Brookshire Bros. Will Build New 35,000 Sq. Ft. Store On Hwy 69 S.

Brookshire Brothers Foodstore Executives in Lufkin confirmed this week the pending construction of a major 35,000 square foot replacement unit. The store will be constructed on some five acres on the West side of Hwy 69 and just north of Little Turkey Creek.

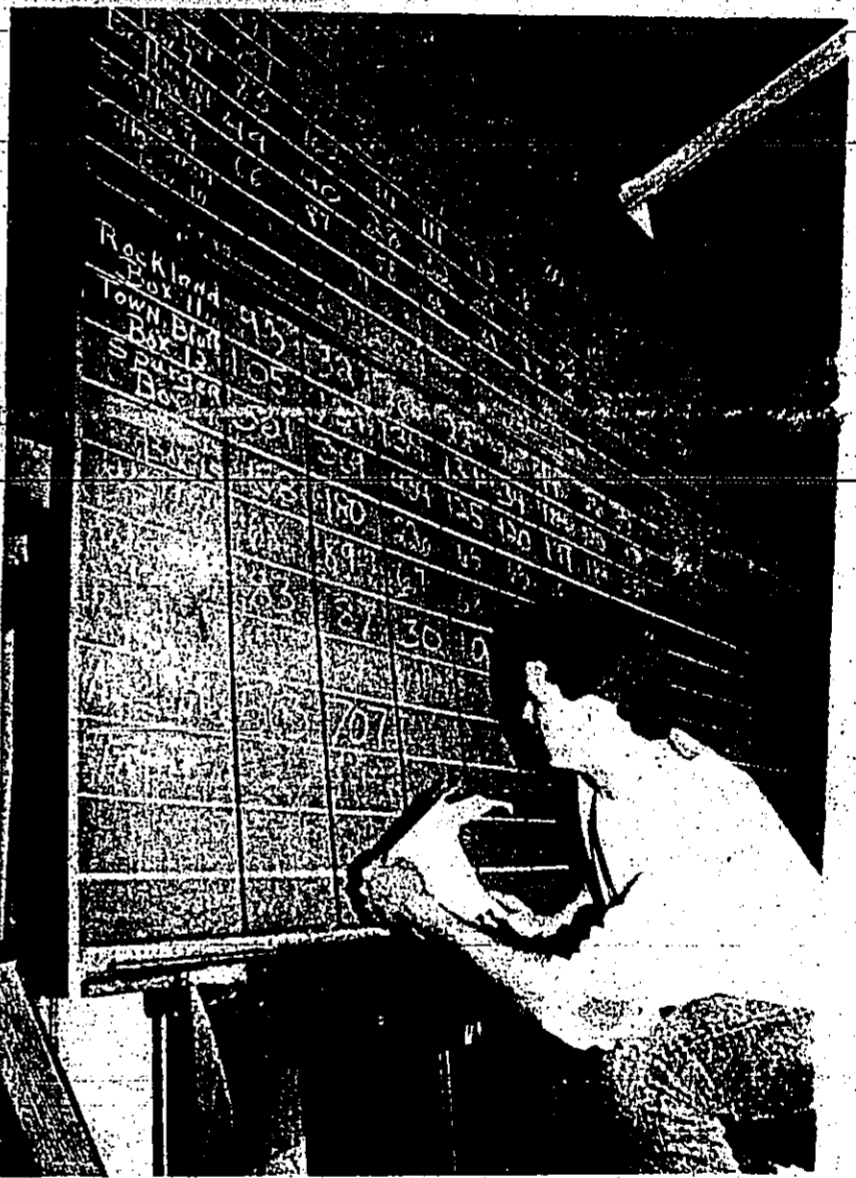

According to Brookshire Brothers Retail Operations Executive Ray Campbell "The store will offer a bigger selection, better variety and will probably offer a deli and other new departmental features. We will have a general expanded non-food selection he added. Campbell said he expected construction to begin in late fall 1988 and the new store will rectify access and egress problems currently experienced at the present store location.

R. H. Duncan of Lufkin is brokering the land and will be constructing the new store facility Campbell said.

"Woodville and the citizens of Tyler County have been good to us," Campbell said that's why we're expanding from our present 25,000 square foot location.

Campbell said the company was currently in the process of, or are in construction phases of new or remodeled units in Alvin, Lufkin and Jacksonville and will build a replacement unit in Cleveland.

