Council Backs Inspections

Area restaurant owners can expect tighter inspections of their establishments and less leniency shown when state standards are not met, following action taken at Monday's meeting of the Woodville City Council.

City Health Inspector Joan Lolodice came before Woodville's government body to make what she called a "routine request," but which evolved into a full accounting of her findings and procedures as health inspector.

Ms. Lolodice requested that Frankie Rogers, chief lab technician at the Tyler County Hospital, be allowed to work with her doing bacteriological tests on cultures taken from local food handling establishments. The request which was granted, stemmed from a recent two-day forced closing by Ms. Lolodice of a Woodville donut shop.

"I saw something there that had been there too long, and was too bad to just leave alone," said Ms. Lolodice. She then called Rogers asking for his assistance in identifying the problem. The closing was not a result of the tests, according to Ms. Lolodice. "He was closed whether we did the cultures or not," she said.

Ms. Lolodice said the cultures would not be done on a routine basis, but only as needed in the situation with the donut establishment. Rogers had volunteered his services earlier but had not been called in and volunteered a second time following the illness of his daughter which was caused he said by a bacteria she picked up at a local restaurant.

Council members also studied the question of informing the public of the inspector's findings and the possibility of posting "score cards" was mentioned. At this time, all inspection scores are posted at the Woodville Police Department.

"The public has been bounding me to post these scores," Ms. Lolodice said, adding that she had been hesitant in doing so under the advisement of a state regional health officer.

"More drastic measures are going to have to be taken to get these establishments to clean up their places," said Ms. Lolodice. She also stated that the attitude of the owners make the difference. "Some are truly concerned when I point out things that don't meet with the standards, and they will do something about the problem that same day," she said. "Others will push you as far as they can."

Ms. Lolodice further stated that she felt that until "books" are checked, some would never clean up their businesses. No decision was made regarding the posting of scores but a promise of "not treading so lightly" was made by Ms. Lolodice.

Also during Monday's meeting, city fathers voted to contract the Tyler County

Dam B Sets Water Quality Meeting

The Dam B Lions Club will sponsor a meeting regarding the quality of the drinking water at Dam B on Thursday, March 23. The meeting will be held at the Fairview Baptist Church Recreation Hall located on Town Bluff road.

Questions concerning the installation of a new water system in the area will be answered by a representative of the State Health Department. All residents of Dam B are urged to attend.

Booster to produce a supplement that would serve to introduce, inform and interest people in the activities of city government. The supplement is scheduled to be ready in mid-May.

In other city action, councilmen voted to accept the minutes from the previous meeting, adopt a resolution in memory of Jimmy Freeman, former Woodville Mayor; a request from Tourism Committee to pay approved expenses up to $25 for the overnight housing and feeding of some 24 journalists expected to tour East Texas in June and $130 for advertising in the Wall Street Journal.

Install a street light at the corner of Tucker and Myrtle Streets in Woodville; close Chilton Street on the west side of the court house for a few hours the weekend of April 1 and 2 for a square dance exhibition by the Dogwood Squares and to appoint Carl Phillips as assistant city judge.

TyCo Finances Are 'Very Good'

Tyler County's financial position was cited as being "very good" Monday following a report presented during commissioners' court by William Keys and John Epps, who recently finished auditing the county financial records.

Keys and Epps, independent certified public accountants, were hired by the county to do a complete audit of the county's records as required by law.

Keys commended county personnel for their "hard work and cooperation" throughout the audit. He also stated that county records were kept "very good and timely" and that his only recommendation towards improving the systems used would be extensions on the reports turned in monthly by county offices. A full written report outlining his recommendations will be presented to the court at a later date Keys said.

In other business, commissioners listened while David Waxman of Semetko and Waxman interviewed prospective engineering firms who are bidding for road and bridge contracts in the Housing and Urban Development project in the Beaumont-Hill community in the southern part of the county. Representatives from the firms of Rady and Associates of Fort Worth, Temple, Associates of Diboll and Everett Griffith and Associates of Lufkin answered questions regarding construction, time elements, inspections and post-construction responsibilities.

Commissioners will meet in workshop session Friday, March 17, at 9 a.m. to consider the firm's presentations and make a final decision regarding the contract.

Also during Monday's meeting, commissioners granted Sheriff Lewis Craven permission to hire sufficient men to patrol area parks.

According to Craven, the Dam B Corps of Engineers will pay all salaries and car expenses incurred and the county will receive all revenue from cases filed through the sheriff's department.

Sheriff Craven will be responsible for the hiring of the men and their actions. The patrol will go into effect April 1, lasting throughout the summer season until October.

In other county action commissioners voted to table until Friday, March 24, the

Parade To Feature Owens' Horses

One of the featured attractions in the 1978 Tyler County Western Weekend Parade on Saturday, March 25 will be an eight-horse Belgian hitch from Owens' Country Sausage of Richardson according to Western Weekend Director Jim Clark.

The eight heavy Belgian Horses and the wagon with its chrome and patent leather harness is reminiscent of the Gay Nineties. The horses are matched blondes with white manes and tails and range in weight from 2,000 to 2,500 pounds each. These horses were selected from leading Belgian breeders in both the United States and Canada.

