District Architect Unfolds School Plans

Bus Trip Planned To Honor Adams

County Judge Allan Sturrock reports this week that a chartered bus is being arranged hopefully, he says, to provide transportation for those wishing to participate in the events honoring Senator Don Adams as "Governor for a Day" in Austin on Oct. 15. Persons interested in making this trip are asked to contact Judge Sturrock's office at 283-2161 or District Clerk Pat Brown's office at 283-2162, as soon as possible. Estimated cost of the trip will be $25 per person. A maximum of forty-four persons will be accepted.

Burned Building Razed, District Approves HS Plans

The Woodville Independent School District Board of Trustees earned a considerable sum of money for the district as a result of a postponement move to encourage new building activity on the demolition project of the Kirby High School Building which was gutted by fire on July 4.

The district had first entertained bids for the destruction of the facility at an earlier meeting, but decided to wait another month and in so doing at the last regular meeting saved a total of $9,100 by awarding the bid to an Austin Contractor, Q.S. Frank's Demolition Company.

In other action in that last meeting the board accepted the final plans for the new high school as submitted by District Architect Jack Stansbury authorizing him to draw specifications to be advertised in the first or second week of October. The board set a formal bid opening date for Nov. 15, which is that month's regular district meeting date. Trustees Harold Allison and Dr. W.S. Nichols initiated the action last week which now paves the way for the architect to draw plans and invite state and area contractors to bid for the construction work.

Stansbury said "We've already gotten indications from at least four construction firms that have shown an interest in the project."

In other action the school board:

- approved the minutes of two previous meetings; one held on Aug. 16 and a special meeting held on Sept. 6;
- approved the financial statement for August;
- approved the report of the tax assessor collector for August;
- agreed to set a rate of 35 cents per mile to be reimbursed from the General Fund for each mile of extra-curricular travel;
- adopted a policy which recognized waiving students fees or deposits and which affects and redefines the administering of medication for pupils;
- in other board action the district also approved the schools filing and final application for Federal Impact Aid funds amounting to $1,800;
- and presented for board action and approved the 1976-77 amended budget for the Woodville I.S.D.

Following the regular session on the trustees adjourned into executive session where they considered personnel and real estate matters.

County Closeup: Meet Your District Clerk

by Trish Browning

District Clerk Patricia Brown enjoys her job. "I'm the type of person who likes to be in on the action," she said regarding her duties as recording agent for 88th District Court proceedings.

Acting under the direction of District Judges Clyde Earl Smith and Monte Lawlis, it is Ms. Brown's responsibility to keep precise records about the actions and proceedings of the District Courts in reporting, fines and jury fees, assisting in obtaining and compiling potential jurors, and have in her custody and be responsible for all records of the court.

The office of the District Clerk is an elected position which extends for a four-year term. Ms. Brown has been directly connected with county work for the past 14 years and says she intends to stay.

"It is a very interesting job," she said, "there's something new everyday and the jury trials are the most interesting aspect of the job."

Before entering to the office, a bond in the amount of $5,000, has to be approved by the County Commissioners. This bond is made payable to the Governor and is set "to insure faithful discharge of the duties of the office." The County pays all bonds for all elected officials.

One duty of the District Clerk is compiling a list of potential jurors. This is done by procuring from the Tax Assessor-Collector a list of registered voters. This list then becomes what is known as a "jury pool" for both grand and petit juries. These names are then transferred to smaller slips of paper and placed in the "jury wheel". In the presence of the District Judge and County Sheriff, Ms. Brown then draws the appropriate number of names from the wheel, records them and turns them over to the Sheriff who summons the jurors to duty on a certain date. As to final selection of the jury for any trial, the District Judge and lawyers for the case take over.

As an elected officer of the court, Ms. Brown must keep a fair record of the acts and proceedings accomplished by the court, enter all judgements of the court; and, under the direction of the District Judge keep a formal record of all sentences issued and the returns of such sentences, in books called minute books.

With an average of some 75 cases per week, the paper work is extreme, Ms. Brown said. Before the last day of each term of court, she must prepare a written statement showing all monies received for jury fees and fines, the name of each party who paid and the name of each juror who served and the number of days and amount due him for such services. This report is examined, and approved with the signature of the presiding Judge, District Judge Clyde Earl Smith said. "We move alot of cases due to the organizational abilities of Mrs. Brown," he said, adding, "She's efficient, honest, a hard working clerk and she works with the court."

