Festival Ends This Saturday

The Tyler County Dogwood Festival winds up its spectacular 34th annual festival with the Queen's Coronation and outdoor pageant this Saturday April 2.

The festival queen will be chosen from four princesses representing the high schools in Tyler County. She will be announced and crowned at the Queen's Coronation at 7:30 p.m. April 2 in the Dogwood Amphitheater, Her Royal Majesty, Queen of the 1977 festival will be crowned by Texas General Land Commissioner, Bob Armstrong.

The 1977 princesses are Kathy Barnes of Chester, Gina Pickett of Colmesneil, Cynthia Hryhorchuk of Warren, and Kim Collier of Woodville.

Four runners-up will act as ladies-in-waiting. The entire royal court, including 30 visiting duchesses and their escorts will be presented at the coronation and in the annual parade scheduled for 2 p.m. the same day.

Over 15,000 persons are expected to attend this 34th Dogwood Parade which this year boasts more than 200 entries. Texas Attorney General, John Hill will be parade marshal.

The Outdoor Pageant of the Festival is held in the Dogwood Amphitheater adjacent to Kirby High School. All work on this production is voluntarily with local citizens taking the responsibility of the script, costuming, acting and all other elements which make up a professional production.

This year's pageant which will follow the Queen's Coronation will feature a fantasy story entitled "Travelin' Fever". The pageant is written and directed by Mrs. Max Graham, Mrs. Melvin Houston, Mrs. Grady Holderman and Mr. Monroe Prescott of Woodville. Musical scoring is done by Dr. Jim Jinnette, also of Woodville and for the 6th year the Robert E. Lee Southernaire of Houston will be featured in song.

The Dogwood Festival Queen is selected by the Kingsmen, a group of about 40 Tyler County businessmen who judge the young ladies on Beauty, Poise, and Personality in a series of three judgings held prior to the Festival.

Senior girls from each of the five high schools in Tyler County are eligible to participate. The group which starts with 40 to 50 girls is eliminated through the judging process to five Princesses, but her identity is a well-kept secret until Coronation and Pageant time on Dogwood Day.

As part of the coronation ceremonies, Mr. East Texas will be presented. He is Texas Supreme Court Judge, Price Daniel, Sr. of Liberty.

Tickets for the event may be obtained from the Tyler County Chamber of Commerce, 118 Pavilion Street, Woodville, Texas 75779, at various Woodville merchants, or at the amphitheater on April 2.

Temple-Eastex To Sign Over 2,000 Acre Thicket Parcel

DIBOLL.—The Nature Conservancy, the American Land Trust, and Temple-Eastex Inc. in a joint announcement today said that final negotiations are under way for a major 2,000-acre gift of Temple-Eastex's land in the Sandylands are of the Big Thicket. The gift is expected to be made to the Conservancy under the auspices of the trust.

Bleasley R. Jones, Director of the Conservancy's Atlanta office, which has been involved in the planning for the donation said, "Although final details have not been settled, both Temple-Eastex and the Conservancy feel confident that the gift will become a reality. We expect to complete negotiations in early April with a formal transfer at ceremonies on April 16th on the property."

The land being considered for the gift is on Village Creek about two miles west of Silsbee in Hardin County, Texas. It is scheduled to be managed by the Nature Conservancy as a nature sanctuary.

American Land Trust was established early in the Bicentennial year in an innovative two-year effort to save vital portions of the nation's diverse ecological heritage. Using the experience of The Nature Conservancy, the Trust is seeking $200 million in donations of land or in funds to protect lands of at least one prime area in each state.

The Nature Conservancy is a private, national, non-profit conservation organization whose resources are devoted to the preservation of natural areas and the diversity of life they shelter. Both the Trust and the Conservancy are headquartered in Arlington, Virginia. The Conservancy and its Texas chapter have worked closely with the Big Thicket Association based in Saratoga, Texas on arrangements for the current donation.

