Ain't It Great!

By MIKE BURROW

Frankie Rogers, the lab director at Tyler County Hospital, approached me last week and requested that I include something in my column this week about a project that he is closely associated with on a day to day basis. He commented that a lot of people read Ain't It Great and he wanted to contact as many people as possible. After I discovered the subject of his request, I was more than happy to comply 100 per cent.

The annual Blood Drive in Tyler County is scheduled for January 17 and January 18 at the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church. This is one opportunity this year that residents of Tyler County will have to donate blood locally, and by so doing, assure that their families will be covered in all their blood needs for the 12 months ahead.

This is the third such annual drive in Tyler County and the effort has grown each year. Last year more than 145 pints of blood were donated in the drive. The drive is conducted by technicians from the Blood Center of Southeast Texas at Beaumont. The Center is a non-profit organization which was established in 1957. The center supplies blood for 37 area hospitals. Rogers said that patients in this area need a minimum of 150 pints of blood each month. Fifty per cent of this blood is donated in blood drives such as the one scheduled here January 17-18. Rogers also explained that the worst blood shortages occur in January each year.

Assisting Rogers with the blood drive effort in Tyler County this year are Mrs. Peggy Burton, Mrs. Burton stressed that volunteers would be needed to assist with the blood drive and persons interested in helping are encouraged to contact her or Rogers at the Tyler County Hospital.

Mrs. Burton and Rogers stated that they are available for area speaking engagements prior to the blood drive. They are also already in (Continued on page 2A)

Announces

For Sheriff

Billy "Slim" Cowart of the Mount Carmel Community east of Colmesneil has announced that he is a candidate for the position of Tyler County Sheriff in the upcoming Democratic primary election.

Cowart, 48, is currently a rancher, but was formerly a deputy for the Tyler County Sheriff's Department from 1976 to 1978. He was also formerly employed by Texas U.S. Chemical at Port Neches for 20 years before becoming a deputy sheriff.

He is a certified peace officer and has completed various narcotic courses. He was born and raised in Tyler County and served in the U.S. Army from 1952 to 1954. He (Continued on page 2A)

BON VOYAGE—Clyde Gray is shown at this work table with a tile painting similar to those he will present to the mayors of five cities in Scotland and England. Gray departs January 19 for Britain, where he will promote tourism in East Texas.

On England-Scotland Tour Gray To Represent East Texas

Clyde Gray, East Texas artist and owner of Heritage Garden Village, is going to represent Tyler County on a promotional tour of Scotland and England sponsored by the Texas Tourist Development Agency and British Caledonian Airways.

When Texans visualize Scotland and England, colorful mental pictures come readily to mind. One may think of bagpipes, swirling tartans and peat smoke or Buckingham Palace, the changing of the guard and the English countryside.

After Clyde Gray returns from his trip, potential visitors from the United Kingdom will have some reciprocal impressions of Deep East Texas.

Tourists to our area can look forward to pine forests laced with dogwood trees in bloom, fishing and boating on our lakes, the pageantry of the Dogwood Festival or the drama of "Beyond the Sundown." They can visit the Shivers Museum, tour the Big Thicket and the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation.

They will enjoy the museum tour at Heritage Garden and remember eating chicken and dumplings at the Picken House.

East Texas was not represented on the first two travel missions to Britain and for this trip Frank Hildebrand, head of the Texas Tourist Bureau, specifically asked Clyde Gray to promote our area.

The trip is scheduled for January 19-30 and will include receptions

Gray will present his distinctive ceramic tile paintings to each of the Mayor, Provosts of Glasgow and Edinburgh and the Lord Mayors of Manchester, Birmingham and London. The paintings will be given as gifts from the Mayor and City Council of Woodville.

Dogwood Directors Named

Jim Clark, executive director of the Tyler County Dogwood Festival, today announced the appointment of four new directors who fill vacancies existing on the board.

The new directors are Seta Earl Birdwell, Steve Evans, Jeff Fortenberry and Ben Worthing.

The Operating Board now consists of the following directors: Jeff Fortenberry - Pageant; Betsy Stafford - Queens Court & Coronation; Becky Jinnette - Entertainment; Seta Earl Birdwell - Decorations; Fred Sullivan - Finance & Kingsmen; Steve Evans - Properties & Arrangements; Ronald Watts - Publicity; Jerry Caruth - Parade; and Ben Worthing - Western Weekend.

Clark stated that the various directorships and their committees are going ahead at full steam in preparation for the 1980 event which will be March 29 for the Western Weekend and April 5 for the Dogwood Festival.

