Wreck Injures Fred Student

Several Tyler County residents were involved in highway accidents during the past week, but only one was injured seriously.

Barbara Rhodes, 15, of Fred was injured Monday night, Oct. 31, when the car she was riding in went out of control and hit a tree off a county road near Fred.

Charles Watts, 16, the driver of the 1977 Buick was not injured, but Rhodes suffered two broken legs, a broken pelvis and a broken right arm. The Warren High School sophomore was taken by a Farmers' ambulance to Silsbee Hospital, then transferred to St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Beaumont, where she is still in intensive care.

Rhodes was scheduled to undergo surgery Monday and Thursday.

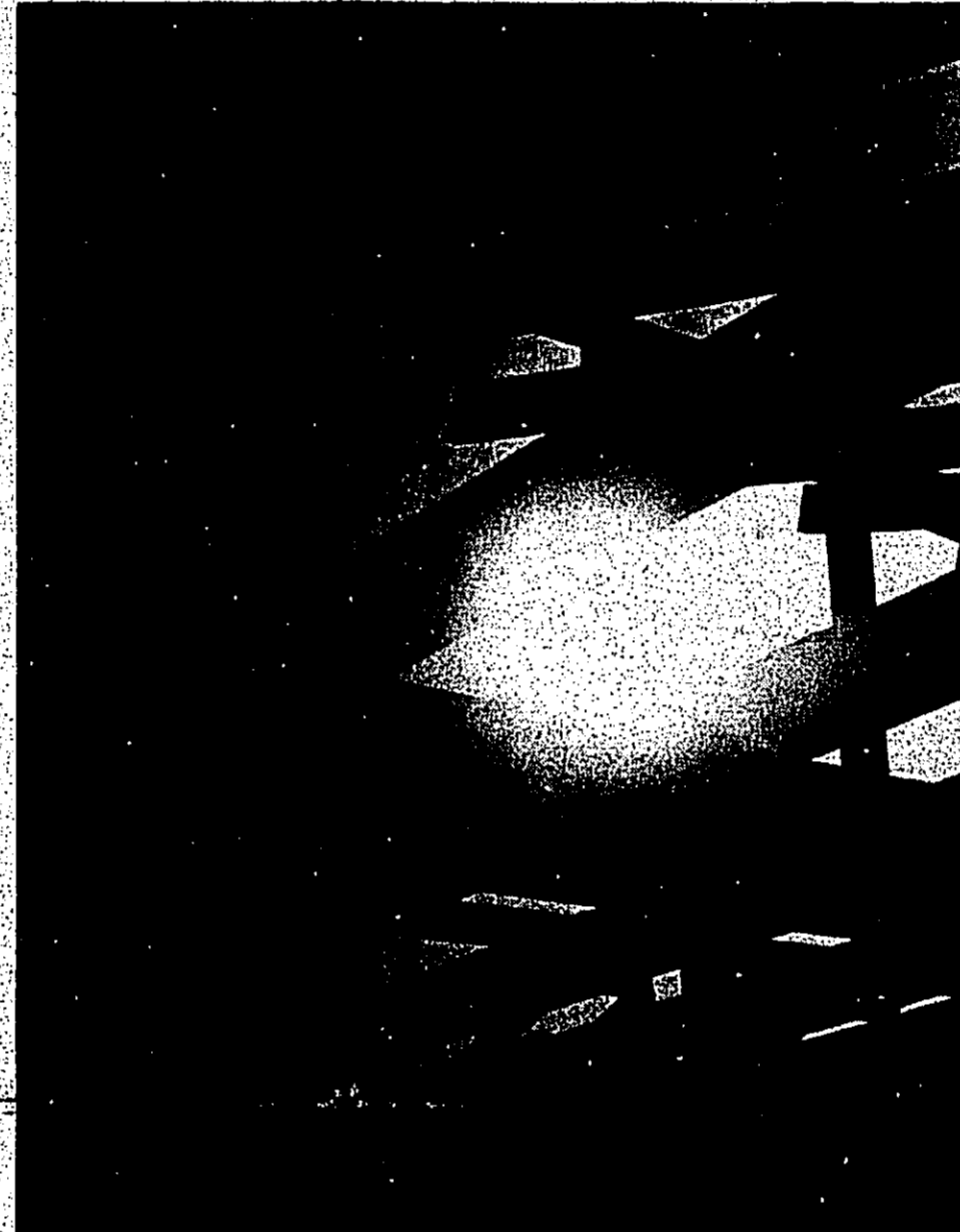

The accident occurred at 8:10 p.m. and Patrolman Gary Hennigan investigated the mishap for the Texas Department of Public Safety.

More recently, an auto driven by Willie Mae Dupree, 26, of Spurger was involved in an accident Tuesday noon with a pickup truck on FM 1746 approximately five miles east of Woodville. Both vehicles were reportedly badly damaged, but Dupree suffered only scratches and bruises and was taken by an Ellender ambulance to Tyler County Hospital for treatment.

Both Gay and Linley were taken to Tyler County Hospital with lacerations and bruises, and were later released.

Billy Joe Wigley, 19, and Jerry Wayne Gay, 19, both from Vidlor, were passengers in the Gay pickup, but neither was injured.