The harness and the Scotch Collars are finished in patent leather, while all buckles, fittings and ornaments are in mirror chrome. The wagon is approximately 100 years old and was used to haul freight in the late-1800's and early 1900's.

The Western Weekend Parade gets under way at 2 p.m. on Saturday, March 25 and also will feature Parade Marshal Bill Bailey and his Longhorn Steer "Chisolm" and at least 14 trailride groups totaling approximately 1500 riders and horses who will finish their two day trailrides by participating in the parade.

At 4 p.m. following the parade the western weekend rodeo will be held at the Tyler County 4-H-FFA-Arena on Highway 190 West. The rodeo, produced by Dan Harris Cattle Company of Orange, Texas, will feature calf roping, bronc riding, steer dogging, bull riding, barrel racing and

The excitement of the square dancing will be provided by The Spirits, the well known Houston based square dance troupe. They will form two squares using 16 dancers for three performances during the day.

The Reservation will be open Wednesday through Saturday with tours from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Sundays. The facilities will be closed on Mondays and Tuesdays. Tours include guided tour rides on the Big Thicket Tour and the Indian Country Tour. A tour through the Living Indian Village replica of 200 years ago and Reptile Garden Tour completes weekly tours. Indians To Honor Chief Battise Saturday

Special festivities will mark the spring opening of the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation this Saturday, March 18, "Mikko Choba Day." Chief Fulton Battise of the tribe has been declared to honor lifetime chief of the tribes.

Mikko Choba in the dialect of the Alabama-Coushatta means Big Chief. For 34 years, Battise served as a second chief and became the first chief in 1970. Chiefs are elected by the people to serve a lifetime role with the east Texas Indians.

The second chief is Emmett Battise, whose other duty is serving as superintendent of the 4,600-acre Indian Reservation. The Reservation, located between Livingston and Woodville on US 190, is home for approximately 600 tribal members.

Festivities for the Mikko Choba Day will include special Indian dance competition by the war dancers. The public is invited to see the fierce competition and display of their talents free of charge, beginning at 10 a.m. Introducing something new will be a

Ceremonies Set For Levingston Steel Plant

Formal opening and dedication ceremonies in Woodville for the Levingston Shipbuilding $1 million rolled steel fabrication plant will be held Saturday March 18, beginning at 11 a.m.

According to Dave Hardin, general manager of the 34,000 square foot facility, there will be a formal flag raising ceremony, invocation and an introduction of key persons who facilitated the opening of our modern new steel production plant here.

Expected to be recognized for their activities in the location of the plant in Woodville are Mayor and City Council and the Tyler County Commissioners, who acted together along with the Tyler County Industrial Foundation and who were all instrumental in the companies decision to locate here.

"We've never been treated nicer anywhere," a top official from Orange stated. Levingston Shipbuilding Company is a division of Ashland-Warren, Inc. and Ashland-Warren, Inc. is one of four operating divisions of Ashland Oil Inc.

The new Industrial Products Division in Woodville will specialize in the manufacture of pipe, fabricated tees and elbows, LEVCO Cranes and other heavy steel items. Levingston has long built and repaired marine equipment and has operated ship yards in Orange and Port Arthur Texas.

The huge new facility began operations on Feb. 28 with an initial staff of 15. It is scheduled to be in full operation by March 31. The pipe manufacturing portion of the company's product line will begin with a limited work crew totaling 45. Company officials are quick to point out, however, that this total is expected to grow soon with the introduction of new product lines and newer expanded markets which have resulted from their move to Woodville.

Guests are expected to number approximately 300. According to Hardin there will be a formal ribbon cutting ceremony with recognition of several of the guests in the audience.

One official in Orange said "It looks like we're going to be around you all for a long time and we're looking forward to that relationship."

According to Plant Manager Hardin, "We are happy to be here in Woodville, and we look forward to a mutually beneficial relationship with your community."

"Of all the sites we looked at," Hardin said, "The Woodville location had more of what we were looking for: good employee climate, readily available manpower and central location. All the ingredients we needed," he said, "to make the important decision to locate there. And, when you add those factors to the full cooperation of the City and County and other local people involved, well we've never been treated so nice."

Hillister Man Charged With Stereo Theft

A 19-year old Hillister man was arrested and charged with felony theft Saturday in connection with the theft of car stereo equipment from Mann Furniture of Woodville.

Ricky Dumesnil, a full-time employe of the furniture store, was arraigned before City Magistrate Joe Cash and posted a $1000 bond.

Dumesnil's arrest followed a series of events which began early Saturday morning. Texas Highway Patrolman Jim Deal received an anonymous phone call which related that someone was taking the stereos from the store and selling them within the county.

At 1:50 a.m. Saturday, Deal stopped a car with three occupants on U.S. 69 at the north city limits of Woodville. A search of the vehicle revealed one of the alleged stolen stereos and a small quantity of marijuana.

Jean Broom and posted a $500 bond. The owner of the vehicle gave the law enforcement officials a statement, saying that he had purchased the stereo from Dumesnil. Dumesnil was then arrested on a warrant by (continued on Page 3A)

Police Test To Be Given In Woodville

The Texas Commission on Law, Officers' Standard, and Education will give a written test Wednesday, March 22, at 1:30 p.m. in the Woodville Police Department building for the purpose of filling a vacancy on the Woodville police force.