One additional item that Ms. Brown takes care of, but which is not under the duty of District Clerk, has been the supervision of booths for the Tyler County Dogwood Festival. Some 12 years ago while working under County School Superintendent B.M. Minter, he asked her to "handle the situation", and she has been doing so ever since.

The office of the District Clerk is not a State Office as is the Judges for whom she works, Ms. Brown feels that if the office were a state office, the responsibilities of her job would be somewhat different.

"There are 254 counties in the State of Texas and each one has a District Clerk handling things his own way. I feel that office procedures would be more uniform if set up by the state and not by individual counties," she said.

Ms. Brown, as district clerk is often called to another county to testify in such cases as child support and breach of contracts. If a divorced mother who is receiving child support moves to another county and the child support is not received, Ms. Brown must take her records and testify to the fact that the District Court in Tyler County set "X" amount of dollars to be paid to the mother. She must present these records personally and swear to their legality.

Ms. Brown is active in her job. She is the Director of the County and Districts Clerk's Association of Texas, area 7. She must constantly keep abreast of all new laws and proceedings. "District Court is the highest level of organized state jurisdiction," she said adding "I intend to run for the office when my term expires. I like it."

Persons interested in learning more about the operation of the TYLER COUNTY DISTRICT CLERK'S office are asked to write: ASK YOUR COUNTY DISTRICT CLERK (Ms. Pat Brown) C/O THE TYLER COUNTY BOOSTER, Box 248, Woodville, Texas, 75798. Each letter will be promptly delivered to the COUNTY DISTRICT CLERK.

County Budget Ok'd

The 1978 Tyler County Budget of $1,339,989.06, which is $266,193.41 or 24.79 percent more than the 1977 budget, was formally adopted following the public budget hearing held Friday, September 23 in the Commissioners Courtroom.

County Judge Allan Sturrock in speaking of the work that the court has put into the budget said "We've hashed and rehashed, fussed and talked and have come up with what I think is a credible budget."

Following a brief discussion on various ways that projected expenditures could be cut in 1978 Commissioner Riley said "As much as we've worked on it, I make the motion to adopt it (budget)."

In other business, Sheriff Lewis Craven recommended that the old Sheriff's Department car that is in need of repair be put up for bids. This action stems from the recent appointment of a City Marshall in Colmesnell, who although is not paid by the county will be available for work throughout Tyler County. Legally, the car cannot be given or leased to the city of Colmesnell but can be sold if bids are taken. Commissioners voted to advertise for bids to be opened Oct. 10.

Not on the agenda but brought up for discussion was the county's responsibility to maintain an incorporated city's roads. Commissioner Fowler indicated that it was not the county's responsibility to keep up the incorporated cities streets and that it was very difficult to do so especially with the interference that many Colmesnell residents have given the workers, Fowler said.

"I can't do the job with every other person telling me not to do their ditch" Commissioner Fowler said, adding that some of the city residents have dug ditches across the streets to slow down traffic. Commissioners agreed that maintaining city streets was a problem due to the interference of their work from city residents.

Although there was no formal action to vote upon, commissioners agreed in general that they would not maintain city roads any longer.

In other court action commissioners voted to:

- Grant permission for Pct. 1 to purchase from Pct. 3 an Alice Chambers Motor Grader and to assume its indebtedness and for Pct. 3 to advertise for bids for a new motor grader with trade-in to be paid for by time warrants.

County Judge Sturrock said the action was a "step in the unit system direction".

Accept bid from Etex Paper Co., Tyler Texas for mimeograph paper, 8 1/2 x 14 at $2.085 per ream and 8 1/2 x 11 at $1.485 per ream;

Approved lease of Xerox 4000 copy machine for the Districts Clerk office with the new contract starting Oct. 1 at a price of $230 per month minimum;

Advertise for bids for Typewriter for Districts Clerks office and declared emergency bids to be opened September 30;

Approved payment of $2,500 to Pritchard and Abbott for valuation of oil produced in Tyler County and;

Tabled the acceptance of easement on a county road located in Pct. 2 for "further study"

Commissioners will meet September 30 at 10 a.m. Commissioners Courtroom to take care of unfinished business and open bids.