Gay was ticketed by patrolman Gerald Corbell for driving on the wrong side of the road.

County Pantry Drive Underway

Efforts to begin a permanent food pantry for needy persons in Tyler County have been started by Butch Howard, Texas Department of Human Resources case-worker for the aged, blind and disabled.

With the cooperation of civic, school and church groups, a county-wide food collection day has been set for Saturday, Nov. 19, from 9 a.m. until noon. Non-perishable food items will be collected at that time at several locations, including a central drop on the court house square in Woodville, according to Howard.

"This food will not be just for the aged, but for all needy persons in the county," said Howard. "Sometimes people just get down and out. It takes from a week to a month to get food stamps, and even then, they have to buy the stamps and they don't always have the money."

Due to a lack of funding, Howard explained that case workers have to "get out and hustle our own" to take care of needy clients. "We don't buy a whole month's groceries for them," she added, explaining that usually enough is provided to last until other help can be found.

Under the food pantry plan, applicants will be screened before being supplied with food from pantry. Also, unlike last Christmas, "Caring is Sharing" food drive, the food pantry will be a permanent system.

Although the food pantry idea has not been tried here before, according to Howard, the same idea has been successfully put into action in Nacogdoches for a "Food Rally Day."

"This is a good time to start, so we can get Thanksgiving baskets ready in time," said Howard. Christmas baskets are also planned for December.

As of Tuesday morning, the following locations had been scheduled for use as food pantry pick ups: Bethel Baptist Church in Warren, McInnis Hardware in Fred and the northwest corner of the courthouse square in Woodville. Also, the Spurger High School Beta Club is handling pick ups in their area. Pick up locations are also being planned for Colmesneil and Chester.

All persons and groups interested in helping with the food pantry drive are asked to call Howard at 283-3714.

Late Friday night, a Port Neches youth was involved in a one-car accident near Colmesneil. Randy Kent, 17, was charged with speeding and fleeing a police officer after his 1976 Pontiac left U.S. 69, plowed through a fence and rolled several times at approximately 11:50 p.m.

Teddy Joseph Hebert, 16 also of Port Neches, and a passenger in the car, was taken by an Ellender ambulance to Tyler County Hospital for possible injuries.

Two accidents happened within hours of each other in the last Wednesday. At approximately 4:15 p.m., a 1974 Pontiac driven by Connie Barber Jordan, 25, of Beaumont, was hit by a 1977 Ford pickup driven by Elton Hollingsworth, 29, of Warren at the intersection of FM 1943 and a county road.

Hollingsworth was charged with failure to yield right of way by patrolman Corbell.

An unusual accident occurred at approximately 7 p.m. Wednesday when a 1969 Buick driven by Anthony Herford, 16, of Spurger, ran off a county road near ger and hit another automobile, which then hit a butane tank.

Owner of the other car, which was legally parked, was Ilda McClain of Spurger. Herford was uninjured.

Road Bond Discussed

Residents of Tyler County might soon be faced with the decision of passing or rejecting a proposed Right of Way bond.

During Friday's special county commissioners' meeting, the discussion turned to the question of where funds would come from to purchase R.O.W. for Farm to Market roads in Tyler County.

According to County Judge Allen Sturrock the county has exhausted its R.O.W. money. "If we pursue the construction of Farm to Market roads, we need right of way funds," Sturrock said.

Pct. III Commissioner Leon Fowler said, "Without the funding, we will be handicapped on FM roads."

Commissioners tabled taking any action on the proposal, choosing to delay any decision until the next meeting held November 14.

"We want to hear the people express their opinions concerning this issue," Pct. I Commissioner Maxie Riley said, adding "If the people don't want farm-to-market roads, we are sure not going to shove them down their throats."

In other action commissioners voted to:

Accept bids on two dump trucks from Pct. III. The bids were $1,700 submitted by Hollis Simmons for the 1972 GMC truck and a bid of $2,150 from W.R. Overstreet for the 1972 Chevrolet truck.

Accept bid submitted by Ernest Fortenberry for the HUD project in Pct. III authorizing Judge Sturrock to sign any necessary papers and Voted to go into negotiations for the proposed fixed base operator for the Tyler County Airport after no bids were received.

County Commissioners will meet in regular session Monday, Nov. 14, at 10 a.m. in the commissioners' courtroom, first floor, Tyler County Courthouse.

School Building Bidding Extended Until Nov. 29

A two week extension has been installed allowing bidders more time to compete for construction work on the Woodville Independent School District new 600-student high school and needed renovations to the intermediate and elementary schools.

The original date set for opening bids was for the regular monthly meeting on Thursday, Nov. 15. Bids will now be opened on Tuesday, Nov. 29, at 7 p.m.

The regular November monthly meeting will still take place on the 15th at 7 p.m., allowing for routine board action. The extended bid-date meeting on the 29th will be in a "called" meeting format.

District Architect Jack Stansbury has expressed some concern at the October meeting about an apparent lack of interest in building contractors seeking the job.

As of Tuesday, Superintendent Tom Lynam said that only four construction firms have picked up plans from the district's administration building. Indicating, Lynam said, some interest in the building project.