Temple-Eastex, which is headquartered in Diboll, Texas, is the wholly owned forest products subsidiary of Time Inc.

Easter Music Slated

Castilaw Announces

H.L. Castilaw has announced his candidacy for position 2 in the Warren I.S.D. School Board Election set for April 2.

Castilaw and wife Velma and two daughters, Janet and Sheila have been residents of Lake Hyatt for the past twelve years. He attended school at Warren, Kountze and Lamar University. He is a veteran of the U.S. Army and a member of Pineville Baptist Church.

Mr. Castilaw has been self-employed as an electrical contractor for the past seventeen years.

"With your vote of confidence, you will ask me to represent you in decisions that concern every citizen of the Warren I.S.D. In asking for your vote, I also ask that you talk with me about your goals for our children, as they may be met through our schools. Thank You, H.L. Castilaw"

Allison Makes Candidacy Statement

I would like to announce my candidacy for Position No. 5 on the School Board of the Woodville Independent School District. I have been a member of the School Board since 1970. As a member of the School Board, I feel qualified and am ready with all of the support and resources I can bring to the district. I am confident that I can represent you well. Thank You, Harold Allison, Jr.

CAMP-OUT CREW—This lucky troop of girls are shown just before leaving on a three day trip to Galveston which included a visit to Sea-ARAMA and an exciting trip on the Bolivar Ferry. Despite rough weather on two of the nights Troop leader Mrs. Penny Bell said the girls had a good time. Shown from left to right are: Mrs. Bell, Trachel Bell, Rita McCullough, Cindi Nelson, Tracy People, Paula Morrell, Thelma Joseph, Teresa Russell and Mrs. Tracy Penninger.

Who Was That Masked Man?

The silver bullet and Tonto are gone and with the ending of the old the new begins.

The "new" Lone Ranger has traded in his silver bullet for a gold one and his boots for a pair of white (if somewhat dirty) sneakers.

The young man affectionately known as the new Lone Ranger is 10 year old Mike Stacy. Mike and his family moved to Woodville 2 1/2 years ago from Kentucky. He really enjoys Western Week-end and would love to ride in the Western parade but did not have a white horse.