Be Prepared: Don't Be Swindled

OCTOBER IS CRIME PREVENTION MONTH. With crime against senior citizens on the upswing and many older citizens losing savings, checks and other valuables to swindlers, County Judge Allan Sturrock in conjunction with the Deep East Texas Council of Government Aging program, declares the month of October as "Crime Prevention Month." Seminars will be held throughout the county during the month to educate persons on ways of deterring the swindler, purse snatchers and thieves. According to Jesse Adams, shown with Judge Sturrock, the film "On Guard Bunco" will be shown at each meeting. Tricks of observation will be discussed so that in the event a person is swindled they will be able to identify the person thus leading to that in the event a conviction. Lt. Amos Lewis will be the speaker for the seminars and is trained in crime prevention. The program will kick off with the first seminar being held October 4. For the times and places of the seminars see page 3A of the BOOSTER.

Services Held For Accident Victim

Funeral services were held Sunday for Kyle Mark McWilliams, 17, of Woodville's senior at Kirby High School following a fatal tractor accident which occurred several miles west of Woodville around midnight Friday, Sept. 23.

McWilliams was reportedly attempting to pull a stalled truck from a roadside gully when he apparently applied only one brake of the dual brake system on the tractor causing the tractor to spin and overturn.

A high school friend who was in the company of McWilliams at the time was reportedly able to start the stalled truck which he then used in vain to try to pull the tractor from the victim.

Ellender ambulance service responded to the call at 1:33 a.m. and transported the victim to Tyler County Hospital.

The youth, who was the son of the late Bill McWilliams was born in Fort Arthur on Aug. 22, 1960. He was a member of the Spring Branch and was a member of the First Baptist Church where he participated in the children's choir and the youth choir from 1969 to 1975.

He played baseball (Little League and Senior League) and was a Little League All-Star. He also played high school baseball his junior year.

A member of the Future Farmers of America, he recently won the 1976 Place award at the Houston Fair.

Chit-Chat From The Convalescent Center

Our resident of the week features Lewis F. Davis, better known around town as "Grampaw". Grampaw is 95 years young and was born and raised in Mt. Carmel, a little community just outside Colmesneil, Texas. He is the son of the late Sam and Mary Jane Davis, and was raised with four sisters and five brothers. Grampaw worked on farms, sawmills, shipyards, and even worked at Colmesneil High School for many years. He told me that when he got his first job, he worked for a dollar a day. On one of his jobs, he hauled logs to the river by a bull team (oxen). He had to put logs in the logs and pin them together by pins that they made from white oak trees. He would then unload the logs into the river and ride on the logs to Beaumont. There he would sale the logs at 18 for every thousand foot. He would then get a train ride home and hit the woods again, getting ready for another trip to Beaumont. At the age of 23, he married Zona Maynard on November 3, 1905. They raised 11 children, 10 of which are still living. They are: Clarence Davis of Colmesneil, Fay Primrose of Jasper, Willie Mae West of Jasper, Beatrice Williams of Pt. Neches, Woodrow Davis of Colmesneil, Margaret Woods of Nederland, Vester Bell of Worth, Dickerson, Esler Wayne Davis of Beaumont, Mary Lou Smith of Dickerson and Iva Lee Wallace of Nacogdoches. Grampaw has 36 grandchildren, 66 great grandchildren and seven great great grandchildren which he says he is very proud of. Grampaw is very active in our church services, bingo parties, and he loves to listen to our singing groups. Grampaw is very special to us and we are proud to have him as our "Resident of the Week".