"We won't know till Nov. 29 if they're interested or not," Lynam indicated that 25 or 30 firms had been contacted thus far about the project.

Meanwhile, at the last meeting, regular monthly meetings in October, business continued with the business of preparing the site for the new school by selecting a beige brick for the new facility. They also made plans for right-of-way access to the new school site property located several hundred yards west of U.S. 287.

Dave Perrell, an engineer representing the Charles R. Halle Company, presented two four-lane driveway access concepts to the board, one of which they authorized. Bids are to be opened at the upcoming meeting for curbing and iron ore base material costs for the street.

Easement assignments were made official from the school district to the City of Woodville to complete right-of-way legal requirements. The Woodville Independent School District is scheduled to pay for fencing and street preparation costs incurred by the city in the roadway preparation.

With final working drawings of the school completed and approved, Architect Stansbury presents a September 1975 opening of the new high school providing construction can start relatively soon.

Stansbury says he hopes the bids will come in sufficiently under the projected $2.9 million bond allowance for the new school and the renovations to the two other facilities.

Stansbury said, "We've just got to knock on wood" and keep our fingers crossed that everything comes in under the estimates we've made."

To date the school district has managed to show an impressive schedule of favorable bids on contract activity thus far. Stansbury said he hoped this trend would continue adding that his staff had a good record in "hitting bids on the nose."

Officers of the Citizens State Bank of Woodville remind their customers this week that the bank will close in observance of the Veteran's Day holiday on Friday, Nov. 10.

Bank To Close Friday

20 Years Service Acknowledged

An overwhelmed Margie Cook, receives her 20-year pin for faithful service to Keller Aluminum Products from Plant Manager Henry Carol.

It was March 7, 1957 when Margie first went to work for Keller in Houston. When the plant moved to Tyler County in 1960, Margie chose to come with them. "They have been good to me over the years. I appreciate them giving me the job when they did," Margie explained.

Margie says she's seen a lot of changes in Keller through the years and says she will continue working until "I just say, 'I go anymore.'"

As of Tuesday, Superintendent Tom Lynam said that only four construction firms have picked up plans from the district's administration building. Indicating, Lynam said, some interest in the building project.

By DIXIE WEEKS
One of the very best things about being a reporter is the many interesting people one meets in searching for news stories of interest from our community.
This past Saturday we had a good visit with the Benjamin (Petie) Simpson family who lives South of Warren on Hwy. 69.
The Simpsons have a family type syrup mill in full swing, and it is the type of operation that could be operated by three people.
Captain and Mrs. Simpson have four children, Ben, David, Raymond and Linda, who all pitch in and help run the mill.
The cane used was grown on the family farm at Warren from seed cane purchased from Mississippi State University. It was especially developed for a high grade, high quality yield of "good" "soppin' syrup" to quote Simpson. The registration mark of the new cane is CP-67-500 from Canal Point, Florida, and the U.S. Agriculture Research Center. So it is easy to see, the Simpsons wanted the very best cane available in order to make the best quality syrup.
The Simpsons have lived in Warren about three years moving here from Port Neches, Texas. Captain Simpson is a master mariner and captain of the Sabine Transportation Company's ship San Marcos.

So, right is the heart of Tyler County, this family has a mill in operation and lots of good "soppin' syrup" for sale. In this time of junk food, it is nice to know this family offers good non-additive food for tasty meals.
FOOTBALL TEAM IN DISTRICT PLAY
Warren residents are really excited about the play-off game for district championship, Thursday night at Newton. The middle school eighth grade football team plays Newton for the District Championship.

See you Thursday at Newton.

KING TUT EXHIBITION IN NEW ORLEANS
Several Warren and Wildwood residents report an absolutely great experience in viewing the King Tut Exhibition in New Orleans. The group was gone Wednesday through Sunday and after the three hour tour they felt the event of ancient history became more meaningful to each person.
The artifacts dating some 3300 years into ancient history deal with the life of an obscure Egyptian boy, King Tutankamen. Many area tours are forming to view these priceless relics.

There are to be two cemetery workings on the Colmesneil-Chester road on Friday, Nov. 11. The Mann Cemetery in the morning and Hickory Grove in the afternoon. All who are interested are urged to bring tools and join in this worthy project. Recent improvements have been made at Sand Hill Cemetery and plans are in the making to improve Gregory, both east of the Colmesneil-Rockland road.

Officers and teachers of First Baptist Sunday School enjoyed a delicious banquet among fall decorations on Sunday night with Joyce Temple as hostess. Speakers for the occasion were Bro. J. P. Owens who brought several good qualities of a successful Sunday School teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Fowler went to Lumberton Friday to join their grandchildren, Dwayne and Tammy Thornton in the observance of their homecoming. The principal activity of the occasion was the game between Lumberton and Orange Field in which their grandson played in the band.

By ANN MERZLER

It has been a quiet week for the residents of Holiday Pines. Most of their activities have been directed toward making Thanksgiving and Christmas decorations for the home. This year the residents are working on having an old fashioned holiday season. Some of the projects are: A Nativity Scene which Willie Ferguson has made, and Christmas Wreaths made by Vergie Lee, Mamie Ogden and Anna McQueen. The residents wish to extend an invitation to family and friends to come and see their decorations and help in making this year's holiday really special.