Clark also invited all citizens of Tyler County who wish to take part in the festival work to contact him or one of the directors and they would be placed on a working committee.

New School Open

By MADELON GRAHAM
Staff Writer

The American high school experience has always included pushing through corridors choked with students and filled with a noisy confusion punctuated by slamming lockers.

The new Woodville High School is refreshingly different. It is quiet. When you step into the carpeted halls as wide as a modern airport concourse, you sense the difference at once.

The sounds of a mellow electronic chime signal the start of classes in place of the startling buzzers or jangling bells found in older schools. The atmosphere is cheerful but unfrenzied. It seems purposefully academic.

Walking past classrooms humming with activity, one is impressed with the functional design of the building. Cartons of books are being unpacked onto shelves in the large library. The chemistry lab is equipped for the most advanced experiments and the home economics lab features gleamingly efficient appliances any homemaker would envy.

There are two lunch periods when students may purchase cafeteria food or snack bar items. The kitchen areas have easy to maintain stainless steel throughout. Natural light from a wall of windows fills the spacious lunchroom.

The band hall includes two practice areas, has ample storage for instruments and is adjacent to the gym. Both are connected to the (Continued on page 2A)

Fireman Injured Sunday

A Woodville volunteer fireman was injured early Sunday morning while working to extinguish a fire at the residence of N.R. Riley, 223 E. Live Oak in Woodville, according to Alva Cook, fire marshal.

Fireman Steve Evans was taken to Tyler County Hospital and then transferred to Saint Elizabeth Hospital in Beaumont for surgical treatment to his hand.

Cook explained that the fire started around the fireplace in the house. Firemen broke the brick hearth into two pieces and were in the process of removing it from the house when the accident occurred. The section of hearth Evans was helping to carry fell and Evans' hand was caught between the hearth and the concrete steps of the house.

Cook said the house was only slightly damaged from the fire.

School Plans Open House

The public is invited to an open house at the new Woodville High School on January 27 from 1:30 until 4 p.m. according to Woodville Independent School District Superintendent Tom Kinan.

Students began classes in the new $2.4 million facility on January 2. Construction on the building began in January 1978.

Randy Graham, 18, a Harmony community youth, accidentally shot himself January 7 at approximately 2:30 p.m.

The boy was alone at home cleaning a new rifle he had received as a Christmas gift when it discharged and wounded him in the lower stomach.

Graham called the Woodville Police Department who notified the Tyler County Sheriff's office. Deputy Sheriff Butch Kraus responded to the call.

Graham was admitted to Tyler County Hospital and is reported to be in stable condition.

Commissioners To Meet Monday

County Commissioner's Court will meet Monday, January 14, to take up the matter of the discrepancy of funds in Precinct 3 Justice of the Peace Frank Grimes' office.

Barnhart To Speak At Chamber Banquet

The Annual Banquet of the Tyler County Chamber of Commerce will be held February 1 at 7:30 p.m. at the Woodville Inn.

Featured guest speaker for the occasion will be Ray Barnhart, a member of the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission of Texas. He is a native of Elgin, Illinois, and graduate of Marietta College, Marietta, Ohio, and also holds a Master of Arts Degree from the University of Houston.

Barnhart is a member of the Rotary Club and is a former member of the Pasadena City Council. He served in the Texas Legislature in 1973 and 1974 and is a former Texas state chairman of the Republican Party.

He is a businessman in the Houston area and was appointed to the policy-making body of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation by Governor Clements in 1979.

Tickets for the banquet are $8 each and are now on sale from any director or at the Chamber of Commerce office at 507 N. Pine Street, Woodville.

HAPPY HUNTING—Jerry Grimes, left, of East Texas Land Company, presents a Martin 30-30 rifle to Garnet Sheffield of Spang, who was the first place winner of The Tyler County Dogwood Festival Big Buck Contest this year. Second place winner was O.H. Miller who will receive a $50 gift certificate from Wal-Mart.

but I will defend to the death
your right to say it." -- Voltaire

Tyler County Viewpoint

What is your reaction to the New Woodville High School?

KUNYA BEAN
Co-Editor of the yearbook

I like the school. We don't run over each other in the wide halls.

CHRISTY DEAN
Flag Corps Member

I like the closed campus.
It keeps people out of the school. People who don't like a certain class can't leave.
The gym is gorgeous.

DON FREEMAN
President of the Junior Class

There are more confining rules than at Kirby High. We don't have as much freedom.
The building's fine and the atmosphere is good. You can concentrate better because there are fewer distractions.

KRISTE BROUSSARD
Vice-President of the Student Body

It's one of the best facilities around. I especially like the gym, but I wish the administration would listen more to Student Council's suggestions.

