According to Hennigan, he has made sure that his present staff knows to be alert to the fact that these prisoners are tricky, and that they have nothing to lose. Therefore, he expects to keep a close watch on them. "One of them has escaped twice from Jasper," he added.

These are prisoners that the Immigration and Naturalization Service has asked this county to hold in its jail, until they can be sent back to their own countries. But, unlike other prisoners housed here, the INS will pay for their upkeep.

cording to Hennigan, if the jail houses an average of 12 prisoners a year the fund could create up to $200,000 in one year.

The money will be used for expenses incurred holding these prisoners. Hennigan said anything left over in the fund will be turned back to the county to help

Hillister Woman Arrested On Drug-Related Charge

A Hillister woman is out on $25,000 bond after being arrested on a drug-related charge February 25.

Fay Dale Edwards, 48, was arrested at her residence by Tyler County Sheriff's Department deputies, and charged with possession of a controlled substance.

The deputies secured a search warrant from precinct 1 Justice of the Peace Wanda Brasher, after receiving a tip that there allegedly was cocaine there.

They then searched the residence and found a small amount of what is believed to be rock cocaine.

amount, but any amount, no matter how small, is too much in Tyler County," said Sheriff Gary Hennigan. He added that his department is not going to allow drugs in Tyler County.

The arresting officers were assisted by Department of Public Safety officers and a dog trained to sniff out drugs.

Council Approves Purchase

The Woodville City Council met in an emergency session Tuesday and agreed to replace a 10 year-old sewer cleaning machine which "blew up" recently, according to City Manager Walt Davis.

AARP Week Designated

Vera Richardson
Funeral services for Vera Richardson, 76, of Doucette, were held Thursday, Feb. 23, at Edwards Funeral Home Chapel.
She died February 21.
Burial was in Magnolia Cemetery.
A native of Rockland, she lived in Houston before moving to Doucette several years ago.
Survivors include her husband, Samuel Richardson, Sr. of Doucette; her son and daughter-in-law, S.A. Jr. and Dorothy Richardson, of Houston; her daughter, Ann Jackson of Ruston, La.; brother R.Z. Best of Silsbee; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
Pallbearers were Johnny Green, Allen Means, B.B. Stanfield, Jr., Mark Hutchinson, Robert Weeks, and Tommie Jackson.

Woodville Mayor Tom Knapp has designated the week of March 6-12 as American Association of Retired Persons as MEMBERSHIP DRIVE WEEK.
Representatives of AARP will have a table set up at various businesses throughout the week, to sign up new members.
On Tuesday, they will be at Brookshire's on Wednesday at Fairway Foods, and on Saturday at Walmart.
During this membership drive, persons may receive a 25-percent discount on their meals at the new Lulu's Mexican Restaurant by showing their receipt of payment of dues.
Members may at any time get a 10-percent discount on their meal by showing their membership cards.

The regular meeting of March will be held at 10 a.m. March 7 at the Lion's Den on 100E.
The featured speaker will be Christine Sanders, with an update on Heritage Village. Following the business session, a covered dish luncheon will be held.
Membership in the Lion's Club is open to all persons 50 years or older, whether retired or not.
Dues for the local group is $2 per year.

Shaping Up Fast

Entries for the First Annual Dogwood Open are coming in at a brisk rate. The tournament format is a four person team. Players scramble with two shot gun starts per day on March 18 and 19.
Starting times both days will be 8 a.m. and 1 p.m. Should you have a preference, please place your request with the Pro Shop at 283-7985.
Entry fee will be $25 per person which will include green fees for both days. Carts will be available for $7.50 per day per person.
You may get up your own "BB" stands for Boggles. Boggles are those who enter individually and placed on a team by the tournament committee. All teams must have a minimum combined handicap of 55. Ladies are name it. But this week invited to enter.
Trophies will be awarded to first, second, and third place winners. If you could have fanned me on this one call your entry in today this one is shaping up to be a humdinger that formed that feat I could only regret missing. Allison On SFA Honor Roll

Beth Allen Allison of Woodville is among 148 students at Stephen F. Austin State University listed on the president's honor roll for the recent fall semester.