Residents with birthdays this month are: Ollie Ivy, Dora Medley, Leo Lewis, and Pearl Gleaves. The monthly birthday party will be next Tuesday and the "Melody Makers" will provide the entertainment.

Saturday evening the "Harmony Singers" from the Harmony Baptist Church came and sang for the residents. Everyone enjoyed the singing and thank the group for coming.

Our special thank-you's this week:

Mr. Lazenby would like to express a special thank-you to the Harmony Singers for coming and entertaining him and his friends at Holiday Pines.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogden would like to let their children Harold and Vera know how happy they are that they came to visit and bringing food for lunch and supper.

Note from the Administrator: Happiness is "Someone to share a memory with", so, please come by and be a part of our happiness.

Wolves Wallop Warriors, 42-13

WARREN-San Augustine's Wolves broke free for three touchdowns in the last two minutes of the first half here Friday night as they beat the Warren Warriors, 42-13 in District 17-2A action.

Going into the final minutes of the first half, the Wolves held a narrow 9-6 lead over the Warriors, but that changed quickly. With 2:46 left in the half, Wolf fullback Michael Cook ran one yard for a touchdown.

Warren came out patting, but Brad Hiley intercepted a Warren aerial on the first play at the Warren 34 yard line. The Wolves led 17-0 on the next play.

Quarterback Ricky Wood threw a 17-yard touchdown strike to halfback Ivory Miller with 2:29 left.

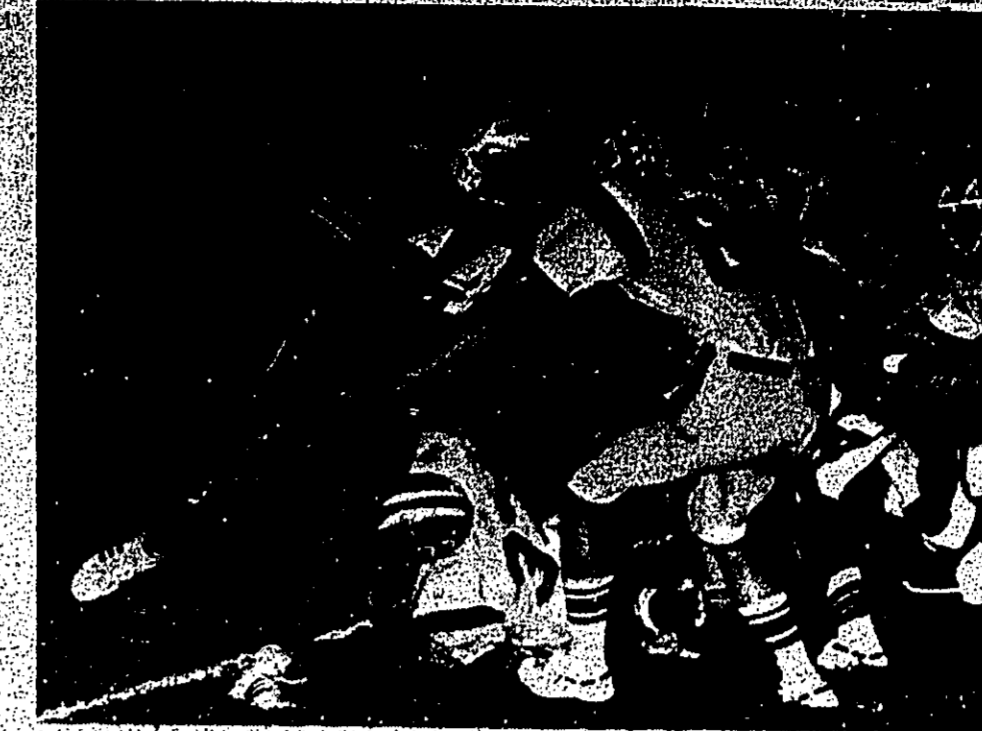

Approximately 60 seconds later, Woods rolled left as if to pass, then kept untouched for 22 yards and another San Augustine score. Greg Elliot added the PAT kick after all three TD's and the Wolves had blown the game open, 29-0, at halftime.

San Augustine added another TD in the third period on a 10-yard run by Woods and one in the fourth on a 20-yard run by Herbert Bickley over right tackle with 7:10 left in the game.

Warren salvaged some honor by putting the last points on the board. With 1:01 left in the game, Burke dove into the endzone from the one and James Flaher kicked the PAT to make the score 42-13.

Warren still winless for the year with a 0-8-1 record, while San Augustine is 12-2-1 in district play. Friday night when the Warriors host Diboll, also winless since the season started.

San Augustine, now 4-1-1 in district play, will play at Woodville Friday.

EVADALE--The "Evadale Rebels" beat Chester, 19-7, and won the District 12-B championship Friday night, but they had all they could handle with an inspired Yellow Jacket football team.

"We gave 'em everything they wanted," said Chester head coach Bruce Bradley. "It was one of the best games we've played all year. Of course, we were playing a good team, too."

All the scoring occurred during the first half, as both teams moved 'tilt, but could manage no points in the second half.

