was initiated 60 years ago when Jay N. "Ding" Darling, nationally known political cartoonist for the Des Moines Register, proposed the idea of a Federal revenue stamp to generate funds for the acquisition of waterfowl habi tat. President Franklin D. Roosevelt commissioned Darling to design the first Federal Migratory Bird Hunting and Conservation Stamp, now known as the Duck Stamp, in 1934. Since that year, the annual design has been chosen in a national competition.

A limited number of organization are selected to exhibit the Federal Duck Stamp artwork each year, "We are very pleased to have been chosen to be one of two Texas exhibitors for the 1993 competition. It is indeed a privilege to bring this show to Eas Texas," said Carol Riggs, director of the museum. "Competition for selection as the federal duck stamp artwork is very stiff. This is an excellent on portunity to see wildlife art of this caliber. We are pleased to announce that we have already been advised tha we will have the 1994 show next fall. WOODVILLE — "He shall renew thy strength like the Eagles..." so says he King James version of the Bible. The Woodvi'le Eagles supplied their home-coming crowd with some vivid magery of this verse from the Bible last Friday night as the source to a 44-12 victory over the Rountze Lions. Coming back after a crushing defeat. the Eagles railied to completely dominate the second-half of play, scoring 37 points, and held the Lions to 106 yards of total offense. Woodville now noves to a 2-1 record in district play. "Both teams put forth a great effort, and played well on both sides of the ame, offense and defense, for the first time this year. The boys really played well." said Woodville's Head Coach Craig McGallion. "We're go-

Elementary wins 'Significant Gain' award

AUSTIN - Warren Elementary School has been named as one of only 391 schools campuses across Texas to win a 1993-94 Texas Successful Schools Award System (TSSAS) Sig nificant Gains Award.

According to Criss Cloudt, executive associated Commissioners for the Texas Education Agency, a total of 6.152 campuses were eligible for consideration for the award. "Only 391 campuses met standards under the 1993-94 TSSAS and accountability systems for the Significant Gains Award," he said in a letter of notification to Warren Elementary School. In addition to the recognition, the award also carries a cash prize and Cloudt said that the oreliminary figure for Warren Elementary, based on its average daily attendance, is $4,541. "In addition, your school may apply for an additional TSSAS Inclusion Award for efforts to include students with disabilities in the general educa tion classroom," Cloudt said.

After selections for the additional TSSAS Inclusion Awards have been determines, all TSSAS Exemplary clusion Award cash amounts for each winning campus will be deposited in the respective school district accounts in mid-December.

The awards will be formally presented to the schools during ceremonies planned for Jan. 30, 1995 in Aus-