SFA Registrar Gene Barbin said these top ranking students are those who compiled an all "A" record while carrying a full schedule during the semester.

To qualify for the prestigious honor, the students had to be enrolled in a minimum 12 semester hours.

Allison graduated summa cum laude in December in the school of education with a 3.9634 grade point average on a 4.0 scale.

She received a bachelor of science degree, with a major in special education. Allison was a transfer student and was named to the president's honor roll four times at SFA.

Lucky horseshoes were flying as Go Texan competition kicked off the 1989 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.

This year, Richard Thompson and Bob David representing Tyler County took part in the exciting Area/Metro Go Texan Horseshoe Pitching Contest held in the Astrodome.

"We had the biggest turnout this year ever," said Bob McCharen, Go Texan Contests Committee vice chairman. "This year's competition included last year's defending champions and some of the best competitive horseshoe pitchers from across the state," he added.

More than 180 teams entered the Area Go Texan competition and in excess of 20 teams entered the Metro division. The entries have increased every year and the expertise and dexterity of the pitchers also have increased.

Several County Residents Listed On Unclaimed Money List

In the 1989 version of the Texas Treasury Unclaimed Money Fund List which will be published statewide on Sunday, March 5 in 19 newspapers.

Each year we try to locate as many people as we can and return this money to them, Mrs. Richards said. "Last year about $22 million was sent back to rightful owners."

State Treasurer Ann W. Richards recently announced that more than $10,000 Texans have $60 million in lost or forgotten money coming to them this year.

The 110,000 are named

Most accounts must be dormant from three to five years before they are turned over to the state.

"There is no set time to make a claim on these accounts," Treasurer Richards said. "Money turned over to the State Treasury can be claimed at any time in the future by the original owner or his or her heirs."

During the first few weeks after the list is published, the toll-free line is often tied up by the volume of calls. The lines, however, are kept open for an extended period and there is no time limit for making a claim.

The Unclaimed Money Fund List was first published shortly after Richards first took office in 1983 and she has made collecting and returning unclaimed money one of her top priorities, according to a release from her office.

Since she took office in 1983, the Treasury has collected more than $209 million in unclaimed funds, which is almost 83 percent of all such funds ever collected in the State of Texas. About 95 percent of all funds returned in the 27-year history of the program have been returned during the six years of the Richards Administration, according to the release.

Money that is not claimed by owners is used by the state for education and general state services such as highways and law enforcement.

Last year, for example, $30 million in non-tax revenue was turned over to the Foundation-School Fund and the General Revenue Fund.

Tyler County residents listed in the Unclaimed Money Fund List are: Chester-Eaton Jr., Arthur, Kyrie, J.C., Nathan, Dorothy, Whitehead, James Bailey, Wilbanks Jr., Gerald C., Colmesneil, Adway, Beverly, Christ, Powell, Kenneth, Smith, III, Sanford, Doucette-Ryals, Logging Co., Sullivan, Johnny Lee, Douglas, Scott, Bart Raymond, Wilkins, Sam, H., White, Ronald, D., Warren, Henry, James R., Job, William L., Renfro, Christopher, Wilson, Ella Jeanne, Woodville, Brien, Robert Black, Emmet S. OPINION

Thursday, March 21, 1989 Tell Em You Saw It In The "Booster"

It's Time To Seriously Promote Tourism

Any newcomer to Tyler County is quickly amazed at the attractions this county has to offer. Of course people can experience history at the Heritage Village. The weekend spinning, weaving, and blacksmithing demonstrations, among others, make this working village a real attraction.

The nearby Indian reservation allows us to see a part of history that nearly disappeared altogether.

The Big Thicket Preserve allows us to see a nature unspoiled by the habitation of man, complete with the many species of plants and animals.

The Allan Shivers Museum has an impressive collection of the former governor's memorabilia, complete with his library.

We have the finest festivals anyone could hope to enjoy. Western Weekend and the Dogwood Festival, where nearby city folks can come out and see quilts being sewn, hot hoo cakes sizzling over an open fire, hear some of the best bluegrass music around and see some of the prettiest girls in East Texas.