Evadale drew first blood after recovering a Chester fumble on the Jacks 4-yard line. On the next play, Rebel halfback Ronnie Loftin broke into the endzone. The PAT kick failed and, with approximately four minutes left in the first quarter, Evadale led, 6-0.

Chester came charging back and led the game on a 15-yard touchdown run by 19-year-old Ken Boley, which capped a 68-yard drive. Boley also kicked the PAT and the Rebels took a slim 7-6 lead.

Evadale went back on top with approximately five minutes left in the half, when fullback Cliff Day ran into the endzone from three yards out. The two-point conversion attempt failed, but the Rebels led, 12-7.

With only one second remaining in the half, Evadale scored again. The Rebels started the play from the Chester 5, but the half-carrier fumbled into the endzone and another Evadale player fell on it for the TD. The PAT kick was good.

Both sides moved at will between the 20-yard lines during the second half, but could not score.

The statistics bore out the final score as Evadale out-gained Chester 293 to 250 yards, and the Rebels made 19 first downs to Chester's 17.

Boley led the Jacket runners with 87 yards on 11 carries. Definitely, nose guard Bradley Spivey and safety Johnny Ray Keagle led the Jackets, according to coach Bradley.

Chester will host High Island Friday at 7:30 p.m. for the Jackets' homecoming game, which will also be the final football contest for the season.

High Island, 14-12 losers to Colquhoun last Saturday, beat Chester in their first meeting, 22-9. The Jackets had three starters out of action during the course of that game.

Warren Wins Zone

WARREN--The Warren Junior High eighth grade football team will represent the west zone of District 17-2A in the district championship. Thursday at 7 p.m. to decide the district champion. Warren will play Newton on Thursday at 7 p.m. to win the east zone title with a 22-0 win over San Augustine. Last year, Warren's eighth grade won the district championship with a thrilling fourth quarter comeback win over Kirbyville.

Both teams ended the regular season with 5-1 zone records, their only losses being to each other. Wheat beat the Warriors, 6-0, in the first game, but Warren took the rematch, 12-6.

Warren ended the regular season with a 12-0 win over Corrigan-Camden. Dennis Perry scored on a 35-yard sweep and a 75-yard run for the Warriors only points. Coach Bruce Mundy credited Perry with blocks which broke Perry free for both TD runs.

Linemen Mont Odom, Charlie Odom, Richard Burns, Jay Johnson, David Hicks and Al Burns were also commended by Mundy. Leading the defense which blanketed

THDA Information Day

Gathering to share experience, fellowship and a delicious buffet style luncheon, members of the Tyler County Home Demonstration Club from throughout the county met for their annual Home Economics Information Day Friday.
Various crafts exhibiting, handwork, expertise, and time consuming effort, dominated the morning event. Members of the home demonstration clubs brought their work so that others could compare and question the techniques used to produce such lovely items.
The Texas Home Demonstration Association's (THDA) primary concern is toward the betterment of the home including all phases of family life. THDA will help a young mother and homemaker with ideas and instruction on ways her life and the lives of her family can benefit.
THDA is also involved with the youth of Tyler County offering classes on sewing, cooking and a variety of skills to make tomorrow's homemakers and business women confident in their role as women.
During the informative program, a detailed history of home demonstration and extension services were presented. Belinda Covington, county extension agent, directs the clubs and presents several special seminars throughout the year for the women of Tyler County.
THDA will be sponsoring seminars on family life and the working woman, adult sewing classes and the roles of today's woman during the coming year.
All women, whether working, homemaker or both, are invited to participate in home demonstration activities. Tyler County's young women are especially welcome at all THDA sessions. Home demonstration is not just for the older women. It is for all women interested in providing the best for their families, fellow neighbors and country.

Band To Attend Contest

The Bulldog Band is to attend a marching contest in Little Cypress-Mauriceville Saturday, November 12. The band will be judged on sharpness of sound on the marching field, how well they march, and general overall appearance. The band has been preparing for the contest with each new drill learned for the ball game.
Band director Benny Turner says, "The contest performance will be a culmination of our entire season. It has to be the best of our entire months of marching." Miss Turner is driving the students hard but it's to their advantage. "How well they are 'ated depends on how hard they work every now and then. It's easy to fall into a slump this time of the year with the end of football season but it's better to end the season with a bang than with a whimper."

The band members have been very busy people since the beginning of school and it looks like they will remain busy until the very end. Last week they held a candle sale

County Closeup:

Seventh of a series

By TRISH BROWNING
"Making sure everything is done legal," in respect to county business is the main responsibility of the office of County Attorney Rols L. Brockman.
The county attorney has to be willing to pursue his duties and do them," Brockman said. The duties of county attorney involve attending the terms of courts in his county below those of the district court and representing the state in all criminal cases under examination or prosecution in the county. He is also the legal advisor to commissioners courts and all other elected or appointed officials, fills in for the district attorney in the event of his absence and aids the district attorney in the prosecution of any case in behalf of the state in the district court, if requested to do so.
"If the county attorney does his job right, there is not much time left for other interests," Brockman said. The county attorney is the prosecutor in five courts in Tyler County. They are the four courts of the Justices of the Peace and the County Court. County court handles only adult misdemeanor cases. The county attorney must also draw and file complaints to the court.
In preparing cases for court, Brockman relies strictly on the reports of the arresting officer. "I work hand-in-hand with local law enforcement agencies," he said, adding that a case won't be brought to me for prosecution until the respective agency is sure they have a right case." Brockman also pointed out that there are some good men working in Tyler County's law enforcement agencies, both at the state and local level.
At present, the main objective of the county attorney is setting up a court docket to take care of the backlog of cases waiting for prosecution.
"We're officers of the county attorney," Brockman said.