All persons 21 to 45 years of age interested in taking the test should stop by the WPD on Pavillion Street and fill out an application. The most qualified persons, chosen on a basis of their scores on this multiple choice test, will be invited to take a oral review examination as a further step in the selection of a patrolman.

Emergency Care Explained

This letter is to explain the operation of the emergency room at the Tyler County Hospital, and is written in the spirit of enhancing your convenience and lessening your expense in obtaining emergency type medical care. The purpose of the emergency room at the Tyler County Hospital is for the treatment of sudden, unexpected and catastrophic illness and accidents which cannot be adequately treated in the physician's office. The emergency room at the Tyler County Hospital is not set up or operated for the dispensing of routine medical care, checkups, or minor illness. Illness and accidents of this type can be treated cheaper and with more convenience in your physician's office. The usual operating hours of the local pharmacists are as follows: Dick Best Pharmacy 8 a.m.-6 p.m. Monday-Saturday, closed Sunday. Bob's Prescription Shop 8 a.m.-6 p.m. Monday-Saturday, closed Sunday. Savon Drugs 8 a.m.-6:30 p.m. Monday-Friday, closed Saturday at 6 p.m., closed Sunday. Jarrott's Pharmacy 7 a.m.-7 p.m. Monday-Saturday, 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Sunday.

Please keep these hours in mind. Medications are not dispensed by the hospital and prescriptions written after the pharmacy closing hours may cause considerable delay in obtaining needed prescriptions. We would urge you to check with your doctor's office first before coming to the emergency room and, as far as possible, try to obtain needed medical care during office hours and during pharmacy hours. Serious, sudden and unexpected problems that do not occur during these hours will be taken care of in the emergency room. While we wish to give good medical service and appropriate care, some delays and waiting are inevitable. We ask your cooperation and understanding when this occurs. If you have problems in obtaining admission to the local medical care system, let us know and we will try to help you make arrangements for needed services. We thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
Richard A. Cordes, Administrator
Carl Fairchild, President, Board of Managers

From The Indian Village

By ROLAND PONCHO
Bits and pieces have come from the so-called controversy over the management or mismanagement of the pottery plant at the Indian Village. A great deal of investment of federal and state money has gone into the endeavor. The plant is now in a cocoon.

No one could be more disappointed than the pottery making trainees. The finished products were consistently very professional. They were beautifully made of various designs with an emphasis on Native Americans.

Ishmael Soto, who was the first of two potters contracted to conduct a training program observed that very little guidance or repetition was necessary to teach techniques to the trainees who were all Indians. In fact, he went so far as to state that some students he taught in universities took more than a semester to master the various techniques, if at all. According to Soto, there seem to be a natural talent one could not teach that the trainees collectively had.

Later, Gary Huntoon was the designated person to continue the training program. He, too, spoke in the same language of Soto in his observation. He was very enthusiastic about the progress being made. If someone ever told them what happened, they'll never speak to us again.

Both Mr. Soto and Mr. Huntoon made pottery as a living. Nita Sylesline often trekked to the pottery plant with a 35mm camera in hand and recorded some of the most handsome looking pottery you'll ever see in this part of the country. I also had an opportunity to photograph some.

I mention this because of one reason. By some strange "white tape," the pottery made by trainees was not to be sold. They were for demonstration purposes and for instruction. They were to be only used as models for teaching. What happened to those? They were crushed to nothing. Ouch! Those "white tapes."

Fortunately, many of those were saved or given as gifts to be enjoyed.

Dear Trish,
The Blood Center employees want to thank you for the publicity which you provided for the Woodville

Thank you again, not only for the publicity, but for your own personal donation. It is because of you and others like you that we can hope to remain

Spring is here.
That sounds ridiculous today. Snow is falling in Lufkin. A cold heavy wind blows through Woodville. Drops of rain are beginning to come down.
But the cardinal has started his song of mating and territorial claim. The ruby red flowers of the maple are popping out. And the sound of baseball bats cracking the horsehide fill the afternoon air.
Those are sure signs of Spring.

Notes From An Oldtimer

By PHEBE ARMSTRONG

With so much building going on around Woodville, it's surprising to see a whole vacant block, so close to town. That land bounded by Reid and Sutton to the east and west, and Dogwood and Pavilion to the north and south seems to be sitting there waiting for something, I wonder what.

That block wasn't always vacant. Long, long ago a house stood on the south end of that property. It was the usual old board and batten dog-run house with a porch across the front facing what is now Reid Street. Like others of its ilk, it had never seen a smidgen of paint. It sat well back from the street among some trees—a boia d'arc maybe and a sweetgum.

Mr. and Mrs. Summerlin lived there. Mrs. Summerlin stayed inside and wasn't very sociable with the children of the neighborhood, but Mr. Summerlin was their friend.

Mr. Summerlin was an old man then, retired from a circus. He never explained what he did in the circus, but just "followed it." But he knew all kinds of circus tricks that he tried tirelessly to teach to the boys and girls who came to his front yard after school and on Saturdays.

Some of the boys did learn to stand on their heads not with the grace of circus performers, mind you—but he explained that that would come only with years of patience and practice.

Things were going pretty well and it looked as though Mr. Summerlin might achieve some success as a circus recruiter until he started the tight-rope walking act.