The old Wood Fain Theatre, where county residents entertained themselves during the 1940's, to get their minds off of WW II, has recently been renovated into the Wood Fain Opera House, where bluegrass bands perform, and other activities are scheduled throughout the year for this community to enjoy.

And we also have a renowned country music singer, with fans nationwide. George Jones and his Jones Country Music Park are also great assets to this county. They recently decided to promote George Jones and his music park along with the other attractions this county has to offer. It is the hope of these board members that local businesses, such as restaurants, will display copies of the gold and platinum records Jones has recorded, and possibly pictures of the star, both of when he was growing up and after he became a star.

It is no secret that fans will travel long distances to see a star the magnitude of Jones. And the fact that we have him and his music park here, in Tyler County, is not to be taken lightly. Those who will come here to see him and other stars perform at the music park will also most likely stay in local motels, eat in local restaurants, buy gasoline and souvenirs locally, and visit other attractions in the area.

"Booster" Editorial

Members of the Tyler County Heritage Society are also actively seeking tourists. Last weekend, for example, they hosted a group of folks from across the country and Canada, and who own travel agencies and sponsor tours.

The visit was organized by the East Texas Tourism Association, and the fact that Heritage Village was included in the tour tells us that the Heritage Society members have been busy working towards making tourism a viable industry here.

The tourism industry will not pollute our water and air. It will not be dangerous to our health, or employ only a few skilled workers.

This industry can create jobs for many in the local retail and service businesses.

Historical Commission

Offers A Range Of Preservation Service

The following is a column submitted by the Tyler Historical Commission.

Outstanding historic resources in Angelina County recently have been listed in the National Register of Historic Places, according to the Texas Historical Commission in Austin.

Forty-one properties comprise this select group of historic resources recognized for their architectural and historical significance.

The reconnaissance survey—of Angelina County's historic resources began in January 1986 through a matching grant from the Texas Historical Commission.

A National Register nomination of many of the most significant resources was presented to the State Board of Review in October 1987 and January 1988. The National Park Service in Washington, D.C., approved the final nomination material in December 1988.

Examples of listed properties in Lufkin include the Baytown-Kent House at 107 Kerr, the G.E. Lawrence House at 2005 Chestnut South, the Russell-Arnold House at 121 Menzies, and several structures designed by architect Shirley Simons.

Many downtown Lufkin buildings were included in the National Register listing, reflecting the city's historic appearance and successful main Street Project.

The unusual 1930's Texas Highway Department complex at 110 Forest Park was also included in the nomination. In other Angelina County communities, examples include the Henry G. Temple House in Diboll and the Gibbs-Flournoy House at Manning.

"Many individuals contribute to the nomination of the properties, including the owners, local preservation organizations, survey professionals, our staff, and our professional review board," said Jim Stealy, director of the THO's National Register Programs office.

The citizens of Angelina County can be very proud of this accomplishment.

The Texas Historical Commission is the state agency for historic preservation. Its staff administers a wide range of programs that seek to preserve the heritage of the state and the historic investments of its citizens.

Waiting For Spring Can Be Trying

I woke up Tuesday morning with that heavy feeling of dread. I could feel it in the air.

The crispness, the chill. And I could also hear the wind whipping against the house, causing it to moan and creak like it was just plain tired.

I have already begun rejoicing the arrival of spring, and as I learned Tuesday, a little too soon.

I should know better. March is known for being a tricky month. One day you'll wake up to bright sunshine and birds singing. The squirrels will be busy gossiping with each other about the weather. Then the next you could very well see traces of snow in the air.

Even the tulips and daffodils were fooled. When I went out on the porch Sunday morning with my cup of coffee, I felt such excitement when I saw the little shoots peeking through the ground in the flower bed I had planted in January.

Now I envision covering all the plants I had planted this past weekend when I felt that surge of joy spring always gives me. I'll have to carry in all the house plants—the ones I had promised to take to my mother's house.

find winter-time again is almost depressing. But like the verse from the Bible—we had to remind ourselves: "For everything, there is a season. And a time."

