The 44th Annual Tyler County Dogwood Festival is just a few days away and all over Tyler County the festival organizers, committees, and participants are busy finalizing plans. Again this year the Festival brings with it a special shopping opportunity. The Big Thicket Arts and Crafts Fair sponsored by the Woodville Business And Professional Women's Club. It will be held in the parking lots of both Citizen's State Bank locations. Booths will be open most of the day and will offer a variety of crafts and merchandise. Don't miss it. You also won't want to miss the opportunity to shop Tyler County for special high quality festival keepsakes. In previewing this opportunity we've found dogwood items made from everything from fine porcelain to cookie dough.

IN CHINA AND PEWTER- If you fancy dogwoods, drop by Sullivan's, 211 West Bluff, and ask Vi or Sally to show you the dogwood glassware, just in. There are three items; all are made from clear crystal and all are adorned with a delicate dogwood and butterfly-

The pedestal cake plate has a clear dass cover and makes a special gift. The egg and relish plate has an additional bowl for dig. The round serving platter is 13 inches in diameter. It is versatile and is also an ideal gift item. Sullivan's also stocks pewter specialty Items with a dogwood motif. Some are made from pewter, some from pewter and brass, and some from pewter and other metals. All of the items, however, are handcrafted and made in America. Select from economically priced tins, napkin rings, bookmarkers, book ends, paperweights, or candle holders.

IN CHINA AND PORCELAIN Dogwood collectors will be impressed by the selection at Warfield's Gifts, 210 W. Bluff.

Owner Vicki Warfield carries high quality items including porcelain collectors plates. made by Kalser porcelain of West Germany, the oldest and most well known company of its type in the world. The plates are nine inches in diameter and feature a very lovely Candle holders and a round vase, also by Kaiser, are a must for dogwood collectors. There are several items by Lefton China ncluding handpainted picture frames, bud vases, mugs, bells, and pin baskets. Some carry white blooms; others, pink, Vicki completes her dogwood selection with

IN FABRIC- Once again this year the Tyler County Chamber of Commerce is selling caps to commerate the Tyler County Dogwood Festival. The caps are green and decorated with white dogwood blossoms (in puff paint). They are available at the Chamber office in the Woodville Inn, and from Chamber

A great way to top off a great event!

IN JEWELRY- One of the best ways to enjoy dogwoods all year long is through jewelry. J. B. Best and Company presently has Dogwood ear-rings in stock. They are clip-ons and feature white logwoods in enamel over a gold background.

FROM THE KITCHEN: Are dogwoods edible? You bet they are. At least the blooms from Edna Collier's kitchen are edible, that is. Edna offers all kinds of baked goods including cakes and cookies. At this time of year she decorates most with sugar dogwoods she makes herself. The blooms are as authentic as possible and include accents in the center and on the tops of each petal. On cakes she arranges them in a spray.

Edna bakes by special order only. Cakes must have buttercream frosting in order to be decorated with these unique dogwoods.

lt's Dogwood Time in Tyler County and that means extra company for many of us. Again using your favorite low-calorie chicken, you may stretch your food dollars while serving company appealing meals. The following recipes are from Betty Crocker's Great Ways With Chicken & Turkey. BAKED CHICKEN AND VEGETABLES

A whiff of tarragon mingled with fresh vegetable flavors lend elegance to this low-calorie dish. 6 small chicken breast halves (about 2 pounds)

½ teaspoon paprika 6 small zucchini, cut lengthwise into halves, then into 2-inch pieces

4 medium carrots, cut into 1/4-inch slices 4 ounces small mushrooms

i cup margarine or butter, melted tablespoon lemon juice l teaspoon dried tarragon leaves 1/2 teaspoon salt

1/8 teaspoon pepper
Remove skin from chicken breasts. Place chicken, meaty sides up, in ungreased rectangular baking dish, 13x9x2 inches; sprinkle with paprika. Place zucchini, carrots and mushrooms around and over chicken. Mix remaining ingredients; drizzle over chicken and vegetables. Cover and bake in 350 degree oven until chicken is done, 50 to 60 minutes.

6 servings. Excellent with rice!

IMPOSSIBLE CHICKEN PIE

While baking, this easy main-dish pie does the impossible by making its own crust. Delicious for brunch. 2 cups cut-up cooked chicken or turkey 1 iar (41/2 ounces) sliced mushrooms, drained

4 green onions (with tops), sliced 1/2 teaspoon salt I cup shredded natural Swiss cheese (4 ounces)

11/2 cups milk

1/4 cup buttermilk baking mix Lightly grease pie plate, 10x11/2 inches. Sprinkle chicken, mushrooms, onions, salt and cheese in pie plate. Beat remaining ingredients until smooth, 15 seconds in blender on high or 1 minute with hand beater. Pour into pie plate. Bake uncovered in 400 degree oven until golden brown and knife inserted in center come out clean, 30 to 35 minutes. Let stand 5 minutes before cutting.

Try serving this delicious chicken pie with a green salad or green vegetable.

For a special but easy treat for your guests try: PINEAPPLE PECAN PIE

1 cup pecans
1 cup Sweetened Condensed milk Juice of 1 lemon 1-13½ oz. can crushed pineappl 1 large container Cool Whip

2 graham cracker crusts Mix ingredients and fold in Cool Whip. Makes 2 pies!

Have a good week and join us next week for some unusual vegetable dishes

This includes spectators and participants of the parade.

In regard to the incident concerning the sless in the Western Weekend Parade, I do not know a factor authorized the riders to precede the American Flag. I have had the honor of carrying dile of the flags at the head of the parade, both in Western Weekend and/or Dogwood Festival Parades for 35 plus years. In all those years there has never been a need for a color guard. It has always been my understanding that nothing was to precede the American Flag in an occasion such as this? Whoever authorized the riders to precede the American Flag did this in good faith but did so without doing his homework as to the courfestes that are extended to this symbol of our great nation. Perhaps we should all familiarize ourselves with the respect that should be shown to our
