Sunny Dell News

I don't know what you get I am glad the holidays are over. Never did seem like Christmas to me at all because I never did get the spirit for some reason. It only came to me to fall a week behind.

Last year I was talking to Audrey Minyard and she told me that they had a smokehouse and I let her know that I wanted to try smoking some sausages this year. Sure enough she called me that they were smoking and I ran to the store and bought eight pounds of roll sausage and carried them over there and we re-stuffed them. Or I should of said Howard and Audrey did. We hung them up in the smokehouse and put the oak and hickory wood under them. After three days I went and picked them up and when I fried them they tasted almost like the ones we use to make. I have just got to build me a smoke house in the near future. There are lots of sausage you can buy in the store but none will ever taste as good as a smokehouse sausage that you make yourself.

Howard and Audrey Fowler lives on highway 62 and have a beautiful place with lots of tall trees and a deep water well. Audrey goes barefooted like she used to and said Howard would not buy her a pair of shoes. However, I was over there after the holidays and he had bought her a pair to wear until summer. I like to go barefooted myself as much as I can. However, I'm thinking it will be cold up into late spring this year and will have to wear my shoes a little longer this year. When we were all kids going barefooted our feet were tuff but not tuff enough to keep splinters out. If you can go barefooted do so as it will do you proud every time.

TO THE CITIZENS OF TYLER COUNTY:

Since announcing my intentions to become a candidate for the judge-ship of Tyler County, the response from so many people has been most gratifying. I am deeply grateful.

It is my desire to see every voter in the County as time allows. If I fail to see anyone personally, I will still appreciate your support.

I feel that I have deep roots in Tyler County. With my family I have made my home here for the past seven (7) years. My wife, Marilyn, has served as a school nurse in Chester, Colmesneil and Spurger, and my daughters, Stacy and Sharla, attend the Woodville schools. My father, Rev. J. P. Owens, was born in Tyler County in the Mt. Carmel community and has resided here since 1964. He will, in all probability, spend his remaining life in the County.

Since I am an attorney and have been appointed by Governor Clements as a Special County Judge, I believe that I am qualified by training and experience to execute the duties of the office of County Judge. I will be a full-time Judge and will not allow my personal business to encroach upon the responsibilities of the office. If I did not have the time and the qualifications to perform all duties incumbent on the office, I would not seek the vote and support of the people in Tyler County.

Respectfully,

'A LITTLE LIGHT PLEASE'
By Sue Hendrick
"Never Assume Anything!"
It's amazing how different the world look when it is coated with snow and ice. In many ways it can be a beautiful sight. The once winter-bare arms of the trees become graceful crystalline sculptures. But, the lovely evergreen trees begin to sag and droop from the weight of the clinging ice. Looking at these trees reminds us of a gloomy figure that appears to be in mourning.
When the land around us becomes an icy wonderland, we begin to hear news broadcasts about the loss of power in some homes. Heating fires that get out of control and burn some houses to the ground, and still other stories about the people of the street that have no home at all. I heard a story recently, of one family that went without power for twelve hours on a very cold night.
It seems that at the time their electricity went off, they had been watching a news broadcast about all of the power lines that were down, due to the extreme weather conditions. When the lights went out suddenly, they simply assumed that everyone in the neighborhood was having the same difficulty. Feeling that someone else would call and report the difficulty, they began to make preparations that would take care of them during the cold night ahead.

When they awoke the next morning, they found that they were still without electricity. Still feeling that the utility company had been notified, they placed a call just to check on the progress of the power line repair. What a surprise that call was! It seems that no one had called to report any difficulty. Everyone in the neighborhood had assumed that someone else would make the call!
When I heard this story, I began to think about the Christian message. What if, for the past 2,000 years, everyone assumed that someone else would proclaim the Gospel of the Lord? What if, every person that claims to be a Christian today is assuming that someone else will carry the message to the world and insure the faith of tomorrow? I'm just thinking about such an assumption, we can only conclude with some pretty frightening thoughts. If any one of us afford to make such an assumption? I can only decide for myself the rest is up to you. Thinking otherwise, would only be an assumption.
