Task Force Funding

Tyler County Being Considered For Grant

By ETNA PETTJOHN

When newly-elected Sheriff Gary Hennigan attended a reception in Austin this past week he had the opportunity to do some campaigning for the sheriff's department.

task force grant Tyler County will receive. Hennigan met last Tuesday with Walter Diggle, director of regional services for DETCOG, and gave him a breakdown of what the department needs in terms of implementing an undercover drug officer in the department.

House bill, that will provide billions to battle the drug problem, is in effect. The grant that DETCOG will distribute to law enforcement officials throughout East Texas is funded by the federal government and other sources. It is then distributed to agencies like DETCOG by the state.

Draper said that the money is not provided to hire the agent, but instead

Seized Material Is Investigated

Some material seized recently by District Attorney Pat Hardy, and former Sheriff Leon Fowler has been sent to the Harris County Crime Lab to determine if it is methamphetamine powder, and the equipment used in the manufacture of the drug.

The material was seized about three weeks ago, after Hardy obtained a search warrant for property located at Fox's Landing, on the Neches River near Colmesneil.

The property is listed on the county tax rolls as belonging to Kenneth Castle, step-father of William Oliver, a Houston resident who was recently sentenced to 119 years in prison for the manufacture of methamphetamine.

Hardy said that Castle is not suspected of manufacturing or trafficking the drug, although a storage room where the material was found is on his property.

According to Hardy, glass jars containing a brown liquid and others containing a white powdered substance were taken.

DETDA Installation Banquet Scheduled

Annual installation banquet for officers of the Deep East Texas Development Association is scheduled for Friday, Feb. 10, at 6:30 p.m. in Nacogdoches at the Fredonia Hotel.

Keynote speaker will be Lewis J. Johnson, executive director of the Deep East Texas Council of Government.

Annual Installation Banquet

DETDA secretary, Martha Buckner, said tickets are $15 each and are available at the DETDA office in San Augustine. For more information on the banquet call 409/275-2389.

Ron Hufford, executive vice president of the Texas Forestry Association, who has served two years as president of DETDA, will be passing the helm to Donnie Benson, regional manager of

In the raid, Hardy said that although Oliver is in jail waiting to be sent to the penitentiary, the intent of the raid was to prevent someone else from possibly using the equipment to manufacture the drug.

The search was executed after Hardy received a tip from what he calls a "credible source."

He added that in other locations which were searched, as a result of the tip, only broken glass jars were found, although there was evidence that these jars had previously been buried.

"We received information as to where alleged quantities of methamphetamine were buried at some points," said Hardy. "But it appears that someone got there first, and there was evidence that something was buried, but that was left was broken jars."

The results from the crime lab should be back in two to four more weeks, said Hardy. He also said that some containers could be filed if the material turns out to be drugs, but he didn't say who would be charged.

On Monday the front will hold the same temperatures as today, and the rain will continue.

One Blood Drive Slated

Information from the U.S. Forest Service, second vice president, said to please make your reservations now to attend the annual banquet, and extend warm welcome to our guest speaker and to visitors from the nine-county East Texas area who are not members of the Association.

The annual meeting of the association attracts a major crowd of leaders from the nine-county area which borders on Sam Rayburn, and Toledo Bend Reservoirs. They include Angelina, Jasper, Newton, Nacogdoches, Polk, Sabine, San Augustine, Shelby and Tyler counties.

As in the past, the donation of a pint of blood will entitle the donor and his or her immediate family to be covered by the Blood Assurance Program for one year.

The donors must be 18 years old or older, or written consent of the parent or guardian, 17 years old by the 19th of January. A drivers license is required. Donors are reminded to be sure to get before donating.

In order to avoid a long wait or to fit the 30 minutes required to give a pint of the Gift of Life into your day, a schedule is being set up at quarter hour intervals beginning at 9:30 a.m. and continuing until 6 p.m.

To reserve your half hour call or come by any of the following:

Water Commissioner

Asks for Involvement

In a letter to the Environmental Protection Agency officials in Washington, Texas Water Commissioner Buck Wynne responded to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) recently released "Interim Report on Pesticides in Ground Water Data Base."

