The GOLDEN YEARS

When the Subcommittee on Aging of the U.S. Senate's Labor and Human Resources Committee held public hearings, they called on two expert witnesses. Ruth Clark, 97, of Warwick, Rhode Island told them her prescription for a long life has been "plenty of laughs and many interests" including oceanography, music, baseball and travel. She hitchhiked through Vermont in her 70's and went to Europe in her 80's. Rosina Corrothers-Rucker of Washington, DC, aged 102, told the subcommittee that she attributes her long life to the deep faith she's had in God since childhood.

Looking as elegant and glamorous as ever, Myrna Loy, who starred as Nora Charles in popular "Thin Man" movies, was treated to a star-studded tribute at age 79, in New York's Carnegie Hall, by the Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences.

Remember When? 1924 - After a series of price decreases, the price of Ford automobiles hit its lowest point in history - $290 without a self-starter. The price of the original 1909 Model T had been $950.

SAFETY ON THE JOB

Asbestos In The Workplace
Every day many American workers are exposed to asbestos. You are especially likely to face potential exposures if you work in one of the following industries:

Some asbestos fibers are so small, they are invisible.

- New or old plants of construction and building trades including shipbuilding.
- Manufacturing and maintenance of asbestos products such as pipes, insulation, and asbestos-cement products.
- Landfill sites.
- Asbestos abatement work.

SMOKING - WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

Smoking is the Number One cause of cancer and the leading preventable cause of death.

Smoking causes lung cancer, heart disease, and emphysema. It also causes complications during pregnancy and can harm your baby.

Smoking is also a major cause of blindness, kidney failure, and other serious health problems. Quitting now can greatly reduce these risks.

The requirements call for members to complete a minimum of 150 hours of accredited continuing medical study

Lift Up Your Eyes!

Devotional Thoughts For Each Day

By Sarah Smith

WEDNESDAY, Psalm 63:7. "Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

When we realize that God helps us every time we look to Him for aid, there is rejoicing.

With our eyes on Jesus, we are strong. But who do not, like Simon Peter, looked fearfully around to see the storm instead of the Shelter?

"But when he saw the wind bolterous, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me."

"And immediately Jesus reached forth his hand and caught him and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?" (Matthew 14:30-31)

Jesus longs to give us the shelter of His wings, just as He did when he cried out sorrowfully to the people of His day:

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem... how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!" (Matthew 23:37)

THURSDAY, Mark 5:19. "Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee."

Do you want to tell others about Jesus? Has He done for you what no other could do? Then follow the instructions given to the man in this scripture for today. (Read the whole story in Mark, Chapter 5, and in Luke 8:26-40.) And remember:

"If you cannot sing like Paul, if you cannot preach like Paul, if you cannot tell the love of Jesus; if you can tell He died for all!" (From an old hymn by Daniel March)

FRIDAY, Luke 24:25. "Where is your faith?" This question was asked of me on one of the darkest days of my life.

When my father passed away, some friends of mine brought a plenary for me to join the rest of my family as soon as possible. I was terrified at the thought of flying partly because it was my first flight and partly because of the unsettling feelings I was having in connection with Daddy's death. One of my friends herself an unbeliever, asked me this very question: "Where is your faith?" I was a little reluctant to say:

"I am happy to say that an hour or so later, I was still in flight. I received my faith in God by remembering His words spoken many centuries ago, but just as if to me at that moment:

"The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms." (Daniel 10:22)

It was then that I was able to look out the window at God's magnificent starry night and know that all was well.

SATURDAY, Matthew 6:26. "Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?" And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin. And yet I say unto you, That every acid thing which they have, God doth so clothe them. Addeth he unto them? Or doth he say unto them, 'But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.' (Matthew 6:28-33)

SUNDAY. "Overheard in an orchard: Said the robin to the sparrow, 'I should really like to know why these anxious human beings rush around and worry so.'"

"Said the sparrow to the robin, 'I think that it must be that they have no Heavenly Father such as cares for you and me.'"

(Author Unknown)

"But my God shall supply all your needs according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:19)

MONDAY, 1 Peter 5:10. "But the God of all grace, who has called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, and settle you."

"But the righteous suffer? I do not know." But I cannot believe that God causes suffering. I think we must lay the blame for that on the enemy. — And God, the "Stronger Man" will not allow Satan to spoil his "house." God is able to take anything that Satan hurls at us and work it to the good of those who love the Lord. (Romans 8:28)

God, then, can use even suffering to make us stronger and more mature in our Christian faith.

It takes the pressure of the ages to make a diamond out of a lump of coal.

"This scripture is from Ephesians 5:20: 'Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.'"

TUESDAY, Philippians 4:8. "Whatever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, let your mind be fix on these things." This scripture could be called God's recipe for good mental health. God will fill every part of our heart and mind with His love, and we will be able to open up to Him. When we have a good thought, it is time to ask the Holy Spirit to take the thought away and fill that portion of our mind with His thoughts and cleanings.

VA will become the kind of person our thoughts cause us to be. The next time you think in his heart, it will be in his image. (Proverbs 23:7)
