Warden Named For Woodville Unit

Handpicked for the Warden's job at the Gib Lewis 1,000-man prison unit here, Regional TDC Director Wayne Scott says that W.B. (Bruce) Strickland, 38, "Was his first and only choice for the job."

The prison unit is scheduled to open officially April 13, according to Scott.

Strickland, who was visiting Woodville Tuesday, will transfer from an Assistant Warden Position from Beto I Unit in Gates-dale. His first job while ferrying between Huntsville and Woodville is to pick senior staff officers and mid-level personnel along with 160 correctional line staff members. Joe Gonzales will be the Assistant Warden here.

CELEBRITY READER-DPS Trooper, Mike Scales, is pictured reading to Nancy Scales 1st grade students: Cordelia Battise, Bobby Cauley, Ashley Chadick, Crystal Childress, Brandon Cruse, Jesse Gay, Amanda Grissom, Aleisha Henry, Dustin Hough, Robert Jackson, Dixy Little, Samuel Pate, Jessica Pierson, Tomica Rigby, Ronnie Sims, Jessica Swanson, and Ashley Yancey.

CELEBRITY READER-Corporal Amy Brown, Texas Department of Public Safety, is pictured reading to students: Amy Brown, Leah Brown, and Anna Clegg.

Celebrity Readers Entertain Students

On Monday, December 18, the Woodville Elementary School had some special guests. Local citizens came, introduced themselves, talked about their professions, and then read to the children. It was a very exciting time and they loved it.

The objective of this celebrity reader program is to encourage the children to read. The excitement of hearing a successful adult reading aloud stories will be of lifelong benefit for beginning readers.

EMT Training Soon

Persons interested in becoming Emergency Medical Technicians are asked to pre-register for a course which will be given in January, 1990.

According to James Stanford, Emergency Medical Technician employed by the Woodville Tyler County Ambulance Service, persons are asked to come by Woodville Tyler County Ambulance Service offices at 1103 West Bluff, Woodville or call 409-283-2215 for more information.

Instruction in Basic First Aid, CPR, Respiratory Care, Trauma Care, and other areas of instructional medical training will be implemented in State Certified EMT Classes.

CARING IS SHARING SERVERS-Member of the Caring Is Sharing Organization, "Couldn't have done it without the help of the Our Lady of the Pines Catholic Church Youth group when it came to serving the annual Christmas dinner for Tyler County needy last Saturday at the Woodville Inn. Over 200 persons were served or took-out meals to their families during the event. A special visit from Santa also added to the fun."

Lawlis Seeks Re-election To Bench

Monte Lawlis

The following is a statement of Candidacy:

Judge Monte D. Lawlis announced that he will seek re-election as Judge of the 1-A District Court. He has served the people of Tyler, Jasper and Newton County as judge of that Court since September 1, 1977, following his appointment by former Governor Dolph Briscoe. Lawlis was elected to full terms in the 1978, 1982 and 1986 elections.

Judge Lawlis is 52 years old. He and his wife Lynette, live in Jasper.

They have two children - Tod, who is an assistant band director at San Benito High School and Terri, who is Curator, John Conner Museum, Texas A & I University.

Judge Lawlis served on active duty in the United States Air Force from 1960 to 1963 and has been a member of the active reserves since 1964. He is currently one of five Air Force reservists serving as a military judge. Lawlis is the recipient of two presidential awards of the Meritorious Service Medal.

Lawlis is a graduate of Baylor University and Baylor Law School. At the time of his appointment as judge, he had been in the active practice of law as a trial attorney for over 17 years. He served as the Assistant District Attorney for the First Judicial District of Texas for approximately one and a half years.

He and his wife are members of the First Baptist Church of Jasper where he serves as a deacon and an adult Sunday School teacher. (To Page 5-A)

Rawls Announces For Pct. 4

The following is a statement of Candidacy:

Bob Rawls, 43, would like the citizens of Precinct 4 to know that I have decided to run for the office of Commissioner in Precinct 4.