Wynne stated that "present evidence indicates normal field use of pesticides presents no threat of generalized ground water contamination in Texas." Wynne sent EPA additional information and offered the agency's full cooperation in collecting data on Texas' ground water quality levels for inclusion in the complete EPA report, due out in late 1989.

In addition, Wynne provided EPA with earlier studies conducted in the Rio Grande Valley area in South Texas where no pesticide contamination could be found in the ground water, despite pumping of water from flooded crop fields.

These reports were also not considered in the EPA Interim Report.

In his correspondence, Wynne noted that Texas Governor William P. Clemente, Jr. has designated the Texas Water Commission as the lead state agency with respect to the administration of ground water protection programs under the proposed pesticide strategy for agricultural chemicals in ground water.

He requested EPA give the Texas Water Commission an opportunity to play an active role in working with EPA to make its final report as accurate as possible, and that all data forwarded to EPA by the Water Commission be included in the national data base and any future reports.

Library Is Accredited By State Library

The Allen Shivers Library, having met the criteria for accreditation by the Texas State Library System, is now an official member of the Texas State Library System.

The library was just recently accredited according to William D. Gooch, Director, and Librarian of the Texas State Library.

"We are pleased to award the certificate of accreditation to the Allen Shivers Library in recognition of the efforts this community has made in providing public library services," said Gooch. "It is a symbol of having achieved a level of excellence."

The Allen Shivers Library is a member of the Houston Area Library System and serves citizens of Tyler County.

The library had to meet strict criteria, according to Gooch. Sullivan, library director, such as hours of service, professional staff, programs, number of library materials, and local per capita support to become an accredited member.

Allen Shivers Library must apply and qualify for membership annually.

Last year's membership benefits to the Allen Shivers Library included the popular circulating video cassette collection.

The second week of the year, the library will begin its annual journey to Houston on the first weekend for the bar-b-que, fiddling, horseshoe pitching, washer pitching and haybaling contests.

The year for this years events have just been announced and the Ticket Trailer from the Show will be at the Wal-Mart parking lot on Friday, Jan. 20 from 9 a.m. until noon.

The schedule of entertainers is as follows:

The first week will begin with country stars: The Judds Feb. 19 at 4 p.m. only; Crystal Gayle Feb. 20; and Kenny Rogers Feb. 21.

Pop-rockers Cheap Trick will perform Feb. 22, followed Feb. 23 by pop group Bruce Hornsby and the Range.

Country resumes with Larry Gatlin & the Gatlin Brothers Feb. 24; Ricky Skaggs and Little Joe Y. La-Familla (Tex-Mex) for the Feb. 25 matinee.

Tyler County Day is February 26 matinee performance when Ricky Van Shelton and K.T. Oslin will entertain.

Trailer will have tickets for all performances ranging in price from $4 to $10, depending on seat location and performance.

Rural Counties Need A Piece Of The Pie

It used to be that drug pushers operated in the larger cities, where the demand was higher, the chemicals to manufacture drugs were accessible, and it was generally considered possible to remain unnoticed.

But things have changed. It is a general conviction among law enforcement officers that since drug abuse and trafficking have been highly publicized, and tougher laws have been passed, and enforced, these pushers are finding safer havens to operate in.

The perfect climate for them is becoming more and more the rural areas. Where the manpower and money for undercover operations are not available.

When Sen. Phil Gramm invited law enforcement officials from an eight-county area to Woodville recently, all of those officials who showed up seemed concerned about one thing: Will their departments get their fair share of the crime-fighting pie?

It has been traditional for state and federal funding to be divided among the bigger boys, and the rural areas scramble for what's left.

At the same time, law enforcement officers in these rural areas are seeing more and more of the big operators moving to the seclusion of the country. Several of the officers mentioned at the forum with Sen. Gramm that they are catching some of the big fish, but it is usually by accident. The reason is that most of these departments just don't have the money to have full-time undercover operations.

