Discipline Complaints Aired

Parents of several Woodville Junior High athletes were at the Woodville ISD Board Meeting Tuesday, October 18, 1988, to voice their objections to the Discipline Policy being enforced in Jr. High football this year. According to Allan Bell, father of an 8th grade athlete, his son made a failing grade for the week in an academic class, and was told by the football coach that if he did not take a lick in athletics for the low grade he would not be able to play in any football games for the rest of the season. Bell felt that paddling a child would not help bring up his grades. He said, "It's the way you buy your way into football for a week." Charlotte Fox, another parent, said that her son was five points off on his conduct grade and had to take a lick to play football. Fox said that she wasn't against anyone taking licks but felt that the punishment should be given by the teacher of the class where the bad conduct took place and not by a coach. There was concern because some students were receiving double punishment, once from the teacher of the class where they made a low grade of misbehavior and again from the coach. According to Athletic Director Melvyn Houston, "We are talking about extra-curricular activities. A kid is there by choice and abides by the rules that are there. Kids have a choice...they don't have to be there. The rules were explained to the kids. They are not assigned to athletics...it was their choice. These are my rules...if they don't want to abide by them, they don't have to be in there." Principal Bob Borel, who supported Houston's policy said, "We do everything we can to see that we help these kids. We keep the parents informed by sending home disciplinary reports. If a kid behaves himself in class, what we are talking about tonight is a mute point. I feel like Melvyn set this policy to help the students in the classroom." After a lengthy discussion, Board President Tolbert said that the matter would be taken under consideration and any action, if taken, would be at a later date. Following the Board Meeting, several parents said they planned to go to the Texas Education Agency with the matter.

Grady Holderman, Maintenance Supervisor for the District, presented the Asbestos Management Plan Report. According to Holderman, "If you have to have asbestos, ours is the best kind to have. Where it is and the kind it is, we are going to be able to deal with it with a minimum amount of dollars." According to Holderman, the majority of the money to get rid of asbestos in the District would be spent training people and buying

Good Ol' Days Festival Soon

With less than 2 weeks to go, the largest, most entertaining festival in East Texas is now entering the final stage of preparation. Clubs, businesses, church and social organizations as well as artisans and crafters will provide the festival goer with an abundant choosing of Christmas gifts, foods and most anything a person could possibly want. Not only that but merchants all around Woodville will enable shoppers to save with fall sales at a most appropriate time of the year.

Friday, Nov. 4 remember life before TV changed the social pattern by participating in the box supper auction. Anyone not familiar with the old time box supper, here's how it works, ladies young and old fix up your most tempting recipes, portion enough for two, you and your high bidding gentleman, put the tasties in a box. Decorate the exterior of the box as enticingly as possible. (Important, you must keep your box out of view of your spouse, fiancé or other interested party, so they have to guess which belongs to you). Remember ladies the idea here is "They way to a man's heart is thru his stomach." Teens, what better way to get acquainted. Naturally men, high bidder gets the goods (isn't it always the case!). Annabeth Willis will be delighted to help on the details if you will call her at 283-7741 or 547-3648.

Saturday, Nov. 5 we now have 2 outside stages for entertainment, and entertainers not only from Tyler County but a "Fur Piece Down the Road" will be available to serenade you while at the Good Ol' Days. Plus, you'll want to participate in tech games and contests of a by gone era taking place in the street by the opera house. Crafters will be giving hands on demonstrations of all sorts of things grandma and grandpa used to do. And Saturday evening La Linda Dance Troup and a lot of your friends that should know better want you to join them for the Josey party and taffy pull. If you are bashful, Mr. Toby Spurlock will ease your fears by

Mr & Mrs Cleve Handley

On Saturday, October 1, 1988, Donna Bozha of Shiner and Cleve Handley of Colmesneer exchanged marriage vows at half past three in the afternoon in St. Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church in Shiner. Bishop Bernard J. Genter of Beaumont and Father Sean Donahue of Shiner officiated at the double ring ceremony. Greg Ticken was lector and Dean and Scott Meniar handed out wedding programs.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Bozha of Shiner and Mr. and Mrs. James Handley of Colmesneer.