CHARLOTTE BEAN
Sophomore Class Secretary

I like the school. The facilities are good, but it's more different than I expected.
It's too cold in the building.

TODD STAFFORD
Junior Class Representative
To Student Council

The chemistry lab is great.
I like the building, but think we ought to be able to go out to our cars at lunch. We don't get enough food in the cafeteria.
I'd like to change to second period lunch, because I don't get to see enough girls in first lunch.

AUSTIN — One of the fellow Republicans last week warned Gov.
Bill Clements to keep a "strong nosecount" of votes in the Legislature before calling his promised special session on wifetapping, initiative and referendum and any other issues.
Houston State Rep. Chas. Undermyer said his recent poll of the conservative district showed overwhelming public apathy on the governor's targeted issues.
Undermyer is the first Republican to publicly caution Clements, who has repeated his promise to call a lawmakers' back to Austin in either March or September.
Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and House
Speaker Bill Clayton have also publicly warned Clements there is no strong backing in the Legislature to spend extra tax dollars with a special session.
Clements has called tax reform,

Workshop To Open June 1

Citizens of Tyler County are gearing up for the opening of a new Sheltered Workshop for the mentally retarded scheduled for June 1-1980.
The workshop will be the latest addition to a 13-county network of care facilities for the mentally retarded, established by Deep East Texas Regional Mental Health Mental Retardation Services (MHMR), headquartered in Lufkin.

"We are now in the process of taking applications for the positions of director and trainer," announced Larry Heaton, director of Adult Programs for the Mentally Retarded at MHMR.
"Because of the tremendous local support for the Tyler County Mentally and Physically Handicapped Association, we are in an excellent position to open the workshop in June," he said.

The association, headed by president Maxie Riley, has found a building to house the workshop. It is the old JEW. Building, donated by the Post located in the southeast section of Woodville, one block east of Highway 69.

Those wishing to attend the new workshop should contact the central office of MHMR in Lufkin, 634-8241.

Jordan Heads Appraisal Group

Henry Joe Jordan was elected president of the new Tyler County Appraisal Board at the first meeting of the group January 7 in the Commissioner's Courtroom at the Tyler County Courthouse. Grady Holderman is vice president and Val Blanchette is secretary.
Meeting dates were set for the first Monday of each month at 3 p.m.
in the Commissioner's Courtroom.
It was noted at the meeting that a vendor's identification number had been applied for and would take about 14 days to acquire. This identification is required before the board may hire personnel or apply for state funds.
Kenneth Graber of the State Property Tax Board was contacted by Jordan prior to the meeting and said that there would be information pertaining to the implementation schedule available by the next meeting.
The board has decided to take bids from area banks before choosing a depository for funds.

The highlight of Clay, Allison, Morse, Stuart's sophomore, fering space for original work. If you would like the 1980 school year, of course, the construction of a new high school. The school is certainly one of the finest facilities in the area and looks forward to serving area students for years to come.

Even though most students used their holidays for relaxation, there were two groups of athletes who continued their basketball training. Under the direction of Gerald Babineaux, the varsity basketball team has won eleven games straight with only two losses. The varsity team is comprised of Ricky Barlow, Kelvin Brazil, Kyle Brazil, Tony Dill, Jimmy Jackson, Michael McKinley, Crockett Whitmore and Billy Widner.

The boys' team isn't the only group with a winning record. The girls' basketball team also has a winning record of five wins with only one loss. This record excludes tournaments. The team coaches, Kristie Broussard, Shelley Cooley, Mary Gressler, Karen Hankins, Valerie Jackson, Allison Morse, Becky Sherrod, Connie Smith and Belva Abram.

Some students are now preparing for the U.I.L. one-act play competition to be held in March. This year's play is "Ghosts" by Henrik Ibsen called Pier Gyn. Pier Gyn is based on a Norwegian folk tale. Acting in the play are Wanda Alegre, Karla Broussard, Xan Collins, Cindy Coplen, Carrie Gallier, Randy Harrison, Yala Kirkland, Steve Mines, Pam Morrell, Rene Primm, Lezha Rose, Wayne Rose, Beth Seaford, and Karla Weeks. Stage manager is Kanya Bean. The play is under the direction of Margaret Stuart.

Two sophomore English classes recently elected eight representatives to set as editors of a sophomore literary magazine. The editors are: Martha Hanna, Lila Kirkland, Julie Krause, Shelle Melvin, Jackie Pickett, Ty Phillips, Becky Sherrod and Karl Weeks. Assisting with illustrations and typing are Rhonda

Before yielding to the lure of the wood-burning stove, consider a few factors:

Consider cost of wood vs. cost of gas or electricity. Wood must be free or inexpensive to make the most of a wood-burning stove.