That rope just wouldn't stay flat. Either it was the kind used in circuses or Mr. Summerlin couldn't stretch it tight enough between two tree trunks for anybody to walk across it. By the time one got up and balanced on one end, the rope would begin to sag. Two wobbly steps more and the rope would almost touch the ground and one more performer would fall in the dust.

This went on for hours and days and weeks. Every one had to have a turn. Mr. Summerlin would untie one end of the rope after each try. He wore himself out pulling and stretching and retrying that rope, but nobody ever got all the way across.

Then one day Mr. and Mrs. Summerlin, the house and the trees were gone and the land stands empty.

Mr. Summerlin probably died realizing that Woodville wouldn't produce any circus performers, and, as far as I know, Woodville never has.

AUSTIN—Gov. Dolph Briscoe, by executive order took the first step toward establishing a state-owned deepwater terminal for unloading imported crude oil along the Texas coast.

Briscoe activated the Texas Deepwater Port Authority after entering a finding that private enterprise has not come up with workable plans for a superport.

Major oil companies united to plan Seadock—a nearly $1 billion facility 27 miles off the Texas coast near Freeport. Federal restrictions and a limitation on profits upset the deal.

Hugh L. Scott, president of Seadock, Inc., told a House committee the terminal could not be financed privately in view of federal strings. He said he doubts even the state could finance the facility with revenue bond financing approved by a Senate bill passed during a special legislative session last summer.

Briscoe announced last week he will appoint the nine members of the Deepwater Port Authority authorized by the Senate bill.

Scott said Seadock is willing to transfer its pending port license from the federal government to the state.

Seadock spent more than $20 million developing plans for the terminal.

County Commissioners will meet again Friday, March 17, to consider payment of county bills and to finish business tabled from Monday's meeting.

Exxon, Mobil and Gulf pulled out of the consortium which proposed to build Seadock after proceedings to obtain the license. They provided 52 per cent of the project's financial backing.

55's Still the Limit
Fifty-five miles per hour is still the speed limit.

For the 13th time, the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission set 55 as the top speed for travel on Texas highways.

Each 120 days, the commission must re-examine the limit as directed by the legislature in 1973.

If the commission finds the federal law requires the 55 mph limit, it must follow suit to prevent loss of federal highway funds. The federal law, passed during the 1973-74 oil embargo, is still in effect.

The new finding extends the Texas limit forward 120 days from March 16.

Program Saved
The State Board of Human Resources rebudgeted $4 million for free medical prescriptions for the poor.

At the same time, board members directed its staff and an advisory panel to figure out how to cut the program's cost without hurting the poor.

Improve the insulative value of draperies with lining. Drapery lined with a separate white lining can improve insulating value up to 30 percent.

White lining reflects the radiant heat, and the air held between the drapery and the added lining affords more insulation than the single drapery.

Some linings are more effective insulators than others. Plain-weave thermal-coated linings increase effectiveness. Acetate fibers increase insulative value over polyester lining. Acrylic foam-backed draperies afford better insulation than woven acetate backed; however, they weigh about one ounce per square yard more.

Linings also give protection in preserving the original drapery color and preventing color fading from the sun.

In addition, deterioration of the drapery fabric is lessened with the addition of a separate lining.

San Augustine Beats Warren For Tourney Title

San Augustine came from behind Saturday night to beat Warren, 10-3, and capture the Championship of the Third Annual Woodville Baseball Tournament at Henning Park.

Earlier in the day, the Warren, 10-3, and capture the Championship of the Third Annual Woodville Baseball Tournament at Henning Park.

Newton beat Hudson, 4-2, in the game for third place, also played Saturday afternoon.

Alan Stagg and Gray Bennett converted walks into a pair of runs in the first inning of the title contest on the strength of a Grady Hatton single. From there on, however, the Warriors were held to only two hits for the rest of the game.

San Augustine, the defending District 17-2A baseball champions, retained for three runs in both the first and second innings.

Warren managed one more run in the bottom of the sixth, but it was too little and too late.

Stagg was saddled with the loss, while Jerry Norvell picked up the win for the Wolves.

The Kirby varsity, too, had to come from behind to defeat their younger counterparts in the consolation game.

Ricky Barlow of the Eagle JV scored in the first inning as his team knocked starter Kyle Brazil for four singles.

That's the way it remained until the bottom of the fifth, when Robin Rainey scored for the varsity.

Designated hitter Martin Riley blasted a triple in the sixth and scored on another three-bagger by Brazil as the varsity went ahead to stay.

Gerald Dil was the winning pitcher, working two innings in relief of Brazil. Mike Collins got the best of the game, allowing only three hits and striking out seven of the varsity batters.

Nevertheless, the JV outthrew the varsity 5-3.

Warren had two players named to the all-tournament team. They were senior catcher Grady Hatton and sophomore third baseman Clint Hannon. From the Woodville JV, Collins was selected, and catcher Charles MacLin of the Eagle varsity also made the team.

Warren made it into the finals by beating Kirby, 4-2, in the first round, and then pasting Newton, 15-3.

Mark Taylor scored on an error in the seventh inning as the Warriors beat the Eagles Thursday. The game was nip and tuck all the way as the teams were tied 1-1 through the first three innings.

Kirby went out in front, 3-1, in the fourth as Kevin Battiste, John White and Steve Hladon all hit home runs in the seventh.