Meet Your County Attorney

clerk) coming along real well and should begin sometime around the first of December," Tyler County's attorney stated.
When asked how the new "speedy trial law" will effect county criminal proceedings, Brockman indicated that it would take time to see the results. The law, if the defendant chooses to take advantage of it, will insure a trial date within 120 days of the arrest. Brockman indicated that it will put a "tremendous strain" on the county judges.
Brockman has been preparing two or three different plans on how to handle the law," Brockman said. "We just don't know how effective it will be at this time."
In speaking of other responsibilities as county attorney, Brockman, as legal advisor to the county, handles any type of legal question or situation that may arise within the county.
"I attend all sessions of the commissioners court," he said. "Commissioners see laymen; they don't understand the law. It is the responsibility of the county attorney to keep them abreast of changing laws that pertain to the operation of the county," Brockman said.
Brockman, however, is not required or authorized to represent a county attorney, individuals named as defendants in a suit in which the county is not a party. He is not the "peoples' attorney or court-appointed lawyer."
Brockman has been practicing law since 1935. He has served as assistant district attorney in Jefferson County, Woodville, City Manager and Tyler County Attorney, as well as maintaining a private practice.
In summing up the years spent in the law profession, Brockman said, "I have tremendously enjoyed the years in public service and I'm looking forward to getting back into county government."

Ed Miller of Woodville, a long-time entry in the BOOSTER football contest, finally hit pay dirt this week. Ed picked all the winners correctly and came within three points of the tie-breaker score.

Earlier this year, Kristi Creech of Colmesneil won the BOOSTER football contest. Now, it's her sister Nyla's turn. Nyla too, guessed all the games correctly and missed the tie-breaker by only three points.

Stecher Addresses B&PW

Charles Stecher of Ivanhoe Lakes was guest speaker for the Woodville Business and Professional Women's Club on Thursday evening, November 3, at the Woodville Inn. Stecher showed slides pertaining to the art of stained glass, its origin, etc. He gave a door prize which was won by Nancy Phillips.

Stecher is one of the artists who will be appearing in the Big Thicket Arts and Crafts Fair at the Lion's Den, December 3rd and 4th. The fair is a seasonal project of the Woodville B&PW Club to raise money for their scholarship fund.

Hostesses for this meeting were the members of the Foundation Committee: Nancy Phillips, Chairman; Maxine Carroll and Theo Parsons.

During the business meeting which followed, Barbara Brown was elected Anderson Chairman, by the President Mabel Uley. Contributions to the M.D. Anderson Fund may be made in honor of someone or in memory of the deceased. This is one of the major projects of the Texas Federation of B&PW.

The December meeting will be the annual Christmas Party, at the home of Mabel Uley on December 1st with the Public Relations Committee as hostesses: Hilda Coats is Chairman of this committee.

Special guests were Ruth Stecher, Grace Odum and Ollie Hammon.

Mabel Uley, Maxine Carroll and Janis Moorman of the Woodville B&PW Club attended the quarterly meeting of the District 14 B&PW clubs in Dickinson, Texas, on Sunday, November 6. The luncheon was held at the Railroad Museum in Dickinson.

Briscoe Appoints Gainey

Rudy Moreau, Executive Director of the Greater East Texas Health Systems Agency (GETHSA) has announced that three agency board members and an area businessman have been appointed by Governor Dolph Briscoe to serve on the State-wide Health Coordinating Council (SHCC).

This council will be instrumental in the preparation of a state health plan based on health systems plans now being formulated by health systems agencies in the state under GETHSA. Other functions of the SHCC will include review of Health Systems Agency applications, work programs, and budgets.

GETHSA Governing Board members appointed are Cecil R. Bomar of Nacogdoches, John P. Thompson of Livingston, and Robert E. Yancey of Groves. A fourth area resident, James (Jim) Galley, a businessman from Woodville, was also named as an at-large member by the Governor.

Appointment of these men will afford Greater East Texas area wide representation at the state level regarding health planning and resource development.

Poultry, Produce Bargains

COLLEGE STATION—Poultry and produce are economy buys at Texas grocery markets this week, according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Crutcher, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

POULTRY—Poultry prices are attractive, and the whole bird is generally the best value. Consumers use all the parts. Turkey parts especially hind-quarter roast and turkey legs, are good choices. Prices are economical. Turkey prices are stable or a bit higher.

FRESH VEGETABLES—Most reasonable prices appear on carrots, cabbage, green peppers, hard-shell squash, cooking greens and potatoes. Dry yellow onions have quite attractive prices in some markets.

FRESH FRUITS—Apples are one economy highlight, and smaller-size bagged apples are the better buys. Specials on cranberries appear in some markets, and this fruit can be frozen for later. Other economy items include bananas, grapefruit, oranges and grapes.