The winter has been a long one for my husband and I. We lost both of his parents to death. We had to sit inside the house that we have made our new home, and only look longingly at the lake that we know we'll enjoy so much. We couldn't wait for the picnics and barbecues that we plan to have on the front lawn.

And when the sunshine smiled over us Sunday, it was too much. I couldn't stay inside. I had to rake leaves and plant flowers and transplant others.

Even Wayne, who would rather watch a good ball game on the TV, was outside scraping paint from an antique dresser that we'll refinish.

That's why Tuesday hit us so hard. To wake up and

Fat Found In Pines Trees Looks Promising

December 1936

Fat found in Southern Pine May Lead To New Industries
Savannah, Ga. Discovery of fat in pine trees, fat containing the same fat as human and animal flesh, was announced today by Dr. Charles H. Herry, director of the pulp and paper laboratory of Savannah. "With the fat he found a cheap easy way of extracting it," he said, promising two new industries. "Ridding the trees of fat," he said, makes it possible for the first time to manufacture the finest grades of bond and book paper from the Southern forests. "The tree fat is useful for making soap and mining flotation processes. With it is a mixture of fatty acids and waxes."

One tree acid is oleic, a potent ingredient in the human body sought by physicians for medical treatment. Another is linoleic, which can be converted into vitamin D.

Chester Boys Win Bi-District

The Chester Yellowjackets played runner-up Apple Springs for the bi-district title at Hudson Friday night, and won the game 75-60. Chester was trailing 16-17 at the quarter, but took over the lead in the second quarter for a 31-28 lead at the half. Chester played a very strong second half, they held a 46-39 lead at the third quarter. Chester scored 29 points in the final quarter to save the 75-60 victory.

Dan Bailey led in scoring with 20 points, Sean Terry made 17 points and Norris Joseph added 12 points. Dan Bailey made 9 points in the final quarter to help Chester out of the lead. Chester hit 17 of 33 free shots, and Apple Springs made 7 of 11.

Coach Ennis said their was a great team effort. He praised his bench for their contribution. Jodie Bennett came off the bench and hit four out of four shots for 8 points. The Yellowjackets now have a 24-7 season and they met through yet. Chester meets Evadale in Silsbee Tuesday to play for the area championship and a trip to regional. Good luck guys!

Chester 63, High Island 62

The Chester boys played a warm up game against High Island last week and squeezed out a 63-62 victory.

Chester was behind 17-20 at the end of the first quarter and were down 28-33 at the half. The Yellowjackets had a very fast third quarter scoring 18 points to 11 for High Island for a 46-44 lead at the end of the third quarter. High Island didn't quit and Chester squeezed out a one point victory with 17 points to 18 for High Island in the fourth quarter.

Dan Botley led Chester scoring with 29 points and Norris Joseph hit 12 p.s. Botley hit 13 of his points in the first quarter to keep them in the game and he hit 11 p.s. in the third quarter to put Chester in front by two points. The Yellowjackets hit 9 of 16 free shots, and High Island made 10 of 22.

Colmesneil Girls Win Area

The Colmesneil girls played Kennard on Tuesday, Feb. 21 and defeated them 43-32. The Lady Bulldogs played good defense and then won the game at the free throw line. The score was tied 9-9 at the quarter but Colmesneil took the lead in the second quarter by scoring 11 points and holding Kennard to 5 points for a 20-14 lead at the half.

The third quarter was a 9 to 9 for a 29-23 Colmesneil lead after three quarters. Colmesneil made 14 points to 9 for Kennard in the final quarter for the 43-32 victory.

Stephanie Boykin had another great game, she scored 29 points and played very strong on defense.

Colmesneil didn't shoot very well from the free throw line but did hit 21 of 39 and that was the difference in the game. Kennard hit 8 of 20 free shots. Colmesneil also got 35 rebounds.

This victory sent the Lady Bulldogs to the regional tournament in Kilgore.

Lady Bulldogs Lose To Fannindal

Colmesneil girls played Fannindal girls in the first round of the regional tournament at Kilgore and were defeated 68-39. The Lady Bulldogs shot well against Evadale in the bi-district and against Kennard in the area game but just couldn't get the shots to drop against Fannindal. They did do O.K. the first and were trailing by six points at the half. They hoped to gain the ball in the second half but it went the other way. Colmesneil almost needed a miracle to make 2. They made 12 20% for the entire game. A few times they would get two and three shot in a row but it just wouldn't fall through for them.

