills and other medical expenses and is the voluntary part of Medicare, funded by individual premiums and Federal general revenues. The basic premium is $7.20 a month through June 1977. It will be $7.70 a month for the 12-month period starting in July 1977.

"People who decline Medicare medical insurance and delay signing up for more than a year pay a higher premium," the spokesman noted. "People who sign up and cancel later can re-enroll only once."

Medical insurance supplements Medicare hospital insurance, which is funded by social security contributions from workers, employers, and self-employed people.

"People 65 and over who are not eligible for social security or railroad retirement benefits can apply at any social security office for Medicare hospital insurance by paying a premium," the spokesman said. "The basic premium is $45 a month through June 1977. It will be $54 a month for the 12-

Stuffed pork chops are a perfect cure for those post-holiday cooking blues. Pork is plentiful in Texas markets with supplies now at their seasonal peak. The peanut stuffing also provides a protein boost to the tasty main dish, while an alternate stuffing contains both protein-rich pecans and plentiful Texas rice. Add the tasty taste of a Texas citrus fruit salad to enhance flavor and provide important vitamins.

PORK CHOP DELIGHT
 1/2 cup uncooked rice
 3 cups cold water
 1 tsp. salt
 2 Tbsp. chopped fresh parsley
 1/2 cup chopped pecans
 1 (1 1/2 qt.) package onion soup mix
 1 Tbsp. melted oil
 2 (1 1/2 inch) Texas loin pork chops

PEANUT-STUFFED PORK CHOPS
 6 pork rib chops, cut 1 1/2 inches thick
 2/3 cup coarsely crushed, shredded wheat spears
 1/2 cup shredded cheddar cheese
 1/2 cup chopped pecans
 1 tsp. garlic salt
 2 Tbsp. tart or dripping oil
 Salt

Combine the uncooked rice with 2 cups cold water and salt. Bring to a boil. Simmer until rice is tender. Add and mix chopped fresh parsley and chopped pecans. Set aside. In another pan bring to a boil 1 cup water and add the onion soup mix, salt, and oil and brown the pork chops. Cut pecans on side with sharp knife to allow to cool. Stuff with rice mixture and place in a 2 quart casserole. Four ounces of butter mixture over chops and sprinkle with pepper. Cover and bake at 350 degrees F. for one hour or until pork chops are tender. Yield: 2 servings.

Make a pocket in each chop by cutting into the chop along the bone. Mix together shredded wheat, cheese, pecans, and garlic salt. Fill pocket in each chop with 3 to 4 Tbsp. stuffing. Brown chops in tart or dripping oil and place in baking dish. Season pork chops with salt and pepper in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 30 minutes. Remove cover and bake 30 minutes longer or until done. Yield: 6 servings. Note: Baked cereal can be substituted for shredded wheat wafers in the stuffing.

Pine Seedlings Available

The early frost in East Texas this year allowed the Texas Forest Service to begin routine shipment of pine tree seedlings on Nov. 29, two weeks earlier than usual.

The heavy rainfall this fall has not hampered seedling production at the Indian Mound Nursery near Alto in Cherokee County, TPS reported.

Of the 11 varieties of pine seedlings offered this year, three are already sold out: regular slash, improved and growth loblolly and Virginia pines.

Prices for remaining species range from $10 to $13 per thousand FOB the nursery; the minimum order of 50 seedlings is adequate to plant about one acre. A check or money order must accompany each application. Seedlings may be picked up at the nursery, or they can be shipped collect by motor freight. Orders may be grouped or combined to reduce transportation costs.

Applications are available from most agriculture-related government offices. Customers who order every year or who have already sent in their orders are receiving their shipments now. Tree planters are cautioned to plant their seedlings immediately upon receipt to insure their successful growth. Shipments will continue until March, or until stock is exhausted. Questions regarding tree seedlings should be directed to Texas Forest Service, Alto 76925, (713) 858-1022.

Adding It Up... Number Two And Three... Down From Last Year

While the figures are still being compiled on 1973 agriculture income, Texas during 1973 continued its number two and three rankings nationwide in value of crops and livestock.

Texas ranked number three in crop and livestock total value in 1973 with a total of $5.8 billion. If you add the $281,000,000 in timber income, that would put Texas above $6 billion. Only Iowa and California are above the $5 billion figure.