Its time that state and federal authorities give

"Booster" Editorial

Gramm told the audience of officers that a new House bill will provide funding for a new program aimed at battling the drug problem. The two-phase program will provide $300 million in the first year, and $2 billion during the second year of implementation.

By funding the metropolitan area departments the government has been successful chasing out the drug traffickers.

But now it's time to clean up the new nest.

Blame Heaped Males If Women Go Hysterical

Berlin. "If women go hysterical their husbands are to blame in most cases, and especially the heaped ones!"

This is the conclusion reached by Dr. G. Giehm, psychiatrist of a large sanitarium at Zephernick in the north of Berlin, as a result of an investigation of cases of hysterical women.

Writing in the German Medical Weekly, Dr. Giehm says: "As a practice all consequence of this discovery the husbands should be treated and cured rather than their wives, in the first place."

Doctor Giehm found that heaped husbands were very sensitive, inactive, soft, over-careful, waverers men who covered up their weaknesses by pretending to be "kind on a gentle" sympathizer with their wives madly.

Artificial Thrill To Save Baby

Dr. P. H. Inley of Baltimore and his assistant, Doctor Bay, inserted a rubber tube down the child's throat through which he was now being fed, while they seek to extend the esophagus by the grafting of living tissues.

The baby girl is three-days old and named with no threat to her pictures disclosed an abbreviated esophagus which instead of leading into the stomach only led as far as the collar bone.

Flier Bites Out Saturday Night

Much speculation was rife and some little concern was felt Saturday afternoon late when a plane seemed to be in difficulty over Woodville.

Clouds and rain made it hard to decide whether it was another advertising stunt or real trouble. When decided, later were used, trying to help the landing but did not seem to be any assistance. Later it was learned that an exhausted gasoline supply caused Lieut. Commander A. W. Radford to bail out of his plane two miles northeast of Woodville about 7:30 Saturday night, after battling a storm over Mississippi and Louisiana in which he lost his bearing while enroute from Montgomery, Ala. to Shreveport.

It was Commander Radford's first parachute jump in 15 years flying. He arrived over Woodville about 7:15 p.m. circling the town and vicinity several times trying to locate a landing spot.

He made a perfect jump from about 1500 feet, landing in the woods.

The plane crashed about 200 yards from the farm house of W.W. Williams and was demolished.

Blood Drive To Be Held At Woodville High

Dear Woodville Community Group Representatives:

Thank you for your vital help.

Jess Collins and his science students are conducting the Community/High School blood drive this year. The drive will be held at the High School in the library, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The Blood Center will set up 9 beds throughout the day except during the lunch hour (11:30-12:30) and after school (3:30-6 p.m.). During the lunch period and after school time, there will be a 4 bed set up.

Please review the blood plans offered by the Blood Center of Southeast Texas. If your group wants funding for a new program aimed at battling the drug problem. The two-phase program will provide $300 million in the first year, and $2 billion during the second year of implementation.

By funding the metropolitan area departments the government has been successful chasing out the drug traffickers.

But now it's time to clean up the new nest.

Changes as of 8/88: Donors may donate through age 70.

Hopefully, donors will be contacted on a one-to-one basis. This has been proven to be the best way to recruit donors. Churches and large groups may need to form a Calling Committee and/or set up a table for sign-ins after services at churches. (See sheet with SUGGESTED GUIDELINES FOR CALLING COMMITTEE).

Clo. Hammond, Donor Resource Consultant, Blood Center of Southeast Texas

Capitalism Types Discussed

Editor:

There are two extremes of capitalism. There is democratic capitalism and there is oligarchic capitalism.

In a democratic capitalist society, every segment of the society has a realistic share of its wealth.

In an oligarchic capitalist society the wealth is in the hands of a few. The wealth may be owned by the society, but the control rests in the hands of a few. Through this control of the wealth these few restrict the freedom of the rest of its members.

The leaders of the society see that the income from its wealth is spread as equally as possible among its members.