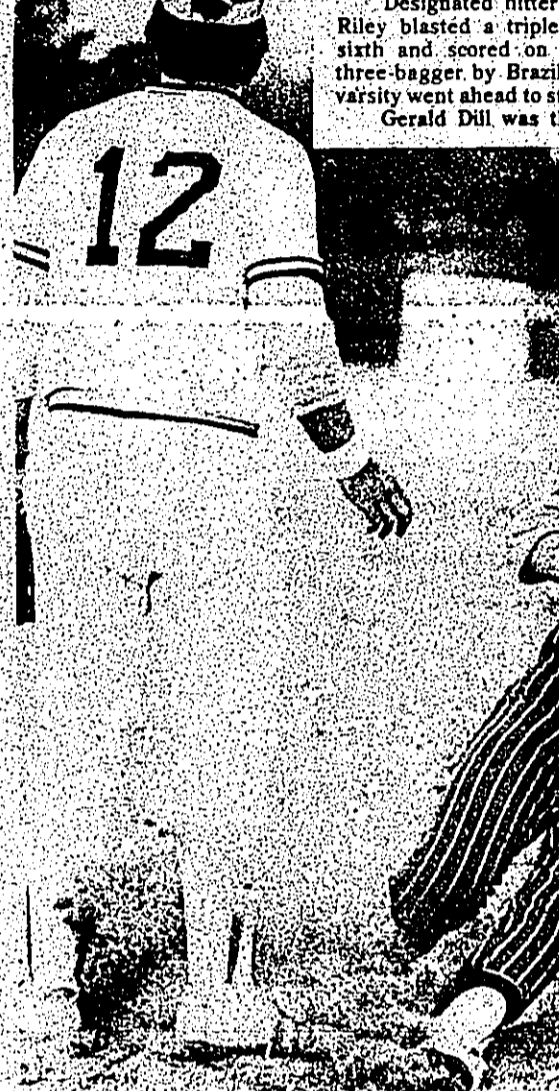

Warren tied it up again in the top of the fifth on runs by Benoit and Rex Barba.

Warren erupted for nine runs in the seventh inning in the Warriors' rout over Newton. Grady Hatton hit a home run in the seventh and Clint Hannon hit the consolation title.

Kirby's varsity made its way to the consolation title with an 11-8 decision over Corrihan-Cadden. The Eagle JV got there by whipping Kirbyville, 11-2. Riley picked up the win for the varsity.

Eagle Relay Teams Dominate Bobcat Relays

HULL The Kirby High School girls' relay squads continued to shine, picking up first in the 400 and 800 relays at the Hull-Districts. Bobcat relays here Saturday.

At the same time, the Eagle boys suffered through a rather lackluster meet, with Steve Hadnot's second in the high jump (6-0) being the best they could manage.

Also, the 440 relay squad of Cratic, Broussard, Hadnot and Constance Ogletree won first place in that event with a time of 51 seconds.

Kelle Sterling came fourth in the 100-yard dash and fourth place points in the 200-yard dash.

Elsewhere, the boys picked up points from Moyer in the 120-yard hurdles with a time of 15.8 seconds.

Kevin Lachaise (fourth in the pole vault at 11-0 feet) and Brad Cooley (fifth in the pole vault at 10-6).

The Eagle boys won a third place in the sprint relay relay by Michael Jackson, George Midkiff, Victor Hadnot and Buster Moyer combined for a time of 1:37.6.

Our mental attitude is just what it should be, said Houston, referring to another problem affecting his team's performance.

On the negative side, Houston was troubled by injuries to several key third place in the sprint relay relay by Michael Jackson, George Midkiff, Victor Hadnot and Buster Moyer combined for a time of 1:37.6.

Friday and Saturday for the Hardin-Jefferson Hawk Relay. Since most of the 17-2A schools will be represented, it will be a good chance for the Eagles to see the competition which seeks to unseat both squads from the district titles they won last year.

Newton is the early favorite for the boys' title, according to Houston, with the rest of the schools fighting for second.

Bulldogs Second In Lumberton

LUMBERTON—Colmesnell's baseball team fell 2-2 to the Lumberton Junior Varsity here Saturday in the error-filled championship game of the Lumberton Baseball Tournament.

Darren Bean and Thomas Draxton led the Colmesnell hitters during the tournament, averaging .667 and .500 batting averages, respectively.

Tuesday, the Bulldogs were scheduled to play at the Huntington Junior Varsity. A Deason double scored Terry Graham for the runner-up Bridge City's 410.

Exclusive Right To Sell

When listing your home with a Realtor to sell, there are a variety of arrangements you can make. But if you are seriously intent on selling your home within a reasonable time and at the price you are asking, it would pay to consider making an exclusive right to sell agreement.

This gives the Realtor the right to the commission if he actually sells your home during the listing period, or if another Realtor sells it, or if you sell it yourself.

Under these conditions the Realtor will have the added incentive and protection to go all-out in heavily advertising your house and showing it to prospects. He will not be afraid of losing it, the attention of other Realtors who may have qualified leads, and he will cooperate and share the single commission. This gives you the advantage of having several Realtors make a determined effort to sell your home.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at HOLDERMAN REAL ESTATE, 302 W. Burnett, Woodville, Phone: 283-3727. We're here to help you.