Company officials indicated that the expansion wasn't necessarily due to the future expected growth impacts of the Texas Department of Corrections prison which will locate a 1,000 man prison here. "Just the natural growth of the City."

City Discusses Streets, Prison Schedules

Following a Special called meeting Monday with the City of Woodville Legal advisor and it's Financial Consultant City Fathers heard a passionate two-fold request from Woodville Howard Peacock asking that the city stop plans to levy a tax on the people of Woodville in order to build a prison system here. Peacock also leveled blows at the local media "which," he said, "presume to act for the citizens and Tyler County and their elected officials in the Chamber of Commerce promotion of a prison here." Peacock challenged the media's use of the word "requirement" in describing the action the Chamber and the City would have to take in implementing a prison here. Peacock took particular issue with the "Lumping together" of the street and prison proposals when the issue was first brought before council.

Peacock asked specifically, "That the City Council assure the taxpayers of Woodville that no taxes will be levied in any manner or form to pay for the costs of a prison being built here." Peacock then asked that the Council institute a quarterly Town Forum which he asked be held just before the regular monthly meeting that month, "in the old fashioned traditions of American democracy."

The Council expressed appreciation for Peacock's views on the subject. Peacock had told the council earlier that he would leave Woodville if a prison was to come here, but that he was "only shopping" now. Councilman Doug Tolbert assured Peacock, "We want you to stay."

Woodville I.S.D. School Service League To Meet March 21

An art appreciation project currently being implemented in grades K-2 will be the focus of the next meeting of the Woodville Schools Service League on March 21.

The 7 p.m. meeting will be conducted in the library of the Woodville High School, and is open to parents of all Woodville School Students.

Featured speakers for the evening will be Mrs. Lawilda Chapman, elementary school principal, and Mrs. Sherry Kenner, elementary school supervisor. They will present a video tape program concerning the thrust of the new art project which will draw upon explanations and demonstrations offered by art teachers, parent volunteers, and children in the classroom.

Mrs. Kenner said the objective of the new project is to provide enrichment to student appreciation and understanding of the arts through introduction to great works by visual arts masters.

School Election Board 'Great'

ELECTION LABORATORY-Mark Easterly is shown posting primary election vote totals on March 8. He is a student in Becky Jirnette's Government Class at Woodville High School.

Prison Site Clearing Underway

LOGGERS, BACKHOES AT WORK Land clearing and site preparation is underway at Woodville I.D.C. Prison Unit Site. Monday some 35 to 50 acres had been under cut with some burning begun. Officials say there still quite a bit to go.

Volunteer Need 'Real' At Village.

If the more than 100 visitors, who toured Heritage Village this past weekend are any indication of things to come, the need for more man, women and children to become voluntary Village Docents is very real indeed.

On Tuesday afternoon, the Tyler County Retired Teachers met at the Woodville United Methodist Church at 8:00 a.m., March 17, 1988.

The group will go to Orange, Texas to tour The Stark Museum of Art in the morning.

After lunch they will go to The McFaddin-Ward House in Beaumont.

Those with reservations are urged to arrive before 8:30.

at the monthly Docent Meeting at The Village, those already involved in this endeavor and interested friends, heard from Vivian Cruse Jordan, who will be one of the hostesses for a field trip to the Spurger area this Saturday.

Mrs. Jordan, a Woodville native and great granddaughter of Squire and Plety Cruse, who came to Tyler County from Tennessee in 1833, compiled and edited the Beech Creek Home Demonstration Club's history of the Spurger area 1839-1976 as the club's Bicentennial Project. Her late husband, Bruce Jordan, was the grandson of James Finckey Jordan and Rebecca Ivey Collier, sister of Captain James G. Collier, who with other family members settled much of the Beech Creek and Spurger areas in 1831.

Those interested in joining the Docent tour on Saturday will meet at the Village at 9 a.m., or, if going direct, at the Beech Creek Baptist Church 10 miles East of Hilliter of FM 1013 at 9:30 a.m. This congregation was organized in 1855 by members of Captain Collier's 429-5285.

'Determined Aunt Polly Wins'

With three weeks to go before "Super Tuesday" voting, 84-year old Mrs. Polly Lawie Wigley, better known as Aunt Polly, of Woodville became seriously ill and was hospitalized in Beaumont's St. Elizabeths Hospital. Concerned about being able to exercise her right to vote, she involved relatives, doctors, and hospital staff to find a way for her to fill out a ballot.