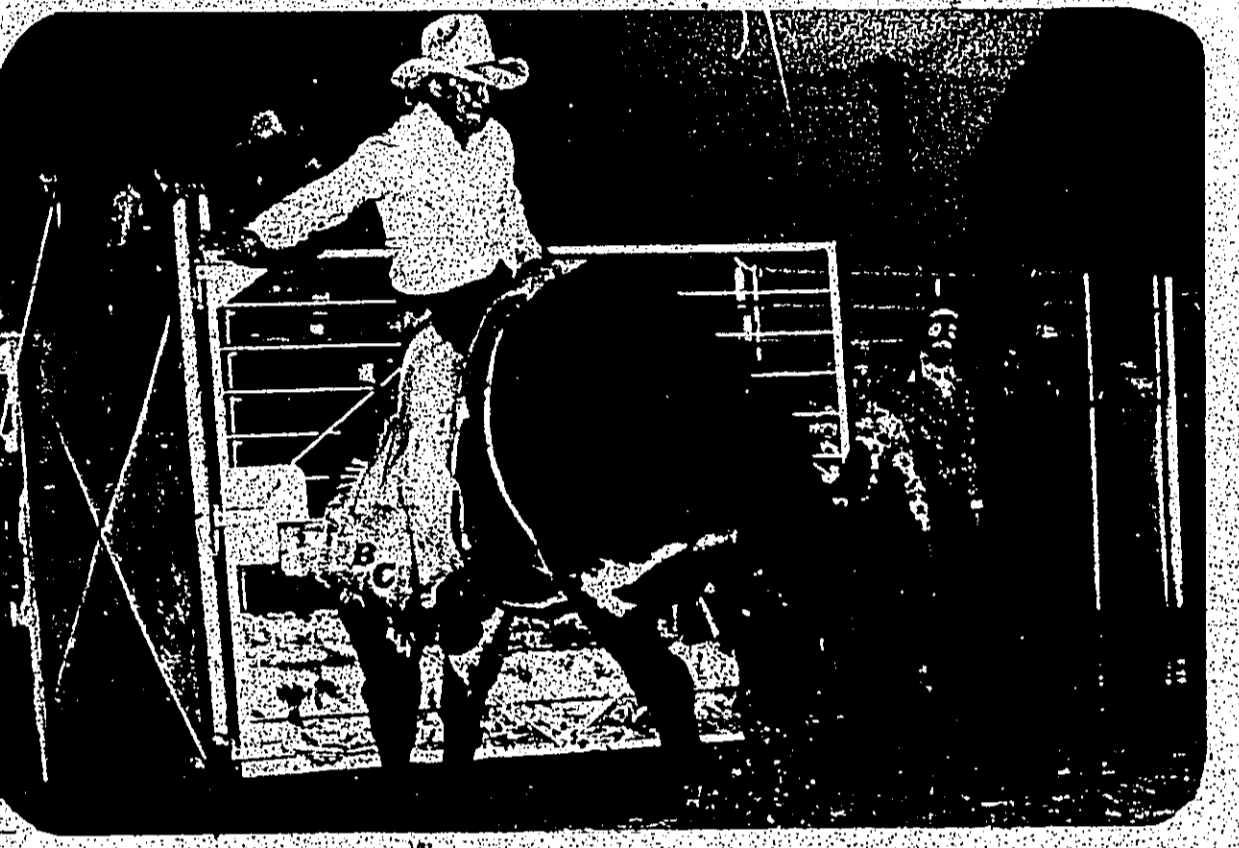

Next year though, I will have a white horse" Mike says. "If I still be the new Lone Ranger because Woodville doesn't have a hero and we need one."

Western Week Dogwood Festival Begins

Jim Clark, Director of Dogwood Festival Western Week-end Activities, announced that despite the inclement weather this past Saturday both at the Parade and at the Rodeo, Western Week-end was a success both in participation by the various trailrides and by the attendance at the Rodeo and the Adult and Teen-age Dances.

Clark stated that 1,057 riders were counted as being attached to registered trailrides for the purpose of judging but not included were the Color Bearers, dignitaries, special entries and unattached riders which would swell the total considerably.

The Western Week-end Sweetheart Contest had 9 entrants and the 1977 Western Week-end Sweetheart winner was Miss Melissa Boles, Lumberton Trailriders, Assn., first runner-up Miss Karla Hyden, Jasper Riding Club and second runner-up was Miss Jenny Carlton, Tyler County Youth Riders.

The Sweetheart will participate in next Saturday's Dogwood Parade and represent Western Week-end at the Jasper Rodeo.

The Trophies given in the Beard Growing Contest went to Johnny George for the neatest beard; Keith Hayes for the fullest beard and Lewis Hudson for the scraggliest beard.

The Corrigan-Moscow Trailriders were awarded the trophy for having the most number of riders in the parade, a total of 191; the Lumberton Trailriders were voted the most authentic trailride and the Orange County Mounted Posse the best organized trailride.

Nineteen youngsters received trophies for catching goats in the muddiest, wettest and wildest goat scramble in the history of Tyler County Rodeo and their names are as follows: ages 6 and under are Jeff Pope, Mike Williams, Candy Kenrick, Scott Mackey, Frank Ogden and Cris Cavin; ages 7, 8, and 9 are Mark Johnson, Heather Tidwell, James Knapp, Jim Kenrick and Jerry Fondren; ages 10, 11, and 12 are Melanie Esmond, Bill Willis, Robert Belt, Drew Tidwell, Kent Graham, Randy Ward and Matt Johnson.

Clark said he wishes to express his appreciation to all of his committee chairmen and to each and every worker who participated in the 1977 Western Week-end Celebration.
