Dogwood Parade, Drama, Pageant Excell

By Patsy Duke

The final weekend of the Tyler County Dogwood Festival began Saturday at 2:00 p.m. with the Tyler County Dogwood Festival Parade. The parade traveled east on Highway 190 West to the traffic light at the intersection of Highway 69 where it turned north. The lovely ladies vying for the queen's crown and their escorts, the bands and the floats paraded through the streets of Woodville. This writer turned completely proud grandmother as the float carrying her two granddaughters, Jennifer and Crystal Duke, ages 6 and 10 passed by. The clowns, the balloons, the humor depicted in some floats, the loveliness in others made this a beautiful parade and gave the spectator a glimpse of the dedication of the Tyler County residents. Each entry was special.

The final portion of the weekend began at 7:30 at the Woodville Amphitheater behind the Woodville I.S.D. Business Office on North Charlton.

The April sun hung low above the horizon as I took my place in the amphitheater. The breeze, coming from the west, hinted of a cold evening.

The main stage was decorated with pink, white and red paper flowers attached to the dried Yupon branches the decorating committee has been making since early January. The set contained: The Rockland Depot, an Old Black Steam Engine complete with tracks; a row of buildings depicting the main street of Rockland in its heyday; the DEAN building, Skinner's Cafe, the Mill Office and N. H. Carter Store. Pink azaleas against a black fence separated the Carter store from the Commissary. Pines and natural greenery separated the commissary from the choir loft. The choir was housed in a white loft backed by lattice decorated with large white Dogwood blossoms outlined in gold.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Houston, accompanied by Sherry Harvey, pianist and Dr. Jim Jinnette, organist, provided prelude music. During the prelude, several members of the choir presented solos. Several quartets were also featured.

To open the evening's activities, Mrs. Houston sang "Trees". Against the backdrop of natural beauty of the tall pines adorned with man made flowers, my eyes became moist and I batted back a tear as Mrs. Houston's lovely voice filled the great out-of-doors with the final words, "poems are made by fools like me, but only God can make a tree".

Josiah Wheat, president of The Tyler County Dogwood Festival, served as master ceremonies. Mrs. Becky Jinnette, Executive Director of the Tyler County Dogwood Festival was introduced and announced Mrs. Marguerite Crews, of Colmesneil, as winner of the 1990 James E. Wheat Award.

Mr. Jinnette recognized a group of visiting Rotary exchange students from the Netherlands. Pebbles in a pool, one never knows how far the ripple will go. Memories from the 1990 Dogwood Festival will be carried far and wide.

Members of the Royal Court of the 1990 Dogwood Festival were introduced. First came the duchesses and their escorts. Each lady was lovely in her full length evening gown. Gowns ranged in color from pastels to deep pinks, blues, reds and fuchsia. Each escort was handsome in his tux.

Next the Ladies In Waiting and their escorts were introduced: Kristin Kimberly Ball, Warren, escort, Edd King; Amber Faith Brasher, Woodville, escort, Lance Ramsey; Stephanie Isaacks, Woodville, escort, William LaFoy; Carmine Loving, Chester, escort, Bryan Martin; Heather Ann Navarro, Warren, escort, Klay O'Bier; Stacy Owens, Woodville, escort, Donald Forse; Larisa Lynette Porter, Colmesneil, escort, Christopher Hearn; Stafanie Jewell Ramos, Woodville, escort, Michael Allison; and Jacqueline pétals. Next came the Princesses, Angela Domingue, Chester, escort, Bit Stanley; Melissa Tene Stewart, Colmesneil, escort Chad Gulley; Cynthia Ann Collins, Spurger, escort Stephen Neil Jasper; Shannon Lynn Clotiaux, Warren, escort Casey Harris; and Amy Craine, Woodville, Mathew Fortenberry. These ladies were attired in white evening gowns and carried an arm bouquet of white Dogwood blossoms tied with white satin ribbon. Each escort wore a tux.

The Honorable Gib Lewis, Speaker of the House of Representatives, was introduced. He presented the walked before her court and her subjects. Her escort joined her and escorted her up the green bordered golden steps to her throne room at the left of the main stage. The lattice backed platform held huge white Dogwood Blossoms with one giant golden Dogwood blossom bearing the numbers "50" directly behind the Queen's throne. The trainbearers followed their queen bearing the queen's ornate white velvet and gold train.

This procession was followed by the Princesses and their escorts and the Queen's Ladies In Waiting and their escorts.

Speaker Lewis escorted the former queen where she made her exit at the right side of the stage.

The lights were dimmed and the Historical Pageant began.

Don Boler narrated the pageant "The Sound Of A Whistle (Sawmills and Railroads - Rockland - 1910-1932)". Written by Mrs. Aloha E. Freeland, a resident of Rockland, the story depicted the lives of the residents of this once booming Tyler County town through happy times and sad, through World War I to the Roaring 20's and to the changes that came during this era to the life of the town and its people.

"Poems are made by fools like me, but only God can make a tree"

As the pageant drew to a close and the spotlight was shone on the queen and her escort, they rose and turned slightly to the west. Simultaneously the finale fireworks display from the west, began as overseen by the Woodville Volunteer Fire Department. This spectacular display of umbrella lights directly above the amphitheater accompanied by the choir and The Heritage Band, under the direction of Jim Hudgins, gave a beautiful ending to the Tyler County Dogwood Festival 1990.