Colmesneil - Evadale Tie 6-6 In Friday's Game

The undefeated Bulldogs met the undefeated Rebels Friday night in Evadale and in a sense each team is still undefeated as the score ended in a 6-6 deadlock. The Bulldogs took the opening kickoff on the thirty yard line and returned it to their own forty. Thirteen plays later with six minutes fourteen seconds remaining in the first quarter the Bulldogs capped a sixty yard drive when Barry Cutler scored from sixteen yards out. The point after was unsuccessful and the Bulldogs were out front 6-0. The Rebels then had a turn but unable to move past their own forty yard line were forced to punt. The Bulldogs had the punt on their own thirty and four plays later had moved to the Rebel thirty-six yard line. The remainder of the half was a tough defense by both teams with the Bulldogs being plagued with fumbles as they reached the one foot line only to fumble it away. As the half came to a close, the score was deadlocked 6-6, with the Bulldogs leading 2-1 on penetrations and 11-5 on first downs. The last half of the game was all defense for the Bulldogs and Rebels as neither team was able to score. The Bulldogs reached the Rebel forty late in the third quarter only to fumble once again and Rebels covered. With 6:20 remaining in the game the Rebels were able to reach the Bulldogs 18 but were pushed back to the Rebel 47 but once again fumbled and the Rebels took over on the 50. Unable to move the ball at all the Rebels punted to the thirteen. The Bulldogs moved out to the 25 but time ran out and the game ended in a tie. Colmesneil fumbled five times and lost four, while the Rebels fumbled seven times and lost three. Each team had one pass interception. The Bulldogs had three penetrations, the Rebels picked up two. The Bulldogs picked up seventeen first downs and Evadale eleven. Colmesneil had a total of 288 yards to the Rebel 206. Colmesneil will host the High Island Cardinals Saturday night for Homecoming while Evadale will travel to Chester Friday night.

Chester Shuts Out Sabine Pass 20-0

FRIDAY NIGHT ACTION—Three Chester players Bryan Davis (60) and one unidentified player are shown covering the ball as Sabine Pass players Randy Desarte (15) who fumbled on the play and teammate Ricky Cooner try to recover the ball. BOOSTER ACTION PHOTO by Sheryl Clamson.

The Chester Yellow-jackets first home game was a success as they defeated the mistake-plagued Sabine Pass Shaks Friday night 20-0. The game was a defensive effort, as the Chester defense held the Rebels to a total of 20 yards. Chester's defense forced an early interception and look over on the Shark 34 line. The two major gains of that 34 yd. drive were on passes from Julius Johnson (10) to split end Frank Kraus (84). The first pass came on a second and 15 play and it covered 19 yds. The second pass came on fourth and 20 yard play when Johnson passed Kraus deep in the end zone for a 6 point score. After failing to convert the extra point, the score was Chester 6, Sabine Pass 0. The next scoring opportunity came with only 34 seconds left in the first half. Sabine Pass fumbled a punt and Chester came up with the ball on the 15 yd. line. Julius Johnson (10) was hurt and replaced by Gary Toler (11). From the 14 yd. line Toler handed-off to Wayne Hubert (40) who waltzed in for the score. This ended the first half with the score Chester 12, Sabine Pass 0. At the end of the third quarter, Chester started a drive on the Shark 45 yd. line. The drive continued into the fourth quarter where Jimmy Wilson (27) scored from the Shark 6 yd. line. Upon making the 2 pt. conversion the final score was Chester 20, Sabine Pass 0.

We built our home for 140,000 in 1965 and now have it insured for 150,000 under our homeowners' policy. Our insurance agent says it's a badly underinsured. Could be right in writing us to increase our policy? He's right. That house you built for 140,000 would cost you, on average, 185,880 to replace today—45,880 more than its original cost. The rule of thumb on proper homeowners' insurance is that your coverage should equal at least 80 percent of the house's replacement cost value. Your current coverage of 150,000 is far too low. Note: This answer should be of direct money-saving importance to more than half of all owners of single-family homes. An informed estimate is that, as a result of the upsurge in building costs in recent years, this vast proportion of homeowners are woefully underinsured today, and they are risking destruction of their biggest investment. In fact, a home you fully insured when bought in the early 1960s may be no more than 50 percent insured now.

A Free Offering From Southwestern Bell

A Very Important Book For Your Very Important Numbers

If you're like most people, you try to keep all important phone numbers in one place. But somehow they always seem to end up scattered throughout the house. Like the doctor's number scribbled on the calendar over the sink. Or the number the babysitter gave you buried somewhere in your checkbook.

To help you locate frequently-called numbers at a glance, Southwestern Bell is now offering you and every member of your family a free Personal Directory.

Keep a copy by the phone at home or take one with you wherever you go—it's small enough to carry in your purse, briefcase or coat pocket.

The Personal Directory is practical, too, for listing emergency numbers, street addresses and zip codes. Plus, it's a great place to jot down numbers you get from Directory Assistance and avoid any unnecessary charging after your 10-call no-charge allowance.

For your free copy of The Personal Directory, just fill in and mail the coupon below.