The main altar held arrangements of peach gladiolus and white spider mums in tall crystal urns and the side altars held mixed arrangements of greenery. The altar area were flanked with ferns and white spiral candelabra holding white tapers and greenery. Pews were marked with white, aisle standards and glowing white tapers with greenery and the side altars held peach bows and silk flowers.

Mr. Dan Minear of Haltsville was organist and played a prelude of traditional wedding music. Rev. and Mrs. Tom Higgins of Gonzales were soloists and sang "Always", "Surround", "The Wedding Song", "God Bless Us", and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown by Demetrios for Illinois. The basque bodice, with intricate designs of bridal pearls and iridescent accents frosting the alencon lace, was enhanced with lace appliques adorned at the waistline with hanging teardrop pearls. The sweetheart neckline dipped to a deep V in the back and was edged in alencon lace and adorned with bridal pearls and sequins. Her long fitted sleeves were puffed at the shoulders and tapered to point over her hands. Lace insets and pearls enhanced the sleeves. The skirt was fitted and accented at the front with heavily beaded alencon lace pyramid falling to a beaded, scalloped lace hemline. Her train was a detachable, satin one edged in alencon hemline lace and beaded with pearls. A drape of pearl edging held her tiered pearl edged veil of silk illusion. The bride wore white satin shoes covered with lace and beaded with pearls and iridescent.

She wore her mother's pearl necklace and earrings and carried a cascade bouquet of summer star orchids, roses, tube roses and naphys leaves accented with pearls and picot ribbon. The bouquet also held the bride's maternal grandmother's wedding locket and lace brought from Belgium by her parent.

The bride attendants were Debbie Tulin, Laurie Carleson, Julie Cowart, Gina Bozha, Khandi Howard, Gail Barton and Jane Sparks. They wore formal gowns of teal satin. The fitted bodice had diagonal shirring on the left side, short puffed sleeves and a sweetheart neckline dipping to a V'd back and accented with a bow. A short peplum draped over the long straight skirt that was worn slipper-length. They wore pearl drop necklaces, a gift from the bride and dyed to match opera pumps. The attendants carried peach colored cattleya orchids accented with ribbon, pearls and naphys leaves. In their hair, they wore peach flowers and pearls.

James Handley attended his son as bestman and groomsmen were Bubba Bozha, Jesse Howard, Doyle Cowart, Tommy Winters and Clay and Kyle Youngblood. Ushers were Greg Trekin, David Minear, Charles Sparks and Chris Youngblood. The men wore Christian Dior charcoal grey tuxedos with vests and white shirts and black bow ties. Their boutonnieres were peach roses.

The bride and groom's nieces, Kelli Ticken and Kyndal Howard were flower girls and wore flower girl dresses. Brent Ticken was the ring bearer. The flower girls wore identical dresses of white eyelet. The fitted bodices had sweetheart necklines and short puffed sleeves. They were accented with short peplums and worn slipper-length. White pumps and pearl drop necklaces completed their attire. The girls carried lace trimmed white roses. The ring bearer carried the rings on a lace covered pillow and was dressed identically to the groom in a formal full dress charcoal grey, Christian Dior tuxedo.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bozha wore a

VOTE TUES. NOV. 8 BOB RAWLS WRITE IN CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF TYLER COUNTY

I would like to take this time to explain to the voters of Tyler County a little about what to expect when they go to vote on November 8. At each voting box, there will be a sign near the entrance stating that I, Bob Rawls, am a write-in candidate for sheriff of Tyler County. Also there has to be a sign placed inside voting areas showing that I am a write-in candidate for sheriff. So if you plan on writing in my name and can't spell Bob Rawls, just look at the signs inside polling place. I want each of you to know that my name does not have to be spelled correctly to count. Also there are many people who vote a straight ticket and mark an X at top. You can still do this and write my name in and mark the box next to my name and I will still get the vote. If you have any questions concerning how to write in my name, please feel free to call me at 283-5982. I want to emphasize that I am not connected to any clerk and that I will serve all the people and not be obligated to anyone but to the citizens of Tyler County. So please go vote on November 8, 1988 and write in my name Bob Rawls for sheriff.