In an oligarchic capitalist society the wealth is in the hands of a few. The wealth may be owned by the society, but the control rests in the hands of a few. Through this control of the wealth these few restrict the freedom of the rest of its members.

rapidly. We are moving steadily toward being an oligarchic capitalist society. Look at the evidence.

Partners are being forced off the farms, small business men are being forced out of business, unions are being weakened, congress backs oligarchic capitalism...they back the merger of large corporations, usury is accepted without even a frown of disapproval.

All of the above moves the income from our collective wealth away from the hands of the majority into the hands of fewer and fewer. If you haven't felt this pinch you will. All of this costs us our freedom, inch by inch.

Oh, if we just had some capitalistic God-fearing, caring elected officials.

Dean O. Gray

Society Seeks Members

The Tyler County Heritage Society, P.O. Box 888, Woodville, TX 75799. Individual memberships are just $10, family memberships $20.

We wish to have the greatest voting participation possible as we begin this next year. As a member, you will not only have an enjoyable evening, but will also receive first hand information about the fascinating progress of Heritage Village Museum and the other activities of the Heritage Society.

We need your interest and your participation. The dreams of the Tyler County community are coming true as we see what has been accomplished at Heritage Village. Our complex has become one of the most dominating factors in enhancing the quality of life throughout the county.

Rest assured that if Tyler County is to attract a broader economic base, Heritage Village Museum will stand out as a very significant, plus, toward enhancing the quality of life in our area. Many businesses base their location decisions on the quality of life in the community. It is a most important factor in selection process.

Heritage Village Museum has become the place where Tyler County puts its best foot forward. It is becoming a show case for the community through the preservation and preservation of our heritage. Our museum store is quite remarkable and features the crafts of the amazingly talented people who live in our area. We are giving them the opportunity to actually make a living by selling their excellent crafts in the museum store. John Killam, our resident jeweler, has been most successful. We hope to lease space for other quality crafts for their businesses in the Village.

You and your friends will be able to participate or be entertained at the Village through the Heritage Village Band, the Villagers singing group, the Junior Historians and many other special programs. As a member, you will also be permitted to enter the Village free of charge and receive a free copy of the 'East Texas Echo' every month.

We are on the threshold of much bigger and better things. When you come join us on the evening of January 30 at the Pickett House and be part of the endeavor of the Tyler County Heritage Society to build an outstanding community.

We look forward to seeing you and welcoming you into the Society. Christine Moot Sanders, President, Tyler County Heritage Society

Senior Citizen's Game Day will be held Thursday, Jan. 19, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Woodville United Methodist Church. Persons attending are asked to bring a sack lunch, and drinks will be furnished by the Rotary Club.

Also games like dominoes and 42 ball will be played.

Superbowl Party Treats Will Please

Superbowl Sunday and snacks go together like pretzels and beer. But just because you've invited over the whole armchair team to watch the game doesn't mean your snacks have to penalize your waistline.

The Weight Watchers game plan will let you score points with defensive weight loss efforts. Try passing these tempting south-of-the-border treats—Chili Con Queso—with plain-tain chips, Steak and Sausage Stew with Mexican Corn Muffins. And for the meat eaters, there's the tangy treat of Mock Margartas.

It's not unusual for that New Year's resolution to lose weight to end on Superbowl Sunday," says Weight Watchers area director Joyce Nimetz. She adds, "The Weight Watchers New Quick Success (R) Program for 1989 teaches members the importance of planning ahead and eating lightly before kick-off to compensate for a little extra at halftime."

Do you lose control when food's within reach? Nimetz has a solution: "Select the foods you want to eat, portion the other foods away from arm's reach, and spend most of your time concentrating on the game, cheering for your team and talking with friends."

CHILI CON QUESO
Makes 4 servings
2 tablespoons olive oil or vegetable oil
1/4 cup diced onion
1 small jalapeno pepper, seeded and thinly sliced
1/2 small garlic clove, minced
1/2 medium onion, seeded and diced
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1/2 cup shredded cheddar cheese
1/2 cup shredded Monterey Jack cheese
1/2 cup shredded Colby cheese

To serve, transfer cheese mixture to small serving bowl, and set in center of serving platter. Arrange tortilla wedges around bowl, on serving platter.