Weather Plays Havoc With Area Fish Ponds

Unusual weather conditions have apparently played havoc for fish in many East Texas ponds, according to Dr. Joe Lock, area fisheries specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Lock explained, "This lower than normal water level, combined with shallow areas containing debris and aquatic vegetation, has led to a bacterial action in these shallow areas resulting in bacterial action on the plant material. This bacterial action is believed to have reduced the pH of the water to critical levels for fish life."

The ideal water pH (acidity) for fish is 7.0 or neutral, Dr. Lock said. If the pH drops much below 6 (increasing acidity), it is nearing the death point for fish.

Ponds develop a light blue or green color, and then become almost crystal clear when acidity is increased. Pond owners should test their water if it becomes unusually clear to prevent loss of fish. Local tests are not available, but water samples may be taken to the local county Extension office. The local Extension office will check by sending the sample to Dr. Lock.

Dr. Lock said that agricultural limestone per surface area of water will usually correct the acidity problem. Lock indicated, "The limestone should be scattered throughout the pond for best results."

The Need is Mutual

You have life insurance. But, what about your wife? If something happens to her, think how much it would cost—hiring someone to take over the care of your home and children—American National Life insurance can mean mutual protection for both of you. Get the details. Contact:

Veteran Tells How Texans Cut Bridge

April 21, 1836—the day of the Battle of San Jacinto—was a day of triumph for the men of the Texas Army. They had just won the decisive battle that secured Texas' independence from Mexico.

On the morning of the 21st of April, 1836, Captain James W. Smith's company, commonly called Deaf Smith's Spy Company, were drawn up in line on the edge of General Houston's position. As well as I recollect, we were between thirty and forty strong.

The Texans learned on the morning of the battle that the Mexican troops had crossed this bridge during the night and strengthened the enemy's numbers. Deaf Smith, the former Indian scout, then led a party of six volunteers on a sortie to destroy it.

On the morning of the 21st of April, 1836, Captain James W. Smith's company, commonly called Deaf Smith's Spy Company, were drawn up in line on the edge of General Houston's position.

Most folks know it as Bluff Street, but apparently someone thought they had a better idea. Drivers on U.S. 69 coming into Woodville had best be warned that despite the sign, there is not a Longneck Street in the Dogwood City. (Staff Photo)

Tower Asks For Senior Intern Applicants

WASHINGTON—Senator John Tower (R-Tex.) has announced he is accepting applications from Texas senior citizens who wish to participate in an intern program in his Washington office for two weeks in May.

The program is designed to provide increased communication between the retired community and their representatives in Congress. Tower was the first member of the Texas Congressional delegation to participate in the initial program in 1977.

Models Linda Allen and Judy Watts give a preview of four of the dresses they will be modeling in the Spring Style Show. These and the latest in spring fashions will be shown. The bordered look, face inserts and feminine touch are in.

To Raise Scholarship Funds Style Show Saturday

Scholarships often make it possible for students to further their education. There are many organizations in Tyler County that actively carry on programs to raise funds for various scholarship programs.

This Saturday night the Woodville Reading Club will host their annual Spring Style Show with all proceeds going towards their scholarship fund.

Families Need Fire Escape

COLLEGE STATION—Imagine that the time is 2:58 tomorrow morning, says Dr. Gary S. Nelson, safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. You and your family have gone to bed. It is 2:58 a.m. and you are awakened by the sound of coughing. You feel uncomfortably warm. You smell smoke and suddenly you are wide awake with the realization that there is a fire in the house.

Practice your family escape plan frequently. Children especially need regular practice since routine fire drills lessen the chances of panic if a real fire should occur.

Weather Plays Havoc With Area Fish Ponds

Unusual weather conditions have apparently played havoc for fish in many East Texas ponds, according to Dr. Joe Lock, area fisheries specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Don Woods is off for a set of tennis in the outfit he will be wearing in the show. Style and tennis are both in fashion.

Defensive Driving Course Here For Senior Citizens

A course in defensive driving techniques will be offered to members of the National Retired Teachers Association (NRTA) and the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) on March 21-22 at the Woodville Inn.

DETDA To Meet Friday

SAN AUGUSTINE—Dr. Ronald R. Levy, associate director of the Texas Real Estate Research Center in College Station, will be the guest speaker for the DetDA meeting which will begin at 10 a.m.

Grapefruit.
Vegetables
Best Buys

COLLEGE STATION—Grapefruit and root vegetables offer economy prices this week at Texas grocery markets.

Other features include canned tomatoes, tomato products, tuna and corn, reports Mrs. Gwendolyn Cyran, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Prices and supplies on other items are as follows:

FRESH FRUITS—Moderate prices appear on oranges, apples, pears, pineapples and strawberries.

FRESH VEGETABLES—Root vegetables at low prices include onions, turkeys, carrots and rutabagas.

Moderate-price vegetables include cabbage, cooking greens and broccoli.

BEEF—Prices are changing, but most are trending upward. A few specials include chuck roasts and steaks, mixed, salmon steaks and beef liver.

PORK—Prices continue at higher levels than expected, and specials are scarce. By doing careful comparison shopping, consumers can find reasonable prices on Boston butt roasts, quarter loin cut into chops, loin-end roasts, smoked picnic and some brands of bacon.