In crop value, Texas was third with $2.8 billion; in livestock and livestock products, Texas is second with $3 billion.

A half dozen Texas counties during 1973 had more than $100,000,000 in value in crops and livestock. The number one county in the state is Deaf Smith with a crop and livestock value of $180,800,000. Other counties in the top ten in crop and livestock total value are Hidalgo, Farmer, Castro, Hale, Lamb, Wharton, Lubbock, Swisher, and Hansford.

The top ten counties in crop value were Hidalgo, Farmer, Deaf Smith, Hale, Castro, Wharton, Lamb, Cameron, Lubbock, and Floyd. The top ten counties in livestock and livestock product value are Deaf Smith, Gonzalez, Hopkins, Castro, Nassogdoches, Shelby, Farmer, Sherman, Swisher, and Hansford.

The $5.8 billion figure for Texas' 1973 farm income of crops and livestock represents a slight increase from 1972, but it is considerably below the $9.5 billion figure for 1972. Take a look at the gross and net income figures for the state and you get a better idea of how Texas farmers are faring financially.

Net farm income is down $132,800,000 from 1974; and the 1974 net is down $33,200,000 from 1973. The year of 1973 was the big one in net farm income for Texas with $2 billion plus.

On a per-farm basis in Texas, the average farm produced a net income of $4,610 in 1973.

Total gross income from agriculture nationwide as well as Texas is expected to be near the 1973 level, but net income is expected to be lower due to increased production costs.

INTERVIEW WITH MRS. DRAKE

We continue our interview with Mrs. W. A. (Emma) Drake from last week. This week she confines her remarks to one basic subject—or question:

Who is right?

WHEN DO THE RIGHTS OF SCHOOL BOARD TRUSTEES INFRINGE ON THE RIGHTS OF THE TAXPAYERS?

There are certain truths we should remember as we look toward the future. The more we fully believe in and achieve freedom and equal opportunity—not simply for ourselves but for others—the greater our accomplishments in our community will be.

Individual freedom must be limited. When man does only what appears to be good for him in his own eyes, he becomes a traitor to his fellowman. Sometimes individual rights are not of the highest ethical standards because of the selfishness of man.

The introduction of the document on the adjoining page will enlarge your information and facts will stand in a clearer light.

The citizens of Tyler County are most proud of any cultural identity and willing to support it fairly. Any citizen residing in the City of Woodville, Tyler County and the Woodville Independent School District is taxed three times while a citizen who pays county tax only contributes once. Are other school districts contributing also? The WISD involvement in the Shivers library has proved very costly to its taxpayers.

Who is the beneficiary?

In March of 1975, WISD paid the following insurance on the library:

Faigin Insurance Agency	$ 349.28
Clemens Insurance Agency	349.20
Globe-Mann Insurance Agency	698.40

This amount is only 40% of the premium. The balance is prorated over a period of time.

The following excerpts will also be more informative to the citizen:

From minutes of the WISD school board meeting of July 16, 1974—

The superintendent was requested to investigate the possibility of using the Shivers Library as the official high school library, with school attorney to check on deed and other restrictions.

NOTE: We have a high school library and librarian. Would that eliminate this unit and expense?

From minutes of WISD school board meeting of August 20, 1974—

The superintendent presented to the board of trustees a letter from Mr. C. Bowen, Deputy Commissioner for the Texas Educational Agency concerning use of the Shivers Library in lieu of Kirby High School Library. This letter is attached and will become a part of these minutes.

NOTE: The school trustee contacted said he did not have a copy of the letter.

From minutes of WISD school board meeting of October 15, 1974:

Mrs. Doretta Gilchrist appeared before the board of trustees to present a plan for the formation of a Tyler County Library District which would take over the operation, maintenance and financing of the Allan Shivers Library. The board expressed approval of the plan and offered to support.

From minutes of WISD school board meeting of November 19, 1974—

A resolution prepared by Mrs. Doretta Gilchrist requesting that the Texas Legislature authorize the creation of a Tyler County Library District, to be acted upon by the voters of Tyler County was approved by the board after a motion by F. M. Archer and a second by J. W. Gainey.