Too late for mail-in, relatives learned of an "emergency ballot."

The application was secured from the Tyler County Clerk's office on Monday and taken to the Beaumont Hospital where Aunt Polly and doctors signed it. On Tuesday, a ballot was hand delivered to her hospital bed where she marked her choices. The ballot was then returned to Tyler County for counting.

Aunt Polly, a widow, mother of four, and a grandmother, has always believed "where there's a will, there's a way."

Sometimes it just gets a little more difficult. She has demonstrated this philosophy throughout her life in church activities, visiting friends and relatives, quilting, or helping her daughter at the Woodville Laundromat. And she loves to play a winning game of a will, there's a way.

As a third generation Tyler County native, she is proud of her heritage and her grandparents who helped to settle in the foreign land now known as East Texas. One exciting experience which happened recently was being interviewed by the Tyler County Heritage Society for their oral history resource library.

History is important to Aunt Polly and she believes in being an active part of it especially by exercising her right to vote.

TAX TIPS

INCOME TAX FACTS AND TIPS

The Internal Revenue Service expects to receive more incorrect and more incomplete tax returns for 1987 than ever before. The result will be more penalties, more correspondence, and more audits.

Why all the problems? A confusing tax code; look at these problems:

- Twenty-five different combinations for standard deduction for taxpayers 65 and older and/or blind.
- A standard deduction from $0 to $2540 for taxpayers under age 14.
- Five different kinds of interest (some fully deductible, some partially deductible, some not deductible at all) and some that is carried forward to next year.
- Confusing rules and a stiff penalty on late payments.
- For business and rental debt a new audit combination of "retirement" or "property" allocates debt.
- If you are not sure about your return, get it prepared by a professional. Bring it in as soon as you can. We will review it point out errors, no charge, unless you want us to make corrections.

"My eyes are in East Texas. I wanted my doctor here, too."

Gail Fenley

"When I got ready for cataract surgery, I turned to East Texas Eye Associates for several important reasons.
 "One, my eyes are in East Texas. I wanted my doctor here, too, where I could reach him easily.
 "Two, I wanted to make sure I'd get a local follow-up exam after my surgery.
 "Three, I liked the convenience of free transportation to and from the hospital and the doctor's office.
 "Four, I wanted medical experience. The ophthalmologists at ETEA represent more than 134 years of combined service in handling eye surgery, cataracts, glaucoma and other eye problems. At the time, East Texas Eye Associates has been in business here since 1959.
 "Five, I like the convenience of a toll-free telephone number, and a physician accessible by phone 24 hours a day."

Chamber Launches 'Together For Tyler County' Theme

The Tyler County Chamber of Commerce has announced its theme of work for the current year to be "Together for Tyler County." The first areas of emphasis will be threefold:

1. A membership drive to encourage all businesses in Tyler County and others interested in promoting the betterment of Tyler County to join the Chamber. Annual membership dues are $25.00 for an individual membership, and from $40.00 to $225.00 for businesses and/or corporate memberships, dependent on the number of employees reported by the business. Dues are the major source of income for the Chamber and are used to cover office expenses as well as to provide for Tyler County promotional items. Chairperson of the membership committee is Earlene Allison of Allison Chevrolet in Colmesneil.
2. A beautification campaign in cooperation with the communities of the county, coordinated by Dr. Larry Phillips of Dewberry Creek Animal Clinic, the Chamber of Commerce encourages all residents and businesses of the county to make a special effort to clean up and beautify their property this and Gil Tubbs month. The Tyler County Chamber of Commerce office is that more tourists and visitors come to Tyler County during the spring, a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday through Friday. Monthly meetings are scheduled every fourth Monday at this time, in order that 12 noon, and everyone visitors will want to return and encourage activities is welcome. In others to visit Tyler County, an effort will be made to recognize the 2632.

property owner, who displays the most improvement in the county, will receive the "Beautification Award."

3. A drive to encourage our citizens to shop first in Tyler County. "Together for Tyler County" remember our residents to county businesses before leaving the county to shop. By buying from the county businesses, citizens are in effect supporting themselves. Business generated in Tyler County promotes the employment of our people and increases sales tax revenues used to support city and county services, which hopefully benefit all our citizens. All county businesses are encouraged to use the Chamber and are used to encourage all of our citizens. "Together for Tyler County" advertising to remind folks to "Think Tyler County first."
