on and on, but more important to most of our oustomers is the question of whether we're doing a good job in trying to hold down the cost of scruice in an era of rapid inflation and rising costs? Ratepayers Benefit Directly

From Productivity Increase Probably the best indicator is productivity. And the productivity of Southwestern Bell's Texas opera tions has exceeded that of private industry throughout the nation by a large margin over the past five years. Our company has averaged 3 per-cent annually in Texas, compared to the national productivity growth of 0.2 percent (two tenths of one percent) for the same period. This outstanding productivity performance has helped significant ly in holding down costs for Texas telephone ratepayers. School Days Bring Need For Extra-Special Caution Speaking of comments, I appro clate those in response to my first column. Some of my friends around town have been kidding me about saying, "Let's talk," then suggesting you drop me a note instead of calling. But there's a simple explana tion. I spend most of my working day trying to visit as many customers as possible in the area. Since I'm not in the office much. ask you to drop me a note that I car read on the road or at home. Then I can get back to you, already prepared to answer your questions, at the earliest possible time. Here's a safety reminder: With school beginning, it's more important than ever that all of us exercise extreme caution when driving, espe cially in school zones and on the highways when school buses are picking up or dropping off children.

Remember, If, you have some-thing to talk about don't hesitale to ,drop me a line. Here's my address: Mr. Gene Thacker