POULTRY—Fryer chicken prices are up slightly, and specials are dwindling, although some are available on whole birds and mixed parts.

Pleasant egg supplies make omelets an economical dish.

CONSUMER WATCHWORDS—Although ham and lamb are Easter-menu traditions, the turkey is still on the list. For economy, if turkey is this year's choice, buy a large enough bird to provide leftovers. When buying, allow 1 1/2 pounds per serving.

Garden Club Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Land of Lakes Garden Club was held on Thursday, March 9, in the Greenhouse.

The meeting was devoted to discussing spring planting. The group present decided to again plant petunias and marigolds in the beds at the front entrance to Ivanhoe. Other flowering shrubs will also be planted at the entrance. The Garden Club is urging all property owners to participate in the beautification of Ivanhoe. Anyone having plants to donate can call Jean Riddle, 283-3888, Vincent Messina, 283-3185, or Kathleen Rogers, 283-5900.

Jean Riddle, president, reminded club members that dues for the year 1978-79 are payable in March. All property owners in Ivanhoe are cordially invited to join the Garden Club. Monthly meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Greenhouse.

Dolores and Vincent Messina were hostess and host for the meeting. Refreshments of banana cake, coffee and punch were enjoyed by those present. The door prize, a Diamond Red Begonia, was won by Jean Riddle.

The next monthly meeting of the Garden Club will be on April 13th at 7:30 p.m. in the Greenhouse.

Colmesneil News: Supper Saturday

By LOU ELLA MOSELEY
The annual pancake supper sponsored by the Colmesneil Service Club will be served at the Community Center, Saturday evening, March 18. Beginning at 5:00 o'clock, pancakes with bacon, sausage, syrup and a drink will be served to adults for $2.00 and to children for $1.00. Come with your family and friends and enjoy an evening with your neighbors.

A week of prayer by Home Missions closed Sunday evening with a prayer by the G.A. Girls, followed by the in-gathering by the entire audience. Each evening during the past week the W.M.U. ladies met for a program and prayer. The in-gathering on Sunday far exceeded the goal.

Bringing both messages at First Baptist Church on Sunday was Bro. James Best of Decatur, Alabama. With her son-in-law and daughter, him were his wife and their daughter, who served as pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Crews spent a few days during the past week at Baptist Hospital in Beaumont where he had a cataract removed from his eye.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ogden and five Brown spent Sunday in Jasper with Genade Walker who suffered a stroke in his home several days ago and is in Dickerson Hospital in Jasper. He is reported as having made slow progress toward recovery.

Gertrude Hignett, who spent some time in the Woodville hospital due to surgery, is recovering in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Schan-

don. Others who are still in Tyler County Hospital and are very ill are Smith Fowler.

Arthur Owens and Pearl Anderson III in their homes are Lorraine Fortenberry, Archie Bolivar, Edie Doran and Eliza Sturrock.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Hubert went to Liberty Sunday to see their granddaughter, Janet Anderson, and to greet their great-granddaughter, Dawn Michelle, who made her entrance into the world about two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Rushing are soon to complete their new home which will be near that of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.J. Ogden. Mrs. Rushing is also completing her bachelors degree and is doing her student teaching in Jasper.

A large group of ladies of this vicinity greatly enjoyed the lovely shower at the Community Center on Saturday afternoon with Tommie Davis presiding as the honored one. Many lovely gifts for the expected new arrival were displayed and admitted and delicious refreshments were served.

Another Tyler County native has published her poems in a small paper entitled "Reflections from My Window." Also included is a very good story about Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hargrove; the little couple who lived in Colmesneil for many years.

The author is Allice Baxter of Houston, the former Allice Meadows of Colmesneil.

With Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gregory during the weekend were their children, Larue Kirk of Hamerton and Jean Satchiano and Billy Gregory of Beaumont. With Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Hughes were their daughters, Loraine Riley of Houston and JoAnn Greer of Alvin, with their husbands.

Weekend visitors in the home of Doy Mott were her nephew, Dr. Raymond Mott of Houston and her son, Don Mott of Port Neches with their wives. Also her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Fournier of Zavalla.

The warmest of sympathy is extended from friends and neighbors to Mr. Clyde Cree and his children, W.C. Jr. and Odessa Hall, and also to other members of the family, in the sudden passing of his wife, Eliza, on Monday morning.

Mrs. Cree had poor health for several months preceding her death and was confined to the nursing home near the hospital. The funeral will be at Edwards Home on Wednesday at 2 o'clock with burial in Mason Cemetery.

The WCC Chit Chat

By ERNESTINE FAIRCLOTH
We would like to thank Sandra Faircloth and Minyard for coming by our home last Thursday, to help brighten our residents. They made rounds with Bibles in hand, visiting each resident, and I only with three were more people like them. Some of our residents' needs are still without seeing their loved ones, and I watch as their smiles slowly fade away. Its people like YOU who can put the smiles back on their faces! If you have some spare time during the week, please feel free to come by and visit with us. Our residents would be more than pleased to see you! It will be very rewarding to you, when you see the smiles on their faces, and the sparkles in their eyes. It will really help to brighten their day as they realize that there is still someone who cares.