GROCERY—MARKET AISLES—Some markets offer special prices on canned peas, tomato products, jelly, peaches and fruit cocktail.

BEEF—Good values include chuck roasts and steaks, round steaks, beef liver and ground beef.

PORK—Good values are pork-quarter loin cut, loin chops, Boston butt, roast pork shoulder steaks, smoked picnics and roll sausage.

CONSUMER WATCH—WORDS: In meat buying, it's the cost per serving—not the cost per pound—that really counts.

Natural Gas Prices Rise

AUSTIN—State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that the price of natural gas produced and sold in Texas crept upward 19 percent during the first half of Fiscal 1977.

During that same period (Sept. 1, 1976-Feb. 28, 1977), Texas-produced natural gas cost Texas purchasers more than twice as much as buyers from out-of-state, Bullock noted.

An analysis compiled for "Fiscal Notes", the monthly financial statement published by the Comptroller's Office, shows that the price for all Texas natural gas averaged $1.1 cents per thousand cubic feet (mcf) for the six-month period.

This is 11.8 cents over the price of 69.3 cents per mcf for Texas natural gas.

The average price of Texas-produced natural gas to in-state buyers during the six-month period was 97.1 cents per mcf. This is 19 percent over the $1.5 cents per mcf average for intra-state sales in Fiscal 1976.

At the same time, out-of-state purchasers of Texas-produced natural gas paid an average of 46.8 cents per mcf during the first six months of Fiscal 1977.

Natural gas production for the six-month period totaled 3.75 trillion cubic feet, according to the Comptroller. Slightly more than two-thirds of this gas was sold in-state. The financial report also shows that state expenditures for the 1977 fiscal year which ended August 31 totaled $6.6 billion. Revenue for the year totaled $7.36 billion.

The Woodville Garden Club met October 19 at the home of Fish Caruthers. Hostesses for the meeting were Vera Nichols, Jeanette Anderson and Lois Beardsley.

Activities for the meeting included a quiz, a plant lecture on plant culture, presented by Nichols. The next meeting will be November 16, when Garden Club members will meet at the home of Mrs. Mildred Story.

Sin Offering
"No Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many..." (Heb. 9:28). That "Jesus Christ died for the sins of the world" (John 3:16); Heb. 2:9) will not be denied by Bible believing people (1 Peter 3:18).

When Jesus came into the world it was His PURPOSE to die for the sins of men. "Put now sin in the debt of the world hath He put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself" (Heb. 9:26). "I lay down my life, that I might take it again: No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father" (John 10:17-18). Jesus was not crucified because of weakness. "Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and He shall send me more than twelve legions of angels? But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?" (Mt. 26:53).

Jesus has never intended to set up an earthly kingdom (John 18:36). His kingdom is spiritual (Rom. 14:17). Was in existence in the first century? "...That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the KINGDOM OF GOD COME WITH POWER" (Mt. 9:1). Now if the kingdom of Christ is not a reality we have seen a very old people in the world of men, that died in middle age. Surely any person not blinded by a preconceived notion can see that Jesus said His kingdom would be set up during the first century. Then present Old Jesus know all that He has intended to do. For His kingdom is not of this world. We believe He did. For His kingdom will be set up in the first century. The Colossians were in it (Col. 1:13, 14). He shall send me more than twelve legions of angels. He shall offer Himself as a sin offering for men, NOT TO SET UP AN EARTHLY KINGDOM.

"...That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the KINGDOM OF GOD COME WITH POWER" (Mt. 9:1). Now if the kingdom of Christ is not a reality we have seen a very old people in the world of men, that died in middle age. Surely any person not blinded by a preconceived notion can see that Jesus said His kingdom would be set up during the first century. Then present Old Jesus know all that He has intended to do. For His kingdom is not of this world. We believe He did. For His kingdom will be set up in the first century. The Colossians were in it (Col. 1:13, 14). He shall send me more than twelve legions of angels. He shall offer Himself as a sin offering for men, NOT TO SET UP AN EARTHLY KINGDOM.

Jesus has never intended to set up an earthly kingdom (John 18:36). His kingdom is spiritual (Rom. 14:17). Was in existence in the first century? "...That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the KINGDOM OF GOD COME WITH POWER" (Mt. 9:

Teachers Are Younger

AUSTIN—American school teachers today on average are getting younger, marrier, and better paid, according to recent research reported in the November Texas Outlook, official publication of the Texas State Teachers Association.

A survey of the nation's teachers, conducted by the National Education Association, yields some revealing insights. For instance, their median age is 33, down from 34 in 1961 and lower than at any other time.

About 99 percent of U.S. teachers in 1976 held at least the bachelor's degree, up from 85.4 percent in 1961. Those with master's degrees registered 37 percent compared to 23 percent in 1961. Non-degree teachers have all but vanished from the classroom.

Seventy-seven percent of the teachers in 1976 were earning annual salaries of $10,000 or better, compared to 33.7 percent in 1971 and only 21.1 percent in 1966. The national average teacher salary of $12,005 in 1976 represented a 92 percent increase over that of 1960. But one-third of the nation's teachers were still earning under $10,000 per year.

