ANTI-DRUG CAMPAIGN GIVEN SUPPORT - More than 30 vehicles wound through Woodville Monday morning sounding sirens and blowing horns to demonstrate public support for Red Ribbon Week in the Woodville schools. Lining up for the Red Ribbon Week parade were police, sheriff, fire department and ambulance company vehicles as well as car and trucks from the private sector, such as the Gulf State Utilities bucket truck. The cars drove past all Woodville school campus to help kickoff local activities in the anti-drug kindergarten class is now the proud owner of one of over 3,000 McGruff Crime Prevention puppets in East Padilla. Texas. Members of the Fred Lions Club purchased the puppet and presented it to the class on Thursday, Oct. 29. During the presentation, the children were taught about crime prevention. Pictured with Fred's kindergarten class are Principal Dr. Joannie Alkinsen, teacher Patty Ellis, McGruff school program regional director Jim Noone, and Fred Lions Club President James Taylor. Each puppet is $159 and the Fred Lions are challenging other organization to participate in the project. For more information, call 429-3240.

Third graders stage wedding

FRED - Mrs. Laura Barner's third grade class at Fred Elementary School recently held a wedding based on the The story is about a man who lost his wife and was left with two small children to raise. He placed an advertise ment in the newspaper for a wife, A lady from Maine responded and agreed to stay for one month to see how it would work. By the end of the story, Sarah has fallen in love with the children and their father. It is clear that she has decided to stay but the book ends before the wedding takes

The third graders began where the story ended. For the mock wedding between Sarah and Jacob, the studecorations, wrote the wedding vows, selected the music and arranged the reception for the wedding guests. ANTI-DRUG CAMPAIGN GIVEN SUPPORT - More than 30 vehicles wound through Woodville Monday morning sounding sirens and blowing horns to demonstrate public support for Red Ribbon Week in the Woodville schools. Lining up for the Red Ribbon Week parade were police, sheriff, fire department and ambulance company vehicles as well as car and trucks from the private sector, such as the Gulf State Utilities bucket truck. The cars drove past all Woodville school campus to help kickoff local activities in the anti-drug

Third graders stage wedding

FRED - Mrs. Laura Barner's third grade class at Fred Elementary School recently held a wedding based on the book, Sarah, Plain and Tall. The story is about a man who lost his wife and was left with two small children to raise. He placed an advertise nent in the newspaper for a wife. A greed to stay for one month to see how it would work. By the end of the story, Sarah has fallen in love with the hildren and their father. It is clear that she has decided to stay but the book ends before the wedding takes

The third graders began where th story ended. For the mock wedding between Sarah and Jacob, the stu decorations, wrote the wedding yow: selected the music and arranged th eception for the wedding guests. Each class at Fred Elementary attended the nony was repeated several times. The actors and helpers included: The Preacher - Stormie Gore. Jacob Whitting - Caleb Drake. Sarah Wheaton - Cheryl Peck. Anna Whitting - Teresa Gore.
Caleb Whitting - Melissa Drake.
