Mary Magdalene portrayal set

WOODVILLE—Jane Leister Elwood of Beaumont will portray Mary Magdalene at St. Pant's Episcopal Church, Highway 190 west in Woodville, at 1 p.m. on Sunday, June 5.

Leister, who is making a return engagement here, includes in her repertoire and monologue 15 women of the Bible. Mary Magdalene, her favorite, will be the focus of the St. Paul's engagement.

The monologue involves a half hour program and tells how Magdalene met Jesus and takes the audience through the crucifixion and the resurrection from her point of view.

Elwood says that many people have the wrong idea of Magdalene, whom the Bible names as the first person who saw Christ after he arose from the dead.

SPURGER — TOPS Chapter No. 645 of Spurger met May 12 with 17 members weighing in. The best losers of the week were Dona Norsworthy and Wanda Ard. Wanda Ard also won the dime incentive.

Recently, 12 members of the chapter attended State Recognition Days in Austin. The chapter had several members who were recognized for their hard work toward weight loss. The group's only male member, Jim Fitzgerald, received many awards, the highest being Texas State King. He also was a KOPS graduate, Gulf Coast Area and Chapter King, and a Division III winner at the chapter, area and state levels.

Lois Fitzgerald was a KOPS graduate and also the Chapter Queen. Sandy Tolar participated in the KOPS of Long Standing Parade.

1993 leader Dona Norsworthy escorted the chapter King and Queen in the Leader's Parade.

The win set up a regional showdown against the Normange Panthers Tuesday evening at Crockett. The winner of that game will go on to meet either Evadale (18-4) or Trinadad (23-4) in a quarter final title game later this week. The winner of that contest earns a berth to the state baseball championships, June 9-10. Normange went into the Colmesneil game Tuesday night with a 9-8 bi-district win over Centerville and a 10-6 area win over Dawson. Colmesneil, which defeated High Island 11-0 in bi-district before knocking off Carlisle, is a four time state champion and has been to the state baseball tournament six times. Evadale was a state semifinalist last year in its first outing to Austin. The Rebels lost