I was born and reared in Tyler County and graduated from Spurger High School in 1963. I am married to the former Sandra Kirch and have three children: Johnny, age 22; Ricky, age 20; and Robyn, age 17. My family and I are members of First Baptist Church of Woodville.

I have taught in the public schools of Texas. Some of my teaching experience in the enforcement of law to be running a campaign was in the State of California. I taught in the Mountain View Unified School District and started the police department in Woodville.

Employed by Exxon Oil Co. on the Valdez oil spill cleanup in Alaska.

During the past 2½ months I have been self-employed in Charleston, South Carolina doing contract labor work.

I feel my background in law-enforcement and my present experience in contract work.

Earlier this year I was employed by Exxon Oil Co. on the Valdez oil spill cleanup in Alaska.

During the past 2½ months I have been self-employed in Charleston, South Carolina doing contract labor work.

I feel my background in law-enforcement and my present experience in contract work.

Hanks Is Candidate

The following is a statement of Candidacy:

John R. Hanks would like to announce his candidacy for re-election as Justice of the Peace, Precinct 4, Tyler County. This is my second term in office which requires me to be honest and ethical and I feel that I am qualified to hold this position again. I have been a very good Justice of the Peace and I have received many compliments from my constituents.

which I feel are the two most important requirements for holding a position such as this one.

We must go small of all who elect me and have continued to support me during my tenure. I would like to thank all of you who have supported me and my family. I would like to thank all of you who have voted for me in the past and your continued support.

John R. Hanks

After Affects

A new business, "AFTER AFFECTS" for the beauty salon located at 100 South Magnolia where co-owners Sherlyn Busch and Cindy Bell help each customer to be her most beautiful self.

The idea was conceived in August 1989 which put into motion paperwork and decorating and furnishing the building. Supplies, including the Reiki and Nexus lines were ordered and received. All was ready for the October 1, 1989 opening.

Sherlyn is a well-known Tyler Countian, married with a son and daughter. Cindy hails from Kansas, is married, and has been a licensed beautician for 21 years. Another member of the staff is Sherlyn's Sister. She is a 1988 grad of Woodville High. Linda just graduated from Beaumont School and has her Texas license.

The salon is open Tuesday through Saturday. For special early or late hour appointments and regular appointments, call 283-5828. Walk-ins are always welcome.

P.S. After Affects will be closed Tuesday, December 26. Have a beautiful holiday season with friends and family."

Bob Boykin Photography

A well-known Woodville native, Bob Boykin began his professional career as a graduate 17 years ago by covering a wedding. At community events and in weddings, Bob is a familiar sight behind camera or video equipment.

Through the years as demands increased, Bob has studied, attended many workshops and kept equipment and skills up-to-date. He is the new president of the Southeast Texas Professional Photographers Guild and a member of: Texas Professional Photographers Association, Professional Photographers of America, and Wedding Photographers of America. He has taught beginner "how to" classes for amateur photographers.

With his own studio and black and white darkroom, Bob has provided many photos for local events and school and church functions. His albums have been used to create works of art. Every phase of photography can be covered by Bob including: aerial, forensic, insurance, commercial and studio. He also offers complete framing service. The videos are titled and edited to provide a professional production for both commercial and special events.