Women teachers outnumbered men by 2 to 1. About 70 percent of the teachers are married. Fifty-seven percent had spouses who were employed, compared to 51 percent 10 years earlier. Home ownership among teachers increased from 62 to 71 percent.

An Outlook article titled "What's Good About Schools?" maintained a recent Gallup Poll which reported that discipline continues to be the No. 1 problem for U.S. public schools, by the highest percentage yet recorded.

Other major school problems in order of public concern registered in the poll are: integration/segregation; having lack of proper financial support; difficulty of getting good teachers; poor curriculum; drug use; parents apathy; over-sized schools and classes; teacher apathy; and mismanagement of funds and programs.

In another article, a former Texas teacher gives an account of why she left the classroom, yet she says: "I cannot accept the failure of the public schools as inevitable, because I still have faith in children."

Other articles in the magazine explore teacher-community relations; community education, outdoor education; for elementary students; and changes in the state public school system made by the 1977 Texas Legislature.

Farmers Urged To Report Use

Tyler County farmers who have not reported their total crop and land use acreage to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) are urged to do so as soon as possible, Ray Sheffield, Chairman of the Tyler County ASCS Committee, said. The acreages must be reported to be eligible for 1978 program benefits.

"Even though farmers may not have needed to certify crop acreages last year, Mr. Sheffield said, it is very important that they report their 1977 crops. So far, 65 farmers in Tyler County have certified their crop acreages."

Tyler County 7th In Pulpwood Production

LUFKIN—Latest government statistics show that Tyler County is seventh in the state of Texas in pulpwood production, according to a release by the Texas Pulpwood Association.

Texas ranks sixth of 13 southern states in pulpwood production; after a five percent increase in 1976, according to the TEA report, Texas turned out more than 3.80 million cords during the survey period to rank just behind No. 5 South Carolina which had 3.88-million.

Tyler County led the state with 183,900 cords to rank as one of the most productive counties in the entire South.

Only two counties in the entire region bested the 200,000-cord mark—Choctawhatchee County, Alabama, with 234,152 cords, and Ashley County, Arkansas, with 230,253.

Texas had 10 of the 65 counties or parishes with more than 100,000 cords. Shelby County, with 162,080, was right behind Trinity County, Texas, with 144,748. Jasper, 135,189 and Polk, 130,322.

Cass County ranked sixth in Texas with 113,555; Tyler seventh with 110,151; Cherokee, eighth with 105,525; Nacogdoches ninth with 103,881 and Panola tenth with 102,208.

Just out of the 100,000 category were a Newton County with 94,513; Marion, 88,817; Angelina, 84,734; San Augustine, 79,576 and Hardin, 79,534.

Overall Texas figures placed roundwood production including both hardwood and softwood at 2,405,000 cords, down slightly from 1975.

But the state's output of wood residues more than made up the difference—jumping 15 percent in a year from 1975 to a total of 2,853,800 cords.

Total southern pulpwood production for 1976 jumped to 27.5 million cords, five million cords and 12 percent more than 1975.

Softwood residues accounted for 52 percent of the increase, and hardwood added another 22 percent to the total gain.

In 1976, 122 mills processed southern pulpwood, according to the statistics, and just 10 of them were located outside the South.

The Texas mills using southern pulpwood and their pulping capacity in tons for a 24-hour period:

Temple-Kraft, Inc., 1,550	Southland Paper, Houston, 1,450	Southland Paper, Lufkin, 1,200	Owens-Illinois, Orange, 1,000
Champion Papers, Pasadena, 830	Temple Industries, Diboll, 620	International Paper, Texarkana, 575	GAF Corporation, Dallas, 70
Celotex Corporation, Houston, 50

The statistics were released in a government report entitled "Southern Pulpwood Production, 1976," by Daniel Bertelson of the U.S. Forest Service.

The report was compiled from information supplied by the Southern Forest Experiment Station in New Orleans and the Southeastern Forest Experiment Station in Asheville, North Carolina. In cooperation with the American Pulpwood Association.

Copies are available from the Texas Forestry Association, Box 1486, Lufkin, Texas 75901.

WARREN—State Representative Jim Browder addressed the Oct. 17 meeting of the Tyler County Unit of the Texas State Teachers Association and told those present of the need to broaden the tax base for funding to education in Texas.

Home Heaters Possible Hazards

Most people know carbon monoxide as a deadly odorless, tasteless and colorless gas that comes from automobiles—and that it can kill.

They forget, however, that the same carbon monoxide gas also is by-product of a roaring fire in your fireplace or a heating unit in your home, says the Texas Department of Health.

"It's a really a year-around threat, but the most hazardous time is during the cold months when homes and businesses are closed up tightly against the weather," said Horace F. Adrian, engineer-administrator with the Occupational Health and Radiation Division.

"In closed-up areas, you can't depend on fresh air coming in through windows or doors to bring in fresh air."

"In places with a source of carbon monoxide, you've got to introduce fresh air into the room around doors, windows and even automobile exhaust pipes to be pushed out of the building through ventilators," he said.

The first symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning, you've got to introduce fresh air into the room around doors, windows and even automobile exhaust pipes to be pushed out of the building through ventilators," he said.