'I Am My Own'

I live my life as no one else could, so please live your life not mine. I don't want to follow in your footsteps. A shadow without an identity. For this reason, please don't try. To run my life. It is the only thing I have. That is truly mine. Be patient with my faults. Because they are with me wherever I go. Please accept me as I am. Or just ignore me. Don't accept me to my face. And turn around and disown me. Believe me you also have your faults. As no one is completely perfect. No matter how many people you have buffaloes. Remember that nine times out of ten. Everytime you look down your nose at someone. Someone is looking down their nose at you.

Greetings all! It's that time again. Time to report what is happening around our school. We have news from several delicious areas including FHA. Also, there is news from the library and other places of interest. Visions of blue ribbons danced in the minds of the Homemaking and Ag students this week because this was the week of the Tyler County Fair.

The Homemaking girls entered fantastic sweets and preserves in the fair which included cakes, cookies, fudge, tarts and cinnamon rolls in the sweets department and fig and peach preserves in that category. But, as everyone knows everyone cannot win but those that did are very proud of themselves as we all are. Winners include: Pam Sawyer who won first place with fig preserves and Peggy Jordan winning second with her peach preserves in the canned foods section. In the Baked Goods section Gwen Green won first with her peanut cookies and Belinda Mintz winning second in the cookies section. For the cake entries Terry Mangum brought home first with her Pumpkin cake and Cheryl Sheffield brought home third with her strawberry tarts. Girls it sounds yummy and Congratulations.

The Ag department has something to smile about because of a great showing at the Tyler County Fair. They won a first place ribbon on a 2-wheel stock trailer, a low boy trailer which is under construction also won a second place. Marvin Mott showed a Jersey Heifer and won second place. Mark Matthews showed a Jersey and won a red ribbon. LaWayne Sheffield made a fine showing by winning two ribbons: a red one for a Jersey cow and a third place ribbon for a Brahmann.

and rodeo to be held in Houston. Good Luck Boys!!! Need a book? Well if you do the library is open almost every class and that includes study hall. Mrs. Griffith and her aides have been busy the past weeks cataloging new books for the Elementary, Jr. High and High Schools so finding books will be easier. Mrs. Griffith hopes students will use the library as much as possible and that she and her aides can serve each individual to the best of their ability. Well gang, how about a book?

The students of the Spurger Journalism class are working hard to get their first school newspaper out. They were all assigned a special part to work on. The title of the newspaper will be the "Galleano." It will feature articles on sports, Kindergarten, seventh through twelfth grades, FHA, FFA, Student Council, new teachers, comics and also articles on the principal and superintendent.

Smile! That's the number one word for this coming

Monday, September 26, for this is picture day. So everyone wear something nice and fix your hair pretty for the camera will be on break. By the way, try not to break the camera with your beauty.

'We Try Harder'

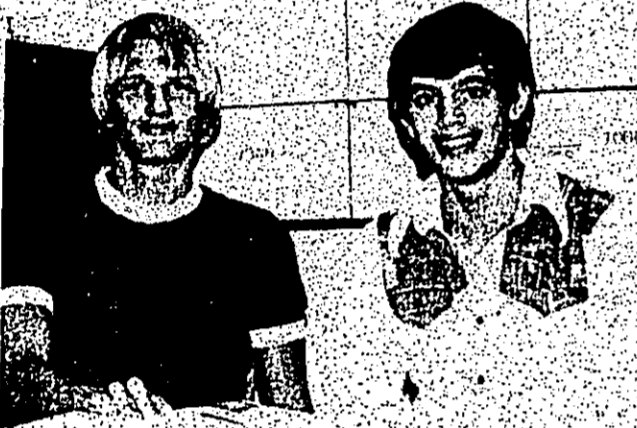

Why does everyone always degrade Spurger High School? For years other schools have put our school down. Yes, our school is small, but we have just about everything the other schools have, except a football team. We make up in our other sports to replace a football team. We have always been exceptionally good in basketball and have recently done very well in volleyball.

We have air conditioning and central heat, which a lot of schools do not have. We always manage to win a lot of contests in which we compete against the other schools. Spurger students always try to be friendly when other schools come to Spurger, or when we go to their schools. We are trying hard to make our school look even better, and we hope to succeed in the near future.

Mario's stay in the U.S. was arranged through the Ibero American Cultural Exchange and with the help of Mr. Sergio Ramos, Kirby High Spanish teacher.

At the end of the school year, Richard, a WBS junior, will spend the summer with Mario's family in Mexico.