Stephanie Boykin led Colmesneil with 15 points. Coach Moffett says he is very proud of their team, says he had hoped to maybe having a 50-50 season but ended up with a 20-10 season or 66 and two-thirds %.

points the second half to 35 for Fannindal. Colmesneil hit four of 32 shots in the second half and only shot 20%.

Twenty-four high school seniors from six of the seven invited counties had work accepted in the Protege Exhibition juried by Dr. James K. Hill, Lamar University, art department chairman.

The winners of the Competition, receiving gift certificates for art supplies, were: Craig Russell, First Place ($300), Central High (Beaumont); Queenin Fields, Second Place ($125), Liberty High; Duke, Third Place ($75), Warren High; and Shannon Haynes, Honorable Mention ($25), Warren High.

Shannon Haynes also received the Gallery Guild Choice award of a $50 gift certificate, while Chad Joyner of Liberty High was runner-up.

Mannings Art and School Supplies contributed the first, third, and honorable mention awards.

Several teachers, who had more than one student work accepted in the exhibition, were commended for their art programs.

Those teachers are: David Drinkard of Warren, with five student pieces accepted; Faye Nelson of Central High with three; Robert Barton of Liberty and Christie Weisman of Orangefield, both with two.

Other Warren students who had work accepted, from among 60 entries, in the Second Annual Protege Competition & Exhibition were: Bobby Moore, and Karen Williams, all students of David Drinkard.

Two Warren High School students work has been included in the Second Annual Protege Competition and Exhibition sponsored by the Art Museum of Southeast Texas, Gallery Guild.

David Duke and Shannon Haynes also won cash prizes for their entries.

The purpose of the competition is to encourage and support promising young artists in the seven-county area which the Museum serves.

Lake Area Outdoor Report Hunting, Fishing and Lying By "Double L" Lowery

Fishing Report

I still have not done any fishing but have heard some good stories and some sad ones. Some of the Woodville bass club members did O.K. Saturday and other bombed out. Larry Skinner and son bombed out Monday. I talked to two fellows at the Tackle Box Monday and they had caught some good fish and had seen some very big fish. One fellow caught an 8 and 5 lb fish plus several other keepers. Said he caught the big one in Mud Creek on a copperhead worm. The other man said they caught 11 keepers fishing Buck Bay with Ratle-traps. One of them said he saw one that went over 12 and one-half that was caught by a 16 year old boy fishing out of Caney. He also said there was a 10 lb 15 oz. and a 9 and one-half pound fish caught out of Fock Bay last week-end.

Ex-fisherman Phillip and James are now fulltime golfers but they were pretty green when they started playing golf. It seems that James was the veteran golfer of the two and Phillip turned to him quiet often for advice when Phillip finally got the ball to go in the cup for the first time, he turned to James and asked him what club he should use to knock the ball out of the hole. Phillip said while then told Phillip that he tried every club he had and had no success so he had he caught no body looking he reached in the cup and got it out with his hand, Phillip tried it and it worked for him.

Bass Tournament Results

The Woodville bass club held their February tournament out of Caney on Rayburn last weekend and they had pretty good luck.

First place went to the Hicks brothers, Clyde Jr. and Leslie, they had 17 lb 3 oz's. The Russell brothers Roger and Ray took second with 14 lb. 11 oz's, and third place went to Donald Tolbert and Lyle Rainey with 14 lb. 9 oz's.

Warren Students Win Art Awards

Warren students won art awards in the Protege Exhibition juried by Dr. James K. Hill, Lamar University, art department chairman.

The winners of the Competition, receiving gift certificates for art supplies, were: Craig Russell, First Place ($300), Central High (Beaumont); Queenin Fields, Second Place ($125), Liberty High; Duke, Third Place ($75), Warren High; and Shannon Haynes, Honorable Mention ($25), Warren High.