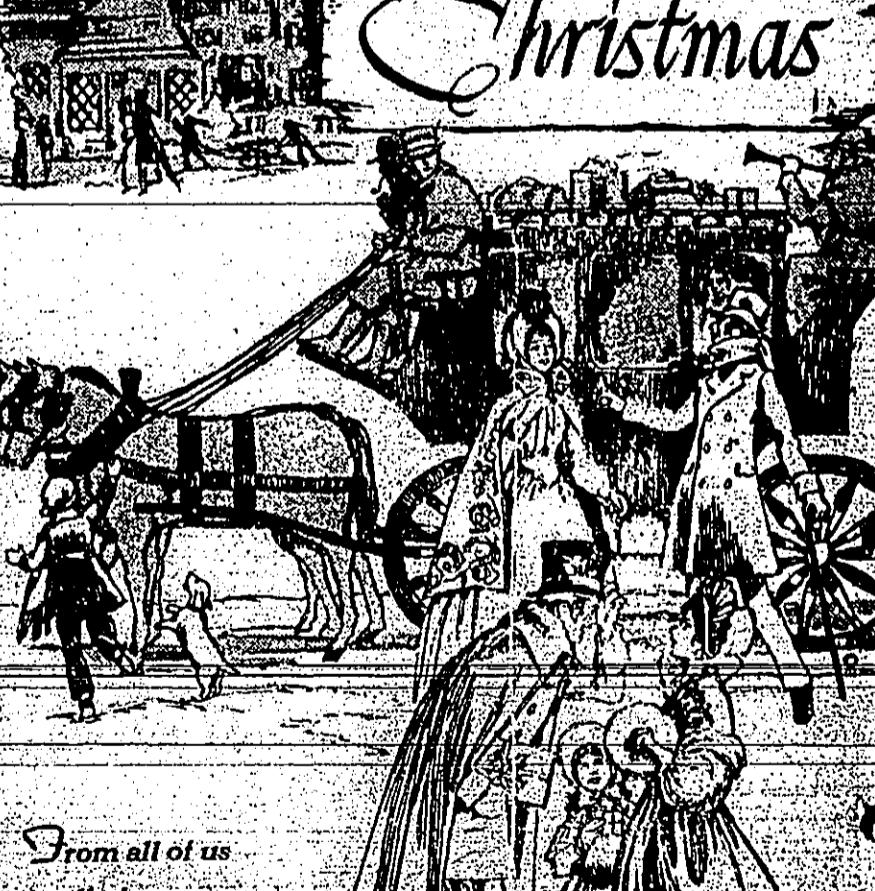

The latest addition to his work offered is copy and restoration of old photos.

For appointments call 283-3073 or stop by 1010 West Bluff, Woodville, Monday - Friday 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Consultations are available without charge.

Colmesneil EH Club Meet

The Colmesneil EH Club gathered at the Colmesneil Community Center on Wednesday, Dec. 13 and went to the Heritage Village Museum for a tour, as we did not get to visit during the Twilight Tour on Saturday. It was reported a beautiful tour. Our luncheon was at the Picket House and as usual, it was delicious and we all really did enjoy this treat.

At 1 p.m. we went to the home of Margaret Crews for the induction of new officers.

President: Gloria Newcome, Vice Pres. Alene Johns, Secy. June Reid, Threas. Catherine Deason; Reporter: Margarette Crews. Gifts were exchanged and refreshments were served.

Assisting the hostess were Doris Davis, June Reid, and Dorothy Hill.

Our next meeting will be on Jan. 9, 1990 at 1 p.m. at the Community Center.

Bethel Baptist Presents It's Christmas Cantata December 24th

The Adult Choir of Bethel Baptist Church in Colmesneil will present their annual Christmas Cantata this Sunday morning during the 11 o'clock worship service. The public is invited and all members are encouraged to present. The Cantata, "O Come Let Us Adore Him," is a unique presentation of the traditional Christmas story of a Father who loved so deeply that He sent His only Son to a sinful world so that, through Him, He might reach out to us. It tells of the Son who was so obedient to accept the awesome responsibility of redemption of mankind; a son who would willingly trade splendor for poverty, amazement for cords and finally, if need be, to find the peace that this season brings.

Following the musical portion of the Cantata, the Pastor, Rev. Harry Saine, will do a one-man message of "A Dialogue With Herod" during which Herod will explain his definition of peace and be faced with the high cost of it all. Ernie Overstreet, Mu-