From minutes of the WISD school board meeting of October 21, 1975—

The board discussed avenues to be followed in replacement of a defunct heat pump at the Shivers Library. On a motion by J. F. Sullivan and a second by Bobby Kinnon, the board voted to (1) make a temporary hook-up for heat during the winter months using an existing heat pump to heat two areas, (2) have a meeting of the library board and ask for a revision in the financing plan for the Shivers Library whereby the city, county, and the school share equally in replacement and maintenance of the equipment and facilities.

NOTE: Why did our school trustees get our school district involved in such collision and legal uncertainty? There are many other excerpts that space does not allow. The repair bills on heating and air conditioning have been quite costly to the taxpayer. TO BE CONTINUED

WHEN IS A GIFT NOT A GIFT?

Reproduced on this page is the conveyance of the property known as the Shivers Library and Museum in which responsibility and upkeep is a three-way obligation by and between the Woodville Independent School District, the City of Woodville and Tyler County. The document shows its own infeasibility. Aligned there have been squabbles over who is to do what or pay certain expenses and the over-laying lines of obligation are non-binding and arbitrary, to say the least. And, the taxpayer rolls overlap or do not exist. Upon default the property returns to the original owners.

The Untouchables

The ground rules of the untouchables are considerably rigged but by their control of certain legal machinery to cover up they are able to prolong their power. The untouchables do not admit anything neither do they deny anything regarding the part they play in human interest service.

What has happened to our system of social justice, values and our honor code? Principles and honor is a system of restraint on the part of man. It is a state of mind. No legislation can regulate man's code of honor. It must come from his own heart and mind.

The citizen who pays and pays for good government is faced with collision, legal manipulation and control. We need to examine the nature of this control. A large amount of our tax dollars are spent to perpetuate the high handed authority used by a few. The untouchables use the mental overkill method of their so called dedication and kindness and concern for the future of Tyler County.

They try to brainwash people and point an accusing finger at those who believe in integrity and have a code of honor. They make plans to cheat economically. In the past citizens of Tyler County have been overkilled by judicial nonsense, masterpieces of legal manipulation and misrepresentations within our local governments. The basic question before the citizens of Tyler County is one of economic governmental power and where it shall reside.

Shall it reside in the body of the people or in the hands of the self appointed untouchables? The problem is, as Thomas Paine would say—"we are like men who continue putting off some unpleasant business from day to day, yet know it must be done, hates to set about it, wishes it over and is continually haunted with the thought of its necessity."

It is time that we recognize that we have a right to demand honorable representation in the economy of local governments.

The law, the clock have a big hand in what we do. There is one privilege of reading—our fifth freedom. Nobody can tell you what you must read or when you choose to read. With a newspaper you are as free as a bird. Only man can appreciate the information, education and relaxation offered by the printed word. The newspaper fills a vacuum in smaller towns that otherwise would remain a void.

Newspaper journalism rises to exceptional performance when editors are bent on shaping their minds to give the truth to their readers. They trust in justice, not in favors. They are consistent—not changeable. They are a friend to all citizens, not a partisan. He believes in honest competition in advertising. The good will of the public is the only reliable asset he can possess.

History, said Napoleon, is a lie agreed upon. The great general noted what has become so familiar to serious citizens of today—that it is not what actually happened that matters but rather who writes the account and what set of facts or misrepresentations he chooses to employ.

Citizens of Tyler County and the taxpayers of the Woodville Independent School District have been deluged with so called "Official Reports and a State of Emergency" that later have been shown to be politically motivated frauds intended to deceive the voters.

Paid opinion by Mrs. W. A. (Emma) DRAKE

GOD'S WISDOM WILL EMERGE FROM THE DEPTHS OF SORROW

At some time in our lives there comes a moment of tragedy that compels us even in the midst of our grief to ask the eternal question, "Why?" Yet what seems so cruel and senseless to us nevertheless happens for a reason that we are unable to comprehend. Somewhere, hidden from our eyes and our understanding, there is a divine purpose in everything. It is all part of the preordained pattern of our lives, the building of our character and the preparation for an ultimate destiny as yet unrevealed to us until the dawn of some bright tomorrow. At the Church of your choice, you will receive the comfort and strength you need, as well as the wisdom to trust God; because He has a master plan for the universe, and you are a part of it.

God's ways seem dark, but, soon or late, They touch the shining hills of day.
 John Greenleaf Whittier

"Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him."