Our dance really turned out great last week. We had the biggest turn out ever. Let me tell ya something. Just because a person sits in a little doesn't mean a thing. These people can really turn it on when it comes to dancing. If you don't know how to dance, come on out anyway. Our residents will be glad to show you how. They can teach you anything from the jitter bug to a waltz, and they are really good. We would like to thank the visitors from Holiday Pines and the public for joining us.

Ladies from the 64th Baptist Church were here last week to mend our residents' clothes. These ladies are here every month to render their services, and I think its great that they care and wish to be of some help to our residents. I would like to say thank you and let you know that you are doing a great job at our home.

We would like to thank the Dickes' Quartet for their performance last Monday and; also, Mary Davidson, Carolyn Chambliss, and Johnnie Cooper for their performance last Friday of entertaining our residents with some great gospel music. It was very much enjoyed by our residents. Thank You.

Mrs. DeLoach with the ladies from the First Baptist Church of Woodville were here last Tuesday to host our monthly birthday party. Also, their Sunday school class furnished the presents for our residents celebrating birthdays. Residents celebrating birthdays were: Burt Ashworth, Calvin Busby, May Bradshaw, Gladys Brown, Lida George, Gavin Hughes, Paul Scar-

Hodges Gardens Easter Service Sunday Mar. 26

MANY, LA.—The traditional Hodges Gardens Easter Sunrise Service will be staged for the twenty-fourth time Sunday, March 26, in the lakeside theater at Louisiana's famous "Garden in the Forest."

Located 12 miles south of Many on U.S. Highway 171, the gates to Hodges Gardens will be opened at 3 a.m. and the non-denominational Easter celebration will begin at 5 a.m. Admission is free for the Sunrise Service.

Under the direction of Dr. Will K. Andrews, music director of the Centenary College Choir and the First Methodist Church, Shreveport, the Hodges Gardens program will feature the combined voices of the Centenary College Choir and choralists from various churches in the vicinity of Hodges Gardens.

The program opens with the Last Supper, then relates the story of Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane. His arrest, trial and crucifixion climaxes with the Resurrection just as the sun rises. During the service, a huge illuminated cross stands on a hill reflecting its beauty into the Gardens lake.

More than 500 chairs will be available; but Hodges Gardens' management suggests that visitors bring folding chairs if possible. After the service, the Gardens will be cleared and regular admission prices will go into effect.

Day Facility In New Office

LUFKIN—The Day Treatment Program operated by the Deep East Texas Regional Mental Health Mental Retardation Services is now housed in its new facility at 4101 South Medford Drive, Lufkin.

The Day Treatment Program is designed to provide a service to emotionally disturbed persons who do not require hospitalization or half-way house services but who need more extensive care than what out-patient clinics can provide according to Don Wilcox, MHMR.

The two main groups of persons who are served by the Day Treatment Program are those who have long histories of emotional disturbances and who have reached a point where they no longer need hospitalization but who do need a supervised environment.

The second group includes persons who have never been hospitalized and the program offers them an alternative to hospitalization.

The cost of the service to the patients is based on a sliding scale adjusted according to income.

Wilcox said the cost of care for a patient in the Day Treatment Program is 1375, a saving of 7,025 per patient per month.

MHMR is a community based agency controlled by a Board of trustees who are appointed by the County Commissioners of the 13 counties served by the agency.

The counties served by MHMR include Houston, Maricopa, Shelby, San Augustine, Angelina, Trinity, Sabine, Newton, Jasper, Tyler, Polk, San Jacinto and Hardin.

For further information contact your local office or the central MHMR office at 4101 South Medford Drive, Lufkin, or phone (713) 639-1141.

Water Group To Meet Here

The main goal of MHMR is to insure that all persons receive the services that they require in their home community and each person receives the services in the least restrictive setting.

There will always be a need for state hospitals, Wilcox said, but state hospitals are not the answer for everyone.

MHMR offers services beginning with halfway houses, treatment programs and outpatient treatments through the out-patient clinics.

Each service is less restrictive than the one preceding it. The Day Treatment Program is operated from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The program operates on a group basis but progress is measured on an individual basis, Wilcox said.

The program is composed of work orientation, adult education, nutrition, personal hygiene, group therapy and arts and crafts including wood working and sewing among other activities.

The adult education GED program is conducted by Betty Collins of the Texas A&M University Extension Service and the nutrition portion of the program is conducted by Sandra Ritzinger, county extension agent.

Persons in the Day Treatment Center have full access to all of the services offered by MHMR in the field of mental health provided by staff psychiatrists, psychologists and drug and alcohol counselors.

The Texas Association of Rural Water Corporations will present a one-day workshop in Woodville on Wednesday, March 22 at the Woodville Inn, 201 North Magnolia.

Registration will begin at 8:15 a.m.

The workshop is designed to inform interested officials (Board Members, Officers, Managers, Operators and Others) about the new Federal Safe Drinking Water Act and what officials need to be concerned about for water quality to meet requirements of the Act.

The Safe Drinking Water Act became effective June 24, 1977. Representatives from the Texas State Health Department, Texas Public Utilities Commission, Farmers Home Administration, (USDA), Environmental Protection Agency and the Texas A&M University Extension Service will participate on the program.

The program is conducted by Sandra Ritzinger, county extension agent.

Persons in the Day Treatment Center have full access to all of the services offered by MHMR in the field of mental health provided by staff psychiatrists, psychologists and drug and alcohol counselors.
