

At the Village

By Dottie Johnson

Rehearsals are off in a good start at the Village for our Fifth Annual presentation of "Whispers In The Wind, June 18-19, 25-26, but there's no time to waste.

"Whispers" rehearsals underway at Heritage Village

Kenn, who was jilted by one of his own parishioners, Charles Mayshaw, who was putting his all into his role as sheriff.

Others playing for the evening were Bob Bell as Justice of the Peace; Lillian Herrington as the seamstress; Jo and Steve Porcari as doctor and nurse in the Physician's Office and Rosa Swearingen and her Maria in the Apothecary.

Virginia Haynes was at the piano in the Cherokee Church with Paula Jones leading the singing. Charles Haynes was in the barber shop; Diane and Steve were in the general store and Paige Stevenson as the marm.

Charles Hale kept the anvils ringing in the Blacksmith Shop; Olivia Straban as an actress again last Saturday evening. During the first official gathering of the Village Players as pioneer of character acts, they had spent the week helping remodel the facilities of the Hilltop Baptist Church at Dan.

Phyllis Fletcher and his family from Austin came to the Village on Sunday, the only day many people have to do historical research. They were looking for information on the first Josiah When, who died over the 200 acres of land that became Woodville, our county seat.

Readers Write

McCulley is dedicated officer

Dear Editor: I enjoy putting some of my thoughts in the Readers Write column. Of course I was told that I shouldn't sign my name to the letters. Sign somebody else's name.

E & L has economic impact

Dear Editor: I've heard the old cliché "ignorance is bliss" and I have found some real proof that it is so very true. It suggests to D. J. Pettijohn, my neighbor, to write a letter to the Editor published 5-12-93, word for word as I wrote it.

Summer Fun 'Water' your kids

By Ducky Kathman: A number of years ago, one of my favorite children wore a shirt that said, "Water me, I'm growing." It was a cute saying and I liked it.

Fund raiser was a success

Dear Editor: The members of Oak Grove Baptist Church in Colmansville, Texas, are so proud to say thank you to each person who contributed to our fund raiser, either by buying or donating.

Ambulance policy questioned

Dear Editor: It's good to have ambulance insurance in our town, but there's one drawback. It's not our choice as to which hospital we are to be taken to.

Views In Dental Health STEPHEN C. BEHNERT, D.D.S.

IF YOU CHIP A TOOTH Billy was playing sandlot baseball. He was catcher, a heavy one without a mask. As fate would have it, the batter swung at a pitch and the backswing hit Billy in the mouth and chipped off two of his front teeth. This is a typical dental emergency which requires immediate dental care.