Each serving provides: 1 Bread Exchange
1 Fat Exchange
1/2 cup each cubed red and green bell pepper (1-inch pieces)
1/4 cup diced onion
1 tablespoon seeded and diced jalapeno pepper
2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
2 packets instant beef broth and seasoning mix, dissolved in 1 cup water

STEAK AND SAUSAGE STEW
Makes 4 servings
2 teaspoons oil or vegetable oil
1/2 cup each cubed red and green bell pepper (1-inch pieces)
1/4 cup diced onion
1 tablespoon seeded and diced jalapeno pepper
2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
2 packets instant beef broth and seasoning mix, dissolved in 1 cup water

MOCK MARGARTAS
Makes 4 servings
2 cups cold water
1 teaspoon lemon-lime flavored sugar-free drink mix (8 calories per teaspoon)
1/2 cup plus 2 teaspoons tequila
3 tablespoons each triple sec and freshly squeezed lime juice
10 ice cubes
4 lime wedges

In small mixing bowl combine water and drink mix; stirring to dissolve; set aside.

In blender container combine tequila, triple sec, and lime juice with mixer running 30 seconds. Add ice cubes, 1 at a time, processing until smooth, and frothy. Pour mixture into serving glasses; stir in reserved drink mix.

PLAIN TAIN CHIPS
Makes 4 servings
12 ounces peeled plantains, thinly sliced
1 tablespoon plus 1 teaspoon vegetable oil
1/2 teaspoon salt
Preheat oven to 250 degrees. Spray nonstick baking sheet with nonstick cooking spray and arrange plantain slices in a single layer. Bake for 10 minutes; turn plantain slices over and cook until slices are dried out, about 10 minutes longer.

In 10-inch nonstick skillet heat oil, stirring frequently, until vegetables are softened, 10 to 12 minutes. Stir in tomato and cook 1 minute longer. Stir in milk; continuing to stir, add cheese. Reduce heat to low and cook, stirring occasionally, until cheese is melted and mixture thickens, 2 to 4 minutes (90 do not boil). Set aside and keep warm.

On baking sheet arrange tortillas in a single layer. Using a pastry brush, brush 1/2 teaspoon of the remaining oil evenly over each tortilla. Broil lightly

Many Veteran's Benefits, Veteran's Unaware Of, Available

although over $32 billion

... Although over $32 billion were paid out in veterans benefits last year, billions more went unclaimed in the past few years.

Every year eligibility for benefits and the array of available benefits are changed, and very few veterans or their supervisors keep up with the latest rules.

Because of this, and changes in their circumstances, many veterans, their families and survivors are now entitled to money and other benefits from the government even though they were not eligible in the past.

They were the findings of a study group of the Consumer Education Research Center, a 19-year-old national nonprofit consumer group.

They found that over one-fourth of the money paid in veterans benefits goes to persons who never served in the armed forces of the United States.

Most of these were related by blood or marriage to veterans but many were not. Others were members of the armed forces of countries who fought with us against our enemies.

Each year the Center compiles a book describing the latest rules on available benefits and how to qualify for those benefits. The 192-page Complete Guide to Federal and State Benefits for Veterans, Their Families, and Survivors, with a foreword by Sen. Robert Dole and a separate book containing information and forms to obtain marriage, death, divorce and other vital documents needed to substantiate claims have just been issued.

This set of two books is $7 (plus $2 post- age and handling) from CERC-Vets, PO Box 336, South Orange, NJ 07079 or by calling 1-800-872-0121 with credit card.

Robert A. Berkow, executive director of the consumer group, says that many survivors of veterans are unaware that they might be eligible to receive money, medical care, educational assistance, help in buying a home or other benefits.

In fact, eligibility and benefits change constantly and some people legal marriages, those who remarried after the death of a veteran, children born out of wedlock to a veteran, parents of a veteran and even dependent grandchildren. Any of these may be eligible for benefits.

