FEATHERED FRIENDS...Mrs. Tom (Lela) Kent of Ivanhoe introduced the staff of The Tyler County Booster to two of her new-found feathered friends she calls 'Jack and Jill'. The 4-week old cardinals were given to Mrs. Kent for safekeeping as she has a reputation for good care for pets of all types which comes from her being a teacher for some 27 years. Mrs. Kent said her elementary school kids would bring all kinds of birds, and other animals to class and she would end-up raring for them. (See related photo and caption on Page 4-B).

JACK AND JILL...AND LELA...Mrs. Tom (Lela) Kent of Ivanhoe shows off her 4-week old cardinals Monday that friend Joe Cash turned up with for her to take care of. Mrs. Kent, a teacher for some 27 years said she'd always wanted a redbird, especially since her kids at school would bring her pets, salamanders, frogs, birds and snakes. "I'd care for them all." "Soon as these two birds can fly I'll let them go", Mrs. Kent said, indicating that now they're living on bread, milk and sunflower seed.