After the pageant, the Royal Court attended the Queen's Ball, sponsored by the Woodville High School Senior Class. The Dogwood Ball was held at the Woodville Inn.

Mrs. Freeland is to be commended for her writing of this pageant along with the entire pageant staff and Tyler County Dogwood Festival organization. These dedicated people presented to us a beautiful, entertaining and informative evening.

The songs and customs of the era in which I grew up flooded my memory. Songs my Mother and Daddy sang to me, "Smile Awhile", "The Missouri Waltz" and others - each brought back thoughts of times gone by.

Actors and actresses in the Historical Pageant played their parts well. The narration was excellent as was the sound and the lighting, the timing, the decorations, the scenery, the music and the fireworks display. All participants in the coronation were poised and lovely.

Our thanks to all of you for an evening to remember!

Princess of Tyler County, Miss Shannon Clotiaux of Warren.

The master of ceremonies presented the 1989 Tyler County Dogwood Queen, Miss Tania Celestine. In her final speech, Miss Celestine gave a sketch of her year as the reigning Tyler County Dogwood Queen and wished her successor well.

Wheat introduced The Grand Duchess, Miss Laura Holt of Kilgore.

Then came the moment Tyler County had been waiting for: Speaker Lewis announced the Queen of the 1990 Tyler County Dogwood Festival, Miss Amy Craine, of Woodville, and presented her with her scepter. The trainbearers attached the train to the shoulders of the kneeling queen as the former queen placed the crown upon her head and Wheat presented the Queen with the Dogwood Queen's ring.

As the former queen watched from the back center of the stage, Queen Amy of the House of Craine,

Anthony Collins

Anthony Collins Announces

Rev. Anthony Collins for the Colmesneil Independent School District Trustee. Lifetime resident of Tyler County, Pastor of The Pilgrim Home Baptist Church of Huntington, Texas also Rockwall Union Baptist Church of Jasper, County, Minister for 12 years, married to the former Angeltia Darden of Chester, Texas. Two daughters, Christy 5 years, attend Colmesneil Elementary and Andrea 9 months. I promise to be fair and do the best job possible as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Colmesneil District.

Slaydon Is Candidate

I would like to take this time to announce my candidacy for the Colmesneil School Board.

I am 37 years old, married and have 2 children in school. I am a lifelong resident of Colmesneil.

I think it is important for parents to know that they are being represented by parents who care about their children's education and what is in the best interest of them.

As a concerned parent, I would not be led by simple majority on votes of issues that concern the entire community. If there were question in the minds of concerned citizens, I would consider it my duty as an elected official to address it publicly.

I feel it is the rights of the voters to know what is going on at all school board meetings and not be left out in the cold!

Our school system is in need of responsible leadership and I pledge to you that a vote for me is a vote for someone who will not only be responsible but involved in the business of higher education for our children.

It is a great concern to me, while running for this position, that I will not be able to contact everyone of you. I will try my best to visit in person or contact by phone as many of you as possible. However, if I fail to reach you, I would like to take this opportunity to ask that you cast your vote on May 5th for Linda Marshall Slaydon. Your support will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you, Linda Slaydon

County Outreach Group Meets

Volunteers with the Tyler County Outreach Program met Monday evening April 9, 1990 at 6:30 p.m. at the Tyler County Justice Center. The group elected Adele Isaacs as President of the organization and Bonnie Ellis as Secretary-Treasurer. Items discussed at the meeting were the booth at the Dogwood Festival to distribute pamphlets and literature about the programs services, a Bake Sale tentatively scheduled for Saturday, April 28 at Bob's Fairway Foods in Woodville, and a training program for the Dogwood Festival to be held at the Tyler County Justice Center from 6-8 p.m. April 30, May 1, and 2. April 22-24 is National Crime Victims Week. During this special week, the Tyler County Outreach volunteers will focus their attention on educating the community about the rights and needs of violent crime victims.

Most people are unaware that one of four American families is touched by crime each year. Annually, there are almost six million violent crime victims who need special services and programs to help them cope with their personal tragedies.

The Tyler County Outreach Program is always looking for volunteers to help promote and support the services they offer to victims of domestic violence. If you would like more information on how you can share your time and talents to enhance the program's efforts, please call 1-800-621-8882.

Make The Quality Connection™

Hello, Doctor? It's my daughter...she's running a fever and it's getting worse...Can you...hello...

At Contel, we know how important a properly functioning phone system is. Sometimes, it can literally be a matter of life or death. Unfortunately, not everyone understands. Every month - especially in the spring - numerous phone cables are cut in Contel's local serving area due to digging.

Contel posts warnings on telephone line pedestals and along cable routes indicating where cable is buried in the area. A toll free 24-hour telephone number (1-800-628-2DIG) is printed on those warnings so that anyone planning to dig can call Contel. We will immediately dispatch someone to mark the exact cable location - free of charge.

Please, call Contel before you dig. Because when you cut a phone line, it is more than just inconvenient. A lot more.