Families or veterans buried, or mentioned or commemorated on Tablets of the Missing overseas are eligible for free passes to visit these sites.

In addition the book includes a complete list of VA facilities and help to secure the information needed with VA applications.

As Sen. Bob Dole, a decorated veteran and one familiar with the bureaucracy, says in his foreword, "Berkow's book goes a long way in helping America's veterans and their families to know they can receive the benefits they earned and deserve."

Rebecca Holman of Woodville was one of the 44 students named to the Dean's List at Morris College for the Fall semester, according to Academic Dean Virgil Matthews.

Rebecca is the daughter of Troy and Carolyn Holman, of Woodville, and is a 1988 graduate of Woodville High School.

She is majoring in theatre while attending LMC.

The Dean's List requires a student to be full-time and maintain a minimum average of 3.25 or better.

Lon Morris is a two-year private liberal arts college located in Jacksonville, and has the distinction of being the oldest junior college in the state of Texas.

When the Tyler County Extension, Homemakers Club met Tuesday, it discussed ways to improve the council.

The Fred Home Extension Club was hostess.

Every one invited to these meetings regardless of socio-economic level, race, sex, or religion.

Reading of the minutes were given by Milly Morrison and the measures report by Jo Bingham.

Elsie Stewart read the By-Laws for the coming year.

The door prize was given to Morrison.

Meeting for council were 12 members, one guest, and one agent.

Without question, the 100th Congress produced some real successes.

Some of it was ceremonial as we celebrated the 200th birthday of the U.S. Constitution last year.

But we did not merely celebrate. Rather, Senators and Representatives worked together during the past two years to pass creative solutions that will make a positive difference in the lives of American men, women, and children.

We established a trade policy for our country, as the U.S. Senate voted 85 to 11 for the trade bill that I sponsored with Senator John Danforth (R-Missouri).

Our action says to other nations: If you have access to our markets, then we should have access to yours. That's only fair, but too often on American products ranging from electronics equipment to kitchen disposals to baseball bats—that has not been the case.

The new trade law passed by the House clears the way for a policy aimed at increasing world trade and making it easier for us to sell more of the goods and services produced by American workers abroad.

President Bush will have the tools to open markets abroad that will use them.

The trade law includes a "sunset" provision that will require a full profit analysis of the law's impact on other things. The classroom sessions will be February 11 and 18 from 9-11 a.m.

The field trip is planned to follow the class on the afternoon of February 11.

Each lunch with you on the date.

The class will meet in the Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church of Livingston, 302 W. Church St. (U.S. Highway 190), Livingston.

The morning room is at the rear of the building. The field trip will be south of Livingston, and a map showing directions will be handed out at the classroom session.

Participants should dress for the weather and bring a field guide and a pair of binoculars.

WFAA-TV of Dallas will be attending and filming the classroom session and field trip on Feb. 11.

The class has proved very popular in the past, and class size must be limited to 35. There is no charge for the course.

Early registration is recommended. To register, write or call the Big Thicket National Preserve, Big Thicket National Preserve, P.O. Box 7408, Beaumont, TX 77706, or call (409) 839-2689.

The following club members from Tyler County A&M Mother's Club attended were Judy Kennesson, Carol Phillips and Beth Allison.

Homemakers Four training programs

Four training programs and an upcoming November arts and crafts fair were discussed when the Colmesneil Extension Homemakers Club met Tuesday. It was held at the Colmesneil Community Center.

Newsletters presented by Dorothy Hillie gave the devotional. Roll call was by June Reid, secretary. Seven members were present.

Everyone is invited to these meetings regardless of socio-economic level, race, sex, or religion.

The treasury report was given by Catherine Denson.

Also discussed were the four training programs to be given by Janice Marquis on Feb. 21.

Members were given year books and they were completed. Hillie gave a demonstration on information on the scholar, orchestrated hot pads. She also was the hostess, and served chips, dips, and spiced tea.

The next meeting is to be on Feb. 14.