Warrior Whoop

A young Warren Junior High student deserves recognition for her accomplishments. Tina Shine, 14, of Warren entered in a contest called "Write on Reading/Art of Reading."

The Texas Center for the Book at the Dallas Public Library sponsored the contest. Out of 4,800 entries, Tina placed first. She will receive a medal and certificate for her accomplishment. Her writings will be published and the publication will travel throughout the state of Texas. Congratulations Tina.

The seventh graders of Warren Junior High took part in Duke University's Talent Identification Program. On Saturday, January 28, they took a SAT exam. Brad Adkinson, Greg Coleman, Jennifer Bourque, Tina Shine, Jeana McKee, Sonya Baird, Kelly Drinkard, Joe Duke, Erin Pluke, and Mickey Fountain all took the exam. The overall opinion of the students was that the test was harder than they expected and they were all relieved when the test was over.

The Warren High School Band students went to West Orange Stark Friday, February 24, for a solo and ensemble contest. Robert Roshto, Michelle Michael, Becky Shaw, and Jenny Snow won first division. Woodville won first place in the solo and ensemble in Austin on June 3 through 5.

Eagles Win Warrior Relays

The Woodville Eagles won their first track meet of the season Saturday at Warren. Woodville won first place with a total of 90 points. Huntingtown was second and Orangefield finished third. HEALTH BEAT

Otitis Media: The Most Common Cause Of Preventable Hearing Loss In Children

One of the most prevalent childhood infections, otitis media or inflammation of the middle ear, is also the most common cause of preventable hearing loss in children, affecting almost one-third of all children before age three. According to the American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery, parents may not associate the warning signs, sometimes as simple as a child tugging on his ears, with a potentially serious ear infection.

"The most prominent symptom of acute otitis media is earache, associated with a feeling of pressure and blockage in the ear. In addition, hearing is usually muffled," says the Academy, an organization whose 3,500 physicians are specialists in treating disorders of the ear, nose, throat and head and neck. Otitis media may lead to significant hearing loss if not treated promptly and effectively. Hearing loss is often overlooked by parents and first detected during routine physical examinations or school hearing tests.

Otitis media occurs when there is a bacterial or viral infection of the middle ear accompanied by retention of fluids in the middle ear. The eustachian tube, the passageway from the middle ear to the back of the throat, as blocked by swollen, inflamed membranes caused by the ear infection, a cold, allergic reaction, or infections of the tonsils or adenoids. If the fluid is unable to drain properly, it prevents the eardrum from catching sounds and transmitting them to other structures responsible for hearing, therefore causing temporary hearing loss. Inflammation of the eustachian tube causes the secretions to be trapped within this condition. Although the ear becomes stuffy, it is not an allergy attack because it is not a reaction to an allergen. The swelling in the eustachian tube subsides and the fluid drains out. However, when an ear, earache develops, a bacterial infection has occurred in the middle ear. This requires a physician's care. With proper treatment, the muffled hearing is restored. If the fluid drains out, however, hearing loss may become chronic.

The risk of hearing loss can be reduced if otitis media is diagnosed early and treated promptly. The following may signal otitis media:

- feeling of pressure or blockage in the ear
- persistent ear pain
- drainage of pus from the ear
- fever
- nausea and vomiting
- muffled hearing

When a child has an earache, the Academy advises you visit a physician with specialized knowledge of the ear. For more information send a self-addressed, stamped business envelope to "Earaches," AAO-HNS, 1101 Vermont Avenue, NW Suite 302 Washington, DC 20005

How would you feel if your youngster opened the mail and found that it contained obscene advertisements for hard-core pornography? Many Americans are joining an organization that wants laws against illegal obscenity enforced.

Sexually oriented advertisements (SOA) include ads for hard-core pornography, videos, magazines, and explicit photos. More and more often these days, such advertisements are sent, unsolicited, through the mail in plain brown envelopes to unsuspecting families across America.

The National Coalition Against Pornography (NCAP) was formed in 1983 by Dr. Jerry Rink to help concerned citizens throughout the U.S. eliminate child pornography and illegal obscenity. According to Rink, most people are not aware that they can stop this material from coming into their homes by notifying the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) or the local post office.
