Spurger Homecoming Jan. 27-28

SPURGER — Spurger Homecoming activities will be held on Friday and Saturday, Jan. 27 and 28, with a full schedule of events.

Warren girls ready for Woodville

WARREN — After falling to the Kirbyville Wildcats Friday night, the Lady Warriors have a tougher road to the playoffs than expected.

Warren met state ranked Buna Tuesday night, and after a non-district game against Beaumont Kelly Friday, the Lady Warriors face a "must win" contest against arch rival Woodville next Tuesday.

Speaking of the Woodville contest, Warren coach Don Elliff stated, "It should be a good one. We catch them here, and we had better be ready."

Warren dug themselves in a hole with the Kirbyville loss Friday night. The Warriors held a 29-18 lead at the half and had things under control until late in the fourth period.

Kirbyville, which had come into the game without a district win, stayed Warren late in the game with physical full court press.

With the momentum changing, the Kirbyville Wildcats took a one point lead with just over a minute to play. The Warriors responded by going to the free throw line five separate times on one or two fouls.

Leigh Ann Neal, who finished the evening with 23 points, finally gave Warren what it needed with two clutch free throws with just over 10 seconds remaining. The shots gave Warren what appeared to be a winning, 47-46 margin.

But the Wildcats quickly sped back down court and hit a two pointer with three seconds left on the clock to regain the lead. Warren rolled over to Kirbyville and lost the game.

UP FOR THE REBOUND — Warren's Carrie Read goes up for a rebound in basketball action Friday against Kirbyville. The Lady Warriors hope to rebound from their loss to Kirbyville when they host the Lady Eagles of Woodville Tuesday.

SPURGER GIRLS UPSET BIG SANDY — The Lady Pirates of Spurger upset state ranked Big Sandy and then squeaked past cross-county rival Colmesneil to improve their season mark to 14-6 this week.

Spurger knocked off Big Sandy, a preseason top ten pick by Texas Basketball Magazine, 37-35, with a last second basket by LaTasha Moye, her only points of the game.

Following that win the Lady Pirates rallied back from a three point third quarter deficit to post a 37-34 win over Colmesneil.

Eagles try to recover from Kountze loss

WOODVILLE — The Woodville Eagles will try to shake off a controversial, 69-67, loss to the Kountze Lions in a key district match-up when they host the Orangefield Bobcats Friday night.

The Kountze loss, which included a possible 10 point turnaround due to a Kountze player wearing a different number than the one listed in the official score book, gave Woodville a 3-1 district record going into a Tuesday night game against Newton.

Earlier in the week the Eagles were in the midst of controversy again when it was discovered that they had to play a Tuesday game at Stephen F. Austin in Port Arthur at 5 p.m. instead of 7:30.

The setback was temporary as the Eagles quickly jumped on a bus in early afternoon and disposed of SFA with a 69-64 victory.

But while the Eagles did overcome a Tuesday time switch, it was harder to deal with a stubborn timekeeper at Kountze who refused to halt the game to notify the officials that a Kountze player was not listed properly on the official score book.

Kountze missed a shot, but this time the ball was knocked out by Woodville. With 11 seconds remaining the Lions' Wayne Low hit a 15 foot jumper to knot the score.

The Eagles who had split two games earlier with Kountze in tournament play, decided to go for it instead of going into overtime.

As Woodville coach John Lambersh and the Eagles pointed out, it was a possible 10 point turnaround.

After being told of the infraction, officials ruled that if the player returned to the court that a technical would be assessed, a matter that became a moot point when the Kountze coach left his player on the bench for the rest of the game.

Regardless, Woodville had its chances to win the game. Leading by two points with less than a minute to play, the Eagles missed two critical free throws.

Woodville held a three point lead in the first quarter and a 37-36 halftime lead. Kountze rallied back to lead at the end of three, 54-47.

Gerrard Betts led Eagles scoring with 29 points. He also had six rebounds. Other top statistical leaders for Woodville included Kendrick Beatty with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

Against SFA the Eagles rebounded from a 15-11 first quarter deficit to defeat the Port Arthur club in a game played two hours earlier than normal.

The problem occurred due to a district rule that states that the first game between two schools will begin at 5 p.m. The rule was set up after junior varsity and girls games to begin at an earlier time.

Woodville ran into trouble when SFA took the rule literally and notified the Eagles after lunch Tuesday that the game would be played at 5 o'clock.