KHS Students Favor New Portable Classes

BY NOVELLA McCULLOUGH

A fire destroyed the Kirby High building on July 4, 1977 along with important papers and files. For the remaining weeks before school began our principal, Mr. Bennett Hanna, along with teachers and custodians, struggled to recover what was left from the fire. School was delayed one week in order to allow time for the completion of our new portable classrooms.

Many who were appalled at the thought of attending school in portable buildings now have totally new opinions. "We are more congested because of a less amount of space but the air conditioning makes up for any discomfort," said Kirby High student Carla Bean.

Home Economics teacher Mrs. M. Caniks said, "I think they're very nice, they're different from where I'm accustomed to teaching."

Another student, Kellie Sterling, said, "It's cleaner, it's air conditioned, and a lot nicer."

One other comment was expressed by Mrs. Doris Hanna who said, "I think they're very nice, they're comfortable, and they serve our needs well."

Chester High School seniors are studying the literature of Anglo-Saxon England. One of the primary literary forms of that time was the serious riddle. As a class assignment, the students tried their hands at composing original riddles.

Warren Wrapup

by Dixie Week

This week Warren Wrap-Up places special attention on two residents of our town who have given long and loyal service to the youth of Warren. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Riley retired from W.I.S.D. in 1974. They taught a combined length of 84 years helping many youngsters along the way. The Rileys are members of First Baptist Church and devoted to their Church. They are the parents of three children: Cecil, Pat of Houston, Jerry Nell of Pearland, and Jimmy of Port Neches. Mr. and Mrs. Riley are still very active running a large farm south of Warren and always willing to give a helping hand. To everyone who knows them their motto must be "going about doing good."

W.I.S.D. parents and interested patrons were treated to a special talk by Dr. Mary Appleberry last Thursday, September 22, in the Warren School Auditorium. Dr. Appleberry is a Reading Consultant who is presently working with the Warren School Reading Teachers on sharpening reading skills of all students. She emphasizes that of all the basic skills students learn, none are as important as their ability to read and none are as complex to learn. Parents were given several tips on how to enrich their child's reading program thus insuring greater success in subject matter.

While we're on the subject of reading Warren students (Grades 1-8) started the Read-A-Thon for Multiple Sclerosis on Monday, September 26. It is similar to Ride-A-Thon and Telethon in that parents and all interested persons pledge a specified amount of money for each book a child reads. We commend these busy youngsters for their volunteering to help combat this dread and mysterious disease. Please do all you can to help support Read-A-Thon. Mrs. Carla Broussard is Co-ordinator for this project. Co-Worker is Sharon Thompson. It is a community-wide endeavor.

Our students are not only involved in this reading project but all band members (Grades 6-12) started their fund raising candle sales programs last Friday, September 23. As these hard-working band members ring your door bell-remember the money will be used to enrich the Music programs of our schools-candles are always nice gifts to yourself or to someone else. We are all very proud of each student who is involved in these worthwhile projects. Miss Kathleen Thomas of Woodville is director of bands.

The Ladies' Bible Class of Warren Church of Christ met at the Ron Broussard home on Tuesday, September 27 at 10 a.m. Carla Broussard is class leader and it is a treat the ladies look forward to each week.

It's good to see the Methodist parsonage is coming along nicely. From the looks of it the new home will be completed before long.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Swearingen have returned from Houston after a visit with their daughter and her family. Dr. and Jack Green and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Billingsley of Woodville visited the Warren Schools last Thursday. Red and Mildred retired last Spring as teachers in W.I.S.D.

Almost everyone loves spaghetti-so with that in mind, Warren Elementary

P.T.A. members are sponsoring a delicious spaghetti supper on October 6, 1977. Serving hours will be 5-8 at Elementary Cafeteria. Children will be busy selling tickets for this even-all proceeds go directly to school enrichment programs, making school a more enjoyable experience. Oh, by the way for all calorie counters, calories will be removed before serving. Please come on out and enjoy this school-related social event. Carla Broussard is heading up this project. Mrs. Broussard is a Civic leader as well as the busy wife of Warren Church of Christ's minister, Ron Broussard. It is a true axiom-if you want something done well-always ask a busy person!

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice DelCambre of the Midway Community in Warren, have returned from a week's vacation trip to Arkansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Tennessee.

Thanks to everyone who calls and contributes news items to Warren Wrap-Up. Please continue by calling 547-2667 after 4 p.m.
