Sunny Dell News

I told you that it is going to be hot during the dog days and I think everyone agreed. You almost feel like sitting on a block of ice to cool off. Went over to Houston last Saturday to a clock and watch convention at the Inter-Continental Hotel which you would think would be close to the airport. But not so, it is located at 3150 Westheimer road or Street and some 25 stories tall. Directly across the street is the Galleria Shopping Center, which I have read and heard about. It is a large skating rink in the basement. Just behind the Galleria is a tall slender building that looks like it reaches half way to the moon. To me a very hard wind would snap it into 1 figure that the cement was mixed with Billums Creek water and if so, it will never give in to any high wind. It will take all of them. High buildings and shopping centers are all over Houston, and every big town like Los Angeles, New York, Chicago, Dallas and Algonquin, Ill.

I met a girl that sells clock parts at a show in Dallas and she was in Houston also. We became good friends and have lots of laughs. She lives up North in one of the North States on Poke and Plum Street. You pop your head out of the window and you're plumb out of town. She can't dance either because she also has two left feet. But she gets good gas mileage from her car, 28 miles per gallon, 14 getting and 14 coming back. Blue Moon of Kentucky. Wells to go.

Baby Dedication

A unique service took place at Rockland Baptist Church this past Sunday morning. At the regular morning worship service, the sanctuary was the scene of Rockland's first baby dedication under the direction of pastor, Rev. Don Hukabo. The ceremony was signed by the pastor and parents. A host of friends and relatives attended the service.

Each couple was given two moments of the occasion: a copy of the pledge, front, the parents and a certificate indicating that the child had been dedicated to the Lord. The documents were signed by the pastor and parents.

A host of friends and relatives attended the service.