Avoid fire hazards through proper installation and use.

Be sure the stove is made of sturdy material such as cast iron or steel. Look for stoves listed by Underwriters' Laboratory (UL) or other recognized testing laboratories.

Check the stove for cracks or other defects.

Install the stove to comply with local fire and building codes.

Select a corrosion-resistant steel stove pipe of suitable gauge.

Install dampers according to manufacturer's directions.

Stove seasoned at least six months.

Wood, preferably hardwood.

Educational programs, conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, or national origin.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
BROCCOLI FRITTATA
2 1/2 cups finely chopped onion
2 teaspoons butter or margarine
1 package (10 ounces) frozen chopped broccoli, cooked and drained
1/2 small clove garlic, crushed (optional)
1 cup cooked rice
2 1/4 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1/4 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt, dash of pepper
1/4 cup shredded Mozarella cheese
Sauté onion in butter until tender but not brown. Add broccoli, garlic, rice, and Parmesan cheese; mix well. Combine eggs, milk, and seasonings. Stir into rice mixture. Turn into a well-buttered shallow 1-quart casserole. Top with Mozzarella cheese. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes or until set. Makes 2 servings.

Fashions To ## Change Slowly

Watergate, among other effects it had on the nation, sent skirts' lengths plunging.

Fashion designers were craving to force "mini-skirt" lengths on women before Watergate and couldn't give them away," said Judy Campbell of Texas Christian University's home economics department. She studies fashion trends and teaches a "clothing in society" course. After Watergate all kinds of below-knee lengths were in.

As for the coming decade, she predicted that people will move cautiously toward buying "flares" will hold off buying as much because clothing dollars, like other dollars, are short. Fashion may not change as fast as in other periods, but just because people don't buy as many new clothes does not mean that looks won't change. They can change the looks of clothes already in the closet. And they will.

Ms. Campbell enumerated influences on fashion in the '70s other than Watergate. She mentioned the Bicentennial, hot pants, leisure suits, pantsuits and movies such as "The Great Gatsby" and "Annie Hall."

Ramblin' Round Rockland

by Aloha Freeland

Hello, in a brand new decade, from Mrs. Bloore Wilkins and Bobby Mitchell, enjoyed a visit from their sister, Mrs. Pauline Lyons, and other relatives of the home of Inez Brown over the holidays. Included Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown, Gary and Glenn and wife of Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Murphy and Denise of Lumberton; Mr. and Mrs. William Dean and Sandra; Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Dean and children, Paul and Martin; and Mrs. Eddie DuBoise and children of Kountze. Recent holiday visitors with Mrs. W.C. Lilly were Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Dickerson, Kim of Nederland, Jerry Cook and Glenn Bennett of Huntsville. Dr. Joe Dickerson of Jasper, Mrs. Clara Cockburn and son, John, and daughter, Wendy, of Woodville and Ben and Mary Lou Stewart, Coleman and Dorothy Bennett of Rocky Springs. Our belated congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Allen on their 50th wedding anniversary on Dec. 16. On this happy occasion with a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ben Allen in Silsbee. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Greenwood, Sr. were Anderson Green of Houston and Mrs. Irene and a worldly rock and daughter, Brenda of Dayton. Mr. and Mrs. L.D. Brooks, Wade and Charlie Weeks joined other relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alton McAllister in Woodville for a New Year's dinner on Dec. 30th. We were happy to have James and Mattie Pace of Huntsville return to Rockland last Thursday for a day's visit with friends. Our community was saddened - New Year's Day to learn of the death of one of our former residents, L.A. McLanathan, a Christian University's Silsbee. Among those from here attending funeral services last Thursday were members of Rockland Masonic Lodge who had charge of the Masonic part of the service. As a result of the situation there are feelings of nationalism, patriotism and unity that have not been seen in this country since World War II. # Major Campaign Issues Develop

PORT WORTH - While acknowledging that the crises in Iran may overshadow everything else, a Texas Christian University political science professor predicted that the two biggest issues of the upcoming presidential campaign will be passage of the SALT II treaty and the economy.

Dr. Eugene J. Albert said the treaty is probably the biggest foreign policy issue of the Carter presidency. "At the present time, it has not been established whether the treaty will pass or fail in the Senate," Dr. Albert explained. "And I believe the Senate's ultimate action will be the biggest foreign affairs issue of the campaign," he said.

"The other big issue is the economy," he said, "and that is one of the major reasons Kennedy decided to challenge President Carter in the Democratic nomination. 'If there is one

Branch Named Chairman

Herb Branch of Doucette has been selected to serve as chairman of the Texas Forestry Association's Woodland Trails Committee for the upcoming year, according to Oliver Bass, TFA president.

Branch, of International Paper Company, will head the committee which is responsible for promoting and developing existing and future trails; encouraging use of trails and impressing users with the compatibility of forest management and recreation; and promoting the standardization of the trails and keeping the trails as an asset to the industry and TFA by encouraging proper maintenance.

Iran Reaction Shows Maturity

PORT WORTH - The majority of Americans are showing a national sense of maturity in the face of the Iranian crisis, said Texas L.A. McLanathan, a Christian University's Silsbee. Among those from here attending funeral services last Thursday were members of Rockland Masonic Lodge who had charge of the Masonic part of the service. As a result of the situation there are feelings of nationalism, patriotism and unity that have not been seen in this country since World War II. # Hillister Happenings

by Mrs. W.G. Haynes

Mrs. Elmer Read was happy to have her daughter Evelyn, with her husband, Orlando Lockett, and children Amy, Anne, and Bill of Anchorage, Alaska, come home for the holidays. Others who gathered for Christmas celebration were James and Jett Read with Jimmy of Kountze, Paul and Mary Lou, Mark and Laura, David and Alice Read, Bruce, Roger and Ellen all of Houston, Peggy and Hugh Phillips, Matthew and Rachel of Atlanta, Dr. Will and Vanda Hickman, Kellie, Melissa, Elizabeth and David of Tyler, Hamilton and Beth of Cowart, Jennifer, Brad and Sara of Dallas, Ben and Shiree Read, Candace, Billie, Wade and Terry of Warren, Susan and Richard of Longview and Lisa of Houston. This was a happy time for the family but with a sad note, the grandmother Mrs. Lou Read who is very ill was missed so much.

Those here for Christmas day in the Yvonne Shumail home were Will and Beadle Holt, Fred and Delores of Kountze, Leroy and Nita Holt with Lisa of Port Arthur, Crockett and Maye Satterwhite of Center, Leon and Harriet Lassiter of White Oak, Irbay and Hazel Robinson of Gladewater, Tom and Marianne Gardner, Thomas and Laura of Livingston, Jill and Marie Meahan, Michael and Eric of Port Arthur, George and Betty Haynes of Jasper, David and Vickie DeRamus of Lumberton, also Jimmie and Jo DeRamus, and Mark and Howard Anderson of Houston. Others who gathered for the holidays were Mrs. J. W. DeRamus with Del Ann of Pitkin, La. were here Thursday visiting in the J.W. DeRamus home. Kenneth and Jamie Walker with Billie and Becky enjoyed Christmas day with his parents Mr. and Mrs. E.B. Walker in Chester. They also visited Mrs. J.W. DeRamus and Rita of Troy, Ala.

Here on Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Collier were Buckey and Carolyn Dean and Stacey of Mont Belvieu, Harold and Annie Elischer with Jo Ann of Huntsville, Bob and Janie Boykin, Leslie and Grace Noel of Woodville, Floyd and Martha Idom of Humble, 1973 and holder of the Ph.D. degree from Indiana University. Mrs. Lillie Arnett, Ervin of Lufkin and Mrs. Oma Fischer of Austin.

Mrs. Florine Isaacs of Dallas were here Friday visiting. Mrs. Lee Norton, are using energy of all kinds at an increasing rate, and, third, the poor nations are falling further and further behind the rich in access to scarce energy resources," he explained.

Future Energy Conflicts Seen

PORT WORTH - by limiting their consumption of energy, "rich societies" can fulfill their moral obligation to help the poor of the world and to help these people gain access to scarce energy supplies.

"This is the opinion of Dr. Michael Dodson, chairman of the political science department at Texas Christian University. "All key decisions about energy usage are political, but, as recently made, these decisions are not democratic," he added.

According to Dr. Dodson, whose specialty is Third World politics, the old medieval axiom of "what touches all" is not at work in the United States today as far as energy usage is concerned. "Nor is it even remotely at work in the world at large," he explained.

"The current era is characterized by three conflicting trends: resistance to energy conservation, believes Dodson, member of TCU's faculty since 1973 and holder of the Ph.D. degree from Indiana University. "First, conventional energy supplies are decreasing and becoming more expensive," he said.

"Second, rich nations are using energy of all kinds at an increasing rate, and, third, the poor nations are falling further and further behind the rich in access to scarce energy resources," he explained.
